LOUISVILLE, May 13.—Derby day broke cold and threatening, but shortly before noon the hovering black clouds gave way to warm sunshine and when the bugle called the contestants to the post for the inaugural race the stands, lawns, betting ring and free field were filled with an eager, pushing crowd. Conservative judges estimated the committee to give on the stands lawns, betting ring and free field were filled with an eager, pushing crowd. Conservative judges estimated the number of visitors at not less than 20,000.

Versatile, Hendrie's crack son of Rayon d'Or did a fast mile and a furiong at Woodbine the other morning; but it was thought to be a secret. However, a couple of touts had their eyes to knot holes in the fence and caught his time which is said to have been around the 2 minute mark. The news spread quickly and every turfman wanted to bet a quickly and every turfman wanted to be a quickly and every turfman wanted to be a quickly and every turfman wanted to be a quickl Thursday following.

That's a shame, Harry, but now you've deceived me you might tell me why they are called rosebuds. Well, the reason is because the end to be lighted is closed like a rosebud, in consequence of which the cigar lights evenly like a cigarette, and therefore can never burn crooked. Now, in lighting ordinary cigars you will notice—What?—car stops.

One of the most successful German physicians gave as the secret of his wonder ful success these three important points:

1. Keep the Head Cool. 2. Keep the Bowels Open. 3. Keep the Feet Warm.

These conditions are not so easily obtained as one would think. Why? Because without pure and healthy blood a vigorous circulation cannot be kept up, and because the food and occupation of most people tends to clog up the bowels and produce constipation. The success of B. B. B., like that of the German physician, lies in so purifying the blood and regulating the bowels, liver and stomach, that these three conditions are fulfilled easily, and disease can find no lodgment in the hody,

THE BEST SPRING MEDICINE.

B

This medicine does purify the blood and cure all diseases arising from impure or unhealthy blood. It does regulate the entire sy em and cure constipation, dyspepsia, bilious-ness, sick hearache, scrofula, skin diseases, rheumatism, and all disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels. During the past ten years over one million bottles have been sold in Canada, and, although we guarantee every bottle to do all we claim, we have not received a single complaint.
