

The National Cash Register
check cash and credit sales and establishes a perfect check system in a retailer's business.
Call and examine.
OFFICE: 63 KING-ST. WEST
TWELFTH YEAR.

THE MAYOR'S DUPLICITY.

COMPELLED TO PRODUCE CHRISTOPHER ROBINSON'S LETTER.

Balking Mr. Blake's Amendments—A Short History of the Way in Which the Street Railway Legislation is Retarded—In the Mayor a Better Lawyer Than Robinson and Blake.

The more the street railway matter is probed the more certain does it become that Mayor Fleming is guilty of duplicity toward the council and the citizens, and that instead of withdrawing from his original mistake he has resorted to discreditable means to cover his conduct. If he claims that the council is backing him up in resisting Mr. Blake's amendments the claim is only made good by admitting that he deliberately suppressed Christopher Robinson's opinion in the matter, when he ought to have given it to the council and when he was possessed of it; that he, when he received that opinion in writing, refused to give it to the press and public; and that last night when he, with a delegation, memorialized the Attorney-General on the matter, it was only under compulsion that the letter was read, and even then it was refused to the press. But The World is able this morning to present that opinion to the public and to the aldermen, and can judge of the duplicity for itself.

But let us first give a short review of the case:

A Short Chronology.
Monday, March 23: The bill was finally settled by Messrs. Blake and Bigger for the city and McCarthy, Moss and Kingmill for the Street Railway Company.

Mr. Blake on the same day wrote to the council and his letter was presented that evening to the council. Mr. Bigger, the City Solicitor, attended the council that evening and explained the amendments agreed to by council for both sides that afternoon, and they were adopted by a vote of 16 to 8 after a long debate.

Tuesday, March 29: In the morning these amendments, as passed by the council the previous evening, were presented by Mr. Blake and Mr. Bigger, on behalf of the City Council, to the Legislative Committee, in the presence of the Mayor and in the presence of Messrs. Kingmill and Laidlaw, on behalf of the company.

Thursday, March 31: A long conference took place between Christopher Robinson, S. H. Blake, Q.C., C. R. W. Bigger, and the Mayor. This was the conference to which Mr. Robinson in his letter further on.

Well met the same night. Ald. B. moved, seconded by Ald. Shaw, that the Mayor and Ald. Shaw be a special committee to submit a series of questions to Messrs. Robinson, Blake and the City Solicitor, to be answered by the council at its next meeting. The motion was carried by a vote of 16 to 8.

On this motion Ald. Crawford, Gowanlock, McMurtry, Saunders, Venable, and Yon. All the rest of the council voted against it, and it was negatived by a majority of 11.

The Mayor spoke against this resolution, but he concealed from the council that after himself had a conference that afternoon with Mr. Robinson, Mr. Blake and the City Solicitor. It will be seen from Mr. Robinson's letter that such a conference had been held.

The resolution to strike out the amendments adopted at the previous meeting was then carried by the casting vote of the Mayor. Ald. Crawford, who voted for the reference of the matter to a special committee, was excused from voting on the ground that it was a question of law, and that he wanted the opinion of Christopher Robinson before he could vote intelligently. But the Mayor, though possessed of Christopher Robinson's opinion, did not supply it to Ald. Crawford or any of his colleagues.

If the Mayor had frankly and honestly informed the council that night of the conference between Messrs. Robinson, Blake, Bigger and the Mayor, and that Mr. Robinson fully concurred with Mr. Blake, and was of opinion that the amendments ought to be passed, the council would have been wiser in not voting against the bill, and such a satisfactory resolution would have been passed by the council that night or the next night.

The council ought to vindicate the city's honor by an immediate and voluntary acknowledgment of its error, and by the county judge to enquire into these dark and devious ways of carrying on the public business of the city.

Mr. Morat composed the Production of Christopher Robinson's Letter.

