Champion Gaudaur in the City.

Jack Gaudaur arrived in Toronto yesterday. Articles were written up today for the day. He was a double-kill race between himself and Hanlan and Sullivan and Harding, to be forwarded to England immediately. The collapse of the Austrians will hasten the departure of the Canadian soldiers, and they will likely be ready to row the Englishmen in May or June.

In reference to the alleged challenge of Stambury, Mr. Gaudaur stated that it was somewhat mysterious to him. The Australasian says opportunity of testing the Orillia's aquatic skill last year, but did not avail himself thereof. However, the sportsmanlike Jack avowed that he would row the Canadian champion should that individual come to proper terms.

Stratford Wants the Meet.

STRAITFORD, Feb. 22.—This city wants the annual meet of the C.W.A. this year and will make a strong bid for it, as a number of other places are bidding for it. This meet is something worth securing. It was held at Stratford last year, and the town witnessed the greatest spectacle of 850 wheelmen in line, not to mention the substantial fact that they left $9000 in the place. Stratford is admirably situated for the meet. It is easily reached, as trains pass through the city at almost every hour during the day and night, coming from all parts of the Dominion. The hotel accommodation is sufficient to quarter all the wheelmen and their friends who may come, while the new track trials will be held on the city grounds.

Paged Out—None but those who have been gagged out—None but those who have been gagged out know what a deplorable, miserable thing it is. All strength has gone and despondency has taken hold of the sufferers. They feel as though there is nothing to live for. There, however, is a cure—none but those who have been gagged out will do wonders for the health and strength. Mandrake and Dandelion are the two articles entering into the composition of Garrison's Tonic.
