SATURDAY INAUGURATES FOR TORONTO, AS FAR AS THE

GOBS

DISPENSATION ON

Rings out the old dispensation of shoddy and ill-made Clothing and rings in a new era, which commences with the rising of Saturday's sun. "THE BELL" appeals to the intelligence of the men of Toronto. Why should so many of you be dependent on the merchant tailor? You buy your hats ready-made; you buy your boots ready-made; you buy your underwear ready-made; your wives buy their mantles and cloaks ready-made; your preachers (some of them) buy their sermons readymade, and the truth is that the average well-built man can buy his clothes ready-made at a saving

"THE BELL" starts out on its career with the avowed determination of supplying to the men and boys of Toronto a class of Ready-made Clothing which has not been seen here before—such clothing as is sold by Brokam of New York or Wanamaker of Phila-Ready-made Clothing at low prices, and at higher prices Suits and Overcoats better—yes, no doubt about delphia—sound, honest, reliable Ready-made Clothing at low prices, and at higher prices Suits and Overcoats better—yes, no doubt about delphia—sound, honest, reliable Ready-made Clothing at low prices, and at higher prices Suits and Overcoats better—yes, no doubt about delphia—sound, honest, reliable Ready-made Clothing at low prices, and at higher prices Suits and Overcoats better—yes, no doubt about delphia—sound, honest, reliable Ready-made Clothing at low prices, and at higher prices Suits and Overcoats better—yes, no doubt about delphia—sound, honest, reliable Ready-made Clothing it along the BELL" aims too delphia—sound, honest, reliable Ready-made Clothes they've been getting. "THE BELL" is determined to jump into a big business from the start, and prices have been made accordingly. If "THE BELL," with a brand new stock, lashings of capital, and doing business for cash only, can't underbuy and undersell the old houses, then it had better never have commenced business at all. Saturday is the Opening Day. "THE BELL" hopes to be "at home" to ten thousand visitors on that day, and will welcome all who will call and walk through the new store.