Last night the Mayor, the City Solicitor and several of the aldermen who voted with the Mayor on his change of policy waited on the Attorney-General and presented a memorial asking in effect that the amendments agreed to by Mr. Blake and Mr. Bigger for the city and by council for the company, and adopted by the council on March 23, and accepted by the Legislative Committee on March 29, be struck out of the bill.

Mr. Morat's memorial was handed over to the Mayor in his memorial suppressed all reference to Christopher Robinson's opinion, and urged the use of the city seal in putting it to the memorial without any authority from the council.

During the conference Mr. E. F. Clarke asked whether Christopher Robinson had been consulted and had given an opinion on the matter. Mayor Fleming simply squirmed. Finally the Attorney-General said that if the memorialists wished the Government to consider the matter they must be frank and candid in their statements, and directed the production of the letter, which was then reluctantly handed over and read by Mr. Bigger.

The Attorney-General reserved announcing what the course of the Government would be, but requested counsel to furnish him with authorities on the point of power to withdraw from agreements entered into by council and embodied in a bill before a Legislative committee, and passed by that committee.

After the conference The World asked the Mayor for a copy of Christopher Robinson's letter, but he stoutly refused to give it. But The World got it, nevertheless, and here it is:

Mr. Robinson's Letter.

Toronto, April 1, 1892.
DEAR BROTHER—The matter discussed in my long conversation with you, the Mayor and Mr. Blake may come up again in some form, and while it is in my mind, and while it will not long remain, it may be well to make a note of the opinion which I entertained, and of what I believe in substance.

As you are aware I have taken no part in framing the proposed bill, or the specifications on agreement or in the negotiations leading up to them. I had, in fact, seen none of the papers until yesterday, nor have

A COMPARTMENT TRAGEDY.

SENSATIONAL OCCURRENCE ON A WELSH RAILWAY.

A Child Assaulted by a Male Traveller—Opening of the Deeming Trial at Melbourn—Awful Triple Murder in Belfast—Anarchists Still Active.

LONDON, April 6.—Passengers in a compartment of a car attached to a train en route for Ruxton, a town of Denbighshire, Wales, were startled to-day by hearing piercing shrieks coming from the rear of the train.

Upon looking out they saw a girl about 15 years old standing upon the foot-board of the train, and she was holding a small object in her hand. The train was running at a good rate of speed and it appeared as though she would be thrown to the ground.

With great difficulty and at great risk she made her way along the foot-board to the next compartment where she was taken in. Her clothing was disarranged and she was in a terrible state of excitement.

She was quieted and then explained that she and an unknown man were the sole occupants of the compartment she had left. The man had engaged her in conversation and finally had made improper proposals to her.

When she escaped from his grasp she jumped out of the train, and she was taken up by a policeman. She was then taken to the police station, where she was examined by a doctor.

The girl's name is Williams. She was when the man seized her she reached out and tried to pull the alarm cord, but found it was broken. She was then taken to the police station, where she was examined by a doctor.

The railway officials believe the man in pursuance of his plan to assault the girl had been in the compartment for some time. The girl was found in a state of collapse, and it was not until she was revived that she was able to give any account of the matter.

TRIPLE MURDER IN BELFAST.
BELFAST, April 6.—A horrible triple murder was disclosed in this city to-day. The bodies of three persons were found in a rooming house named Harper, who went out to St. Peterburg some years ago.

The bodies were found in a rooming house named Harper, who went out to St. Peterburg some years ago. The bodies were found in a rooming house named Harper, who went out to St. Peterburg some years ago.

The bodies were found in a rooming house named Harper, who went out to St. Peterburg some years ago. The bodies were found in a rooming house named Harper, who went out to St. Peterburg some years ago.

The bodies were found in a rooming house named Harper, who went out to St. Peterburg some years ago. The bodies were found in a rooming house named Harper, who went out to St. Peterburg some years ago.

The bodies were found in a rooming house named Harper, who went out to St. Peterburg some years ago. The bodies were found in a rooming house named Harper, who went out to St. Peterburg some years ago.

