As soon as the wagering opened on this popular event Cloister was installed favorite, the public, always good judges, refusing to be stalled off, the bay son of Ascetic and Grace II., although the 175 lbs. which he had this year to put up had never been carried to victory in this race. Was not Dollery, a great horseman, who rode him in his work, to ride him on the day, and that was sufficient. Cloister first made his appearance at Punchestown in 1888, when as a 4-year-old in the colors of Captain Orr Ewing of the 16th Lancers and ridden by Captain Babington of the same regiment, he won the Irish Grand Military, distance 3 miles, handily by four lengths from Bryon and Strong Tea; since then he has kept up a continuous winning record. He was sold at Tattersalls', London, in June, 1890, for 1550 guineas to Mr. Owen, who bought him for Lord Dudley, in whose colors he ran second to Come Away in 1891. mised the Toronto Baseball League champions a pennant, but the secretary neglected to apprise the big firm of the winner's name. A complaint was made at last Monday's meeting that no pennant had been received, when Spalding's agent stated that he would enquire. A reply soon came that the sporting goods men would be glad to send on the flag and asked how it should be lettered, and the Dukes will have their pennant before many days.

The Princeton team went to the training table yesterday, and have commenced practice in earnest. Dave Foutz of the Brooklyns is coaching the team.

Jos Knight of St. Thomas, the star left-fielder, formerly of London and Hamilton, has not signed for the coming season, although he has several offers under consideration.

The Dukes have signed Billy Hendershott of Cleveland. He was formerly in the Tri-State League. He will pitch and play first base for the Dukes.
