Mrs. N. W. Chapin and children returned to their home in Springfield Mass., on Saturday.

Mrs. Crosup, of Granville, is visiting her granddaughter, Mrs. F. W. Bishop. Mrs. Cunningham and baby, of Lynn, spent last week with Mrs. Bishop.

The members of the primary S. S. class, with their parents and a number of others, spent a very enjoyable afternoon on the church grounds Monday. Tea was served at five o'clock. Mr. H. Young provided entertainment by rendering numerous selections upon the phonograph.

The ladies of the Paradise and Clarence W. M. A. S. held their annual meeting in the church Tuesday afternoon and evening.

Mrs. A. B. Fairn, of Albany, is visiting at the home of her brother, George Starratt.

PORT WADE.

River excursions and picnics are of every day occurrence here. Port Wade seems to be the objective point for all.

There are fishing vessels for sale at this Port. Power boats seem to be gaining in popularity.

J. W. Snow has been putting a new top on a fishing pink this summer and now has her about ready for preying upon the finny denizens of the deep.

Mrs. Kendall, with two little girls, May and Jessie, is visiting this week among friends at Brigdown and Bloomington.

Our school is open again with Miss Winchester, of Lower Granville, as its teacher. We wish her success.

Farmers here are harvesting their grain and find it better inned than it has been for years.

Edward Slocomb is in very poor health. We hope to soon see him again enjoying his accustomed vigor.

Fishing is still good and prices remain very high. Some fishermen have made good money and only worked about half their time.

The young men and women who have been spending their vacations here are getting back to their respective places in the towns and cities of Massachusetts.

Rev. Mr. Kinley preached his farewell sermon Sunday evening. The text was from John 14, part of 1st and 12th verses; "Let not your heart be troubled; ye believe in God," "and greater works than these shall he do" drawing from the above a very practical address. We wish him due success in his studies.

LOWER GRANVILLE.

Charlie Johnson and bride, of Bridgeport, Conn., came on Thursday and are at his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Johnson's.

John P. Milbury has sold his property here to Victor J. Porter.

Schr. Cora B., Capt. Johnson, is loading wood and piling at this port for Boston.

We understand that Smith McElhinney has purchased a building site of his brother-in-law, David M. Foster, and will put up a house at once.

CHELSEA.

Miss Minnie McLean and Miss Jennie Baker spent Sunday at their homes in Margaretville.

Mr. Augustus Wentzell and two daughters, of Bear River, are visiting at Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Mason's.

Mr. and Mrs. Clute, of Berwick, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Roop.

Miss A. Maude Porter spent Sunday with her friend, Miss Pearle Roop.

Miss Grace P. Grimm spent Sunday with her friend, Miss Beatrice Hirtle, at Mahone.

We were very glad to have our former pastor, Rev. E. E. Locke, of Lower Economy, with us for a few days. Mr. Locke occupied the pulpit in the Baptist Church on Sunday evening.

Miss Laura Morrison, who has been spending her vacation at home, returned to Halifax on Monday.

Mrs. Howard Saunders and son, Laurie, and Miss Nellie Saunders, of Boston, are spending their vacation at the home of their brother, E. W. Saunders.

We are glad to report Miss Elvida Charlton convalescent.

Dr. Freeman, of Bridgewater, was in town on the 2nd. He assisted Dr. Cole in a successful operation on the throat of Ralph Grimm.

Miss Estella Roop is spending her vacation at her home here.

Miss Haines, of Digby, and Miss Frank, of Pleasant River, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Reg. Harnish over Sunday.

Mrs. E. V. Thomas is visiting friends in this place.

The Division picnic was a grand success, and a very enjoyable time was had by those who attended.

HAMPTON.

Mr. and Mrs. Reed Farnsworth celebrated the twentieth anniversary of their marriage on Wednesday evening of last week. About seventy invited guests were present and a bountiful repast was served on the lawn. Mrs. Farnsworth received a number of valuable presents including gifts of money. The evening's entertainment consisted of social intercourse, with vocal and instrumental music. Mr. and Mrs. Farnsworth tender their thanks to their friends for their appreciated kindness.

Jesse Foster and Mrs. Staples, of Lynn, visited their sister, Mrs. D. M. Foster, quite recently.

Mrs. Alston Hall and daughter and Mrs. Poore and Mrs. Phinney have returned to their homes in Massachusetts.

Mr. Fisher's family have removed from their summer residence here to their home in Bridgetown.

Mr. Judson Foster and wife made a visit to St. John on Labor Day.

ALBANY CROSS.

Miss Laura B. Morrison, of Halifax, has been the guest the past week of her friend, Miss Eliza Burns, at Durling's Hotel.

John Barney, accompanied by his brother, Stephen, returned from New London, Conn., on the 28th. We are all glad to see "Jack" home again, and looking so well after his accident.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Saunders and Lina, of Nictaux South, Mrs. J. Venables, of Halifax, and Mr. M. H. Howell, of Boston, spent a few days recently with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Durling, at Durling's Hotel.