The bodies were found in a rooming house named Harper, who went out to St. Peterburg some years ago. The bodies were found in a rooming house named Harper, who went out to St. Peterburg some years ago.

The bodies were found in a rooming house named Harper, who went out to St. Peterburg some years ago. The bodies were found in a rooming house named Harper, who went out to St. Peterburg some years ago.

The bodies were found in a rooming house named Harper, who went out to St. Peterburg some years ago. The bodies were found in a rooming house named Harper, who went out to St. Peterburg some years ago.

The bodies were found in a rooming house named Harper, who went out to St. Peterburg some years ago. The bodies were found in a rooming house named Harper, who went out to St. Peterburg some years ago.

The bodies were found in a rooming house named Harper, who went out to St. Peterburg some years ago. The bodies were found in a rooming house named Harper, who went out to St. Peterburg some years ago.

The bodies were found in a rooming house named Harper, who went out to St. Peterburg some years ago. The bodies were found in a rooming house named Harper, who went out to St. Peterburg some years ago.

The bodies were found in a rooming house named Harper, who went out to St. Peterburg some years ago. The bodies were found in a rooming house named Harper, who went out to St. Peterburg some years ago.

The bodies were found in a rooming house named Harper, who went out to St. Peterburg some years ago. The bodies were found in a rooming house named Harper, who went out to St. Peterburg some years ago.

The bodies were found in a rooming house named Harper, who went out to St. Peterburg some years ago. The bodies were found in a rooming house named Harper, who went out to St. Peterburg some years ago.

The bodies were found in a rooming house named Harper, who went out to St. Peterburg some years ago. The bodies were found in a rooming house named Harper, who went out to St. Peterburg some years ago.

DISCUSSING THE CHARGES.

THE GOVERNMENT DECLINES TO SUPPORT EDGAR'S MOTION.

Sir Adolphe Explanatorily Denies That There Is Anything in the Allegations—Sir John Thompson's Statement—The First Division of the Session Sustains the Government by 23 Majority.

OTTAWA, April 6.—The impeachment of Sir A. P. O'Brien was solemnly brought before the House this afternoon. At 4 o'clock sharp by the clock on his left, Mr. Edgar rose in his place, gracefully placing his right hand in his right hand trousers pocket, grasped the order paper with his left hand, and for two minutes by the clock on the right of the Speaker read the printed edition of the four pages of typewritten charges against Sir Adolphe O'Brien, of which he had given notice.

The first "word" of his was "Brigandage." The vote was exceedingly light on the figures being 80 yeas, 61 nays, a majority of 19. But this is no indication of party feeling, while there are only about a dozen members of the Opposition who did not vote.

Messrs. Amoy, Savard and Simard voted with the Government.

THE LAST OF THE SERIES.
The Sunnyside Smoking Concessions—The "word" of the Sunnyside Bowling Club, held in their spacious parlors last night, was a great success.

A large and varied program had been prepared and each of the numbers was well received. The vocalists who took part were: Messrs. W. R. Ramsey, W. K. Kain, A. Baker, Harry Barker, J. Bryon Munde, Charles Walters and John Linton.

The "word" of the Sunnyside Bowling Club, held in their spacious parlors last night, was a great success. A large and varied program had been prepared and each of the numbers was well received.

The "word" of the Sunnyside Bowling Club, held in their spacious parlors last night, was a great success. A large and varied program had been prepared and each of the numbers was well received.

The "word" of the Sunnyside Bowling Club, held in their spacious parlors last night, was a great success. A large and varied program had been prepared and each of the numbers was well received.

The "word" of the Sunnyside Bowling Club, held in their spacious parlors last night, was a great success. A large and varied program had been prepared and each of the numbers was well received.

The "word" of the Sunnyside Bowling Club, held in their spacious parlors last night, was a great success. A large and varied program had been prepared and each of the numbers was well received.

The "word" of the Sunnyside Bowling Club, held in their spacious parlors last night, was a great success. A large and varied program had been prepared and each of the numbers was well received.

