CREPE VERY LATEST THING

Material of Various Weaves and Styles Now Having Pronounced Run of Popularity.

In the matter of silks crepes are the very latest thing—crepes of heavy, luxurious sheen, those woven with satin surfaces and satin backs and those woven with stripes and figures and patterns. Satin had its vogue (and it can never be wholly pushed from the center of the stage), but now crepe in various weaves and styles is having its heyday. Many evening dresses undoubtedly will be made from its lustrous folds and for afternoon wear it will be altogether fashionable. The surprising thing about this fabric is how wonderfully it has been developed. It is heavy or light; thin and filmy or positively stiff, as in the two-cord varieties that will be used for formal dinner gowns and for fur-trimmed evening wraps for sumptuous occasions.

Some of the new brocaded materials are done with threads—that are not metal, but which are so cleverly handled that they give every appearance of being metal. And in this we have an innovation of value because the nonmetal threads will not tarnish, but will last from season to season with the same freshness as does the foundation weave of the handsome fabric.

DOWN AND UP COMBINATION

Colors Used Together With Success and Smartness in Some of the New Frocks.

Green and red are colors that have been combined with real success and smartness in some of the new frocks. As the New York Evening Sun. We need to see this combination again, especially in little girls' sailor suits. There were brown serge sailor suits with red anchors and braid trimmings on sleeves and dickeys, and truth to tell the combination often seemed particularly ugly. Much smarter did red on black or red on navy blue seem in children's sailor or middy suits, but the brown ones had the advantage known to the careful mother as not showing dust or wear so readily as the more distinct tones of blue or black. But in the new frocks the combination is really interesting. Sometimes brown tricotette is used with red tricotette in a smart frock or blouse.

Citron, purple and orchid is a color combination seen in one of the new separate blouses, and what is more, it was used with embroidery of blue wool.

BEADS ADD TO THIS FROCK

Blue satin in the shade called midnight, and bead embroidery form this chic frock. The beading is done in gold and blue.

A Pill That is Prized.—There have been many pills put upon the market and pressed upon public attention, but few have endured so long or met with so much favor as Parmelee's Vegetable Pills. Wide-spread use of them has attested their great value, and they need no further advertisement than this. Having firmly established themselves in public esteem, they now rank as one of the best in the list of standard vegetable preparations.

GIVE FURNITURE THIS CHRISTMAS

Furniture has always been one of the most popular, most appropriate and most useful of Christmas Gifts

THIS year it is doubly so, because of the movement "to beautify the home" that is, at present, sweeping across the world. Therefore, gifts that will help to make the home more attractive, more refined, more comfortable and more hospitable, are particularly timely this Yuletide.

Christmas in the Dining Room

Just think how much more delicious and more delightful the savory turkey, the plum pudding, the entire dinner, will taste if served in a dining room that is furnished to reflect the good cheer and warm hospitality that are associated with Christmas time.

Why not give "The Home", itself, a gift of a beautiful new dining room suite? "The Home" is just as deserving of a Christmas gift as the individuals who live in "The Home" and to whom it is the dearest place in all the world.

A Family Gift

Let all the family club together and give "The Home" a real, true Christmas gift. If not a dining room suite, then a Chesterfield suite, or some bright, cheerful sun-room furniture, or a richly designed library table, or a handsome chair, or an attractive, decorative hall seat and mirror, or some other appropriate piece of furniture.

For members of the family there are more than a score of suitable gifts of furniture.

For father or big brother, one of the handiest and most welcome of gifts is a Chiffonette or Chiffonette. It is a real aid in keeping clothes, shirts, ties, etc., in smart orderly shape.

For mother, there's the curate or the tea-wagon and tray that she's been wanting for such a long time. Or wouldn't she be happy if she were to receive a modern vanity dresser, or a little bedroom rocker, or a sewing cabinet, or a charming writing desk.

More Furniture Suggestions

For the musical daughter what would be more appropriate than a handsome piano bench or an artistically designed music cabinet?

And for baby, there's the cute little cot, or a high chair, or a small table and chair, or a suite of juvenile bedroom furniture.

For the friends that are dear to you there is nothing more appropriate or that more truly represents faithful, lasting friendship than gifts of beautiful furniture.

For men friends, there's the smoking table or stand, the bench on which to rest the feet, the card table, the easy chair.

For women friends, there's the bedroom box, and many kinds of artistic tables and chairs.

As a present to a man and his wife, what could be more suitable than a telephone table and chair, a flower box, a jardiniere stand, a floor or table lamp, a pedestal, a reading table or a fireside bench?

Tokens of Happiness

Gifts of furniture are gifts of cheer and happiness. Unlike many other gifts, they have the advantage of permanency. A piece or a suite of furniture is a lasting token of your love or friendship for the person to whom it is given. And it will help to beautify the home, which makes it the ideal gift—