The "word" of the Sunnyside Bowling Club, held in their spacious parlors last night, was a great success. A large and varied program had been prepared and each of the numbers was well received.

The "word" of the Sunnyside Bowling Club, held in their spacious parlors last night, was a great success. A large and varied program had been prepared and each of the numbers was well received.

The "word" of the Sunnyside Bowling Club, held in their spacious parlors last night, was a great success. A large and varied program had been prepared and each of the numbers was well received.

The "word" of the Sunnyside Bowling Club, held in their spacious parlors last night, was a great success. A large and varied program had been prepared and each of the numbers was well received.

The "word" of the Sunnyside Bowling Club, held in their spacious parlors last night, was a great success. A large and varied program had been prepared and each of the numbers was well received.

The "word" of the Sunnyside Bowling Club, held in their spacious parlors last night, was a great success. A large and varied program had been prepared and each of the numbers was well received.

The "word" of the Sunnyside Bowling Club, held in their spacious parlors last night, was a great success. A large and varied program had been prepared and each of the numbers was well received.

The "word" of the Sunnyside Bowling Club, held in their spacious parlors last night, was a great success. A large and varied program had been prepared and each of the numbers was well received.

The "word" of the Sunnyside Bowling Club, held in their spacious parlors last night, was a great success. A large and varied program had been prepared and each of the numbers was well received.

The "word" of the Sunnyside Bowling Club, held in their spacious parlors last night, was a great success. A large and varied program had been prepared and each of the numbers was well received.

The "word" of the Sunnyside Bowling Club, held in their spacious parlors last night, was a great success. A large and varied program had been prepared and each of the numbers was well received.

The "word" of the Sunnyside Bowling Club, held in their spacious parlors last night, was a great success. A large and varied program had been prepared and each of the numbers was well received.

THURSDAY MORNING, APRIL 7 1892.

THE MAYOR'S DUPLICITY.

COMPELLED TO PRODUCE CHRISTOPHER ROBINSON'S LETTER.

Balking Mr. Blake's Amendments—A Short History of the Way in Which the Street Railway Legislation is Retarded—In the Mayor a Better Lawyer Than Robinson and Blake.

The more the street railway matter is probed the more certain does it become that Mayor Fleming is guilty of duplicity toward the council and the citizens, and that instead of withdrawing from his original mistake he has resorted to discreditable means to cover his conduct. If he claims that the council is backing him up in resisting Mr. Blake's amendments the claim is only made good by admitting that he deliberately suppressed Christopher Robinson's opinion in the matter, when he ought to have given it to the council and when he was possessed of it; that he, when he received that opinion in writing, refused to give it to the press and public; and that last night when he, with a delegation, memorialized the Attorney-General on the matter, it was only under compulsion that the letter was read, and even then it was refused to the press. But The World is able this morning to present that opinion to the public and to the aldermen, and can judge of the duplicity for itself.

But let us first give a short review of the case:

A Short Chronology.
Monday, March 23: The bill was finally settled by Messrs. Blake and Bigger for the city and McCarthy, Moss and Kingmill for the Street Railway Company.

Mr. Blake on the same day wrote to the council and his letter was presented that evening to the council. Mr. Bigger, the City Solicitor, attended the council that evening and explained the amendments agreed to by council for both sides that afternoon, and they were adopted by a vote of 16 to 8 after a long debate.

Tuesday, March 29: In the morning these amendments, as passed by the council the previous evening, were presented by Mr. Blake and Mr. Bigger, on behalf of the City Council, to the Legislative Committee, in the presence of the Mayor and in the presence of Messrs. Kingmill and Laidlaw, on behalf of the company.

Thursday, March 31: A long conference took place between Christopher Robinson, S. H. Blake, Q.C., C. R. W. Bigger, and the Mayor. This was the conference to which Mr. Robinson in his letter further on.

Well met the same night. Ald. B. moved, seconded by Ald. Shaw, that the Mayor and Ald. Shaw be a special committee to submit a series of questions to Messrs. Robinson, Blake and the City Solicitor, to be answered by the council at its next meeting. The motion was carried by a vote of 16 to 8.

On this motion Ald. Crawford, Gowanlock, McMurtry, Saunders, Venable, and Yon. All the rest of the council voted against it, and it was negatived by a majority of 11.

The Mayor spoke against this resolution, but he concealed from the council that after himself had a conference that afternoon with Mr. Robinson, Mr. Blake and the City Solicitor. It will be seen from Mr. Robinson's letter that such a conference had been held.

The resolution to strike out the amendments adopted at the previous meeting was then carried by the casting vote of the Mayor. Ald. Crawford, who voted for the reference of the matter to a special committee, was excused from voting on the ground that it was a question of law, and that he wanted the opinion of Christopher Robinson before he could vote intelligently. But the Mayor, though possessed of Christopher Robinson's opinion, did not supply it to Ald. Crawford or any of his colleagues.

If the Mayor had frankly and honestly informed the council that night of the conference between Messrs. Robinson, Blake, Bigger and the Mayor, and that Mr. Robinson fully concurred with Mr. Blake, and was of opinion that the amendments ought to be passed, the council would have been wiser in not voting against the bill, and such a satisfactory resolution would have been passed by the council that night or the next night.

The council ought to vindicate the city's honor by an immediate and voluntary acknowledgment of its error, and by the county judge to enquire into these dark and devious ways of carrying on the public business of the city.

Mr. Morat composed the Production of Christopher Robinson's Letter.

Last night the Mayor, the City Solicitor and several of the aldermen who voted with the Mayor on his change of policy waited on the Attorney-General and presented a memorial asking in effect that the amendments agreed to by Mr. Blake and Mr. Bigger for the city and by council for the company, and adopted by the council on March 23, and accepted by the Legislative Committee on March 29, be struck out of the bill.

Mr. Morat's memorial was handed over to the Mayor in his memorial suppressed all reference to Christopher Robinson's opinion, and urged the use of the city seal in putting it to the memorial without any authority from the council.

During the conference Mr. E. F. Clarke asked whether Christopher Robinson had been consulted and had given an opinion on the matter. Mayor Fleming simply squirmed. Finally the Attorney-General said that if the memorialists wished the Government to consider the matter they must be frank and candid in their statements, and directed the production of the letter, which was then reluctantly handed over and read by Mr. Bigger.

The Attorney-General reserved announcing what the course of the Government would be, but requested counsel to furnish him with authorities on the point of power to withdraw from agreements entered into by council and embodied in a bill before a Legislative committee, and passed by that committee.

After the conference The World asked the Mayor for a copy of Christopher Robinson's letter, but he stoutly refused to give it. But The World got it, nevertheless, and here it is:

Mr. Robinson's Letter.

Toronto, April 1, 1892.
DEAR BROTHER—The matter discussed in my long conversation with you, the Mayor and Mr. Blake may come up again in some form, and while it is in my mind, and while it will not long remain, it may be well to make a note of the opinion which I entertained, and of what I believe in substance.

As you are aware I have taken no part in framing the proposed bill, or the specifications on agreement or in the negotiations leading up to them. I had, in fact, seen none of the papers until yesterday, nor have

A COMPARTMENT TRAGEDY.

SENSATIONAL OCCURRENCE ON A WELSH RAILWAY.

A Child Assaulted by a Male Traveller—Opening of the Deeming Trial at Melbourn—Awful Triple Murder in Belfast—Anarchists Still Active.

LONDON, April 6.—Passengers in a compartment of a car attached to a train en route for Ruxton, a town of Denbighshire, Wales, were startled to-day by hearing piercing shrieks coming from the rear of the train.

Upon looking out they saw a girl about 15 years old standing upon the foot-board of the train, and she was holding a small object in her hand. The train was running at a good rate of speed and it appeared as though she would be thrown to the ground.

With great difficulty and at great risk she made her way along the foot-board to the next compartment where she was taken in. Her clothing was disarranged and she was in a terrible state of excitement.

She was quieted and then explained that she and an unknown man were the sole occupants of the compartment she had left. The man had engaged her in conversation and finally had made improper proposals to her.

When she escaped from his grasp she jumped out of the train, and she was taken up by a policeman. She was then taken to the police station, where she was examined by a doctor.

The girl's name is Williams. She was when the man seized her she reached out and tried to pull the alarm cord, but found it was broken. She was then taken to the police station, where she was examined by a doctor.

The railway officials believe the man in pursuance of his plan to assault the girl had been in the compartment for some time. The girl was found in a state of collapse, and it was not until she was revived that she was able to give any account of the matter.

TRIPLE MURDER IN BELFAST.
BELFAST, April 6.—A horrible triple murder was disclosed in this city to-day. The bodies of three persons were found in a rooming house named Harper, who went out to St. Peterburg some years ago.

The bodies were found in a rooming house named Harper, who went out to St. Peterburg some years ago. The bodies were found in a rooming house named Harper, who went out to St. Peterburg some years ago.

The bodies were found in a rooming house named Harper, who went out to St. Peterburg some years ago. The bodies were found in a rooming house named Harper, who went out to St. Peterburg some years ago.

The bodies were found in a rooming house named Harper, who went out to St. Peterburg some years ago. The bodies were found in a rooming house named Harper, who went out to St. Peterburg some years ago.

The bodies were found in a rooming house named Harper, who went out to St. Peterburg some years ago. The bodies were found in a rooming house named Harper, who went out to St. Peterburg some years ago.

The bodies were found in a rooming house named Harper, who went out to St. Peterburg some years ago. The bodies were found in a rooming house named Harper, who went out to St. Peterburg some years ago.

The bodies were found in a rooming house named Harper, who went out to St. Peterburg some years ago. The bodies were found in a rooming house named Harper, who went out to St. Peterburg some years ago.

The bodies were found in a rooming house named Harper, who went out to St. Peterburg some years ago. The bodies were found in a rooming house named Harper, who went out to St. Peterburg some years ago.

The bodies were found in a rooming house named Harper, who went out to St. Peterburg some years ago. The bodies were found in a rooming house named Harper, who went out to St. Peterburg some years ago.

The bodies were found in a rooming house named Harper, who went out to St. Peterburg some years ago. The bodies were found in a rooming house named Harper, who went out to St. Peterburg some years ago.

The bodies were found in a rooming house named Harper, who went out to St. Peterburg some years ago. The bodies were found in a rooming house named Harper, who went out to St. Peterburg some years ago.

The bodies were found in a rooming house named Harper, who went out to St. Peterburg some years ago. The bodies were found in a rooming house named Harper, who went out to St. Peterburg some years ago.

The bodies were found in a rooming house named Harper, who went out to St. Peterburg some years ago. The bodies were found in a rooming house named Harper, who went out to St. Peterburg some years ago.

The bodies were found in a rooming house named Harper, who went out to St. Peterburg some years ago. The bodies were found in a rooming house named Harper, who went out to St. Peterburg some years ago.

The bodies were found in a rooming house named Harper, who went out to St. Peterburg some years ago. The bodies were found in a rooming house named Harper, who went out to St. Peterburg some years ago.

DISCUSSING THE CHARGES.

THE GOVERNMENT DECLINES TO SUPPORT EDGAR'S MOTION.

Sir Adolphe Explanatorily Denies That There Is Anything in the Allegations—Sir John Thompson's Statement—The First Division of the Session Sustains the Government by 23 Majority.

OTTAWA, April 6.—The impeachment of Sir A. P. O'Brien was solemnly brought before the House this afternoon. At 4 o'clock sharp by the clock on his left, Mr. Edgar rose in his place, gracefully placing his right hand in his right hand trousers pocket, grasped the order paper with his left hand, and for two minutes by the clock on the right of the Speaker read the printed edition of the four pages of typewritten charges against Sir Adolphe O'Brien, of which he had given notice.

The first "word" of his was "Brigandage." The vote was exceedingly light on the figures being 80 yeas, 61 nays, a majority of 19. But this is no indication of party feeling, while there are only about a dozen members of the Opposition who did not vote.

Messrs. Amoy, Savard and Simard voted with the Government.

THE LAST OF THE SERIES.
The Sunnyside Smoking Concessions—The "word" of the Sunnyside Bowling Club, held in their spacious parlors last night, was a great success.

A large and varied program had been prepared and each of the numbers was well received. The vocalists who took part were: Messrs. W. R. Ramsey, W. K. Kain, A. Baker, Harry Barker, J. Bryon Munde, Charles Walters and John Linton.

The "word" of the Sunnyside Bowling Club, held in their spacious parlors last night, was a great success. A large and varied program had been prepared and each of the numbers was well received.

The "word" of the Sunnyside Bowling Club, held in their spacious parlors last night, was a great success. A large and varied program had been prepared and each of the numbers was well received.

The "word" of the Sunnyside Bowling Club, held in their spacious parlors last night, was a great success. A large and varied program had been prepared and each of the numbers was well received.

The "word" of the Sunnyside Bowling Club, held in their spacious parlors last night, was a great success. A large and varied program had been prepared and each of the numbers was well received.

The "word" of the Sunnyside Bowling Club, held in their spacious parlors last night, was a great success. A large and varied program had been prepared and each of the numbers was well received.

The "word" of the Sunnyside Bowling Club, held in their spacious parlors last night, was a great success. A large and varied program had been prepared and each of the numbers was well received.

The "word" of the Sunnyside Bowling Club, held in their spacious parlors last night, was a great success. A large and varied program had been prepared and each of the numbers was well received.

The "word" of the Sunnyside Bowling Club, held in their spacious parlors last night, was a great success. A large and varied program had been prepared and each of the numbers was well received.

The "word" of the Sunnyside Bowling Club, held in their spacious parlors last night, was a great success. A large and varied program had been prepared and each of the numbers was well received.

The "word" of the Sunnyside Bowling Club, held in their spacious parlors last night, was a great success. A large and varied program had been prepared and each of the numbers was well received.

The "word" of the Sunnyside Bowling Club, held in their spacious parlors last night, was a great success. A large and varied program had been prepared and each of the numbers was well received.

The "word" of the Sunnyside Bowling Club, held in their spacious parlors last night, was a great success. A large and varied program had been prepared and each of the numbers was well received.

The "word" of the Sunnyside Bowling Club, held in their spacious parlors last night, was a great success. A large and varied program had been prepared and each of the numbers was well received.

The "word" of the Sunnyside Bowling Club, held in their spacious parlors last night, was a great success. A large and varied program had been prepared and each of the numbers was well received.

The "word" of the Sunnyside Bowling Club, held in their spacious parlors last night, was a great success. A large and varied program had been prepared and each of the numbers was well received.

The "word" of the Sunnyside Bowling Club, held in their spacious parlors last night, was a great success. A large and varied program had been prepared and each of the numbers was well received.

The "word" of the Sunnyside Bowling Club, held in their spacious parlors last night, was a great success. A large and varied program had been prepared and each of the numbers was well received.

The "word" of the Sunnyside Bowling Club, held in their spacious parlors last night, was a great success. A large and varied program had been prepared and each of the numbers was well received.

DISCUSSING THE CHARGES.

THE GOVERNMENT DECLINES TO SUPPORT EDGAR'S MOTION.

Sir Adolphe Explanatorily Denies That There Is Anything in the Allegations—Sir John Thompson's Statement—The First Division of the Session Sustains the Government by 23 Majority.

OTTAWA, April 6.—The impeachment of Sir A. P. O'Brien was solemnly brought before the House this afternoon. At 4 o'clock sharp by the clock on his left, Mr. Edgar rose in his place, gracefully placing his right hand in his right hand trousers pocket, grasped the order paper with his left hand, and for two minutes by