

The Victorian Age of English Literature.

By Mrs. OLIPHANT, author of "The Makers of Florence," "The Makers of Venice," "Laurence Oliphant's Life," etc., etc. In two volumes. 12mo, cloth, gilt top, $3.00.

"A monumental work, so comprehensive as to comprise history, fiction, theology, science, and the higher class of journalism. The work is, in fact, a singularly adequate history of the Victorian literature of the past fifty years."—Boston Budget.

The charm of Mrs. Oliphant's style, as well as the justness of her criticisms, and the thorough knowledge which she possesses of English literature, particularly during the last two centuries, will make this new work from her pen much sought after both by students of English literature and by critical reviewers. . . . The work is sober, well-informed, and sympathetic; its range is wide, and it has a patient as well as an industrious chronicler.

The Drama.

Addresses by HENRY IRVING. With frontispiece by Whistler. 16mo, cloth, gilt top, $1.25. Edition de Luxe, large paper, limited to 300 copies, signed by Henry Irving. One volume, 8vo, cloth, gilt top, $5.00 net.

This dainty little volume comprises four interesting addresses by Mr. Irving, dealing with the annals of acting and with the art as well as with the traditions of the stage. It is full at once of the enthusiasms and the professional culture which mark everything said or done by the chief figure on the modern stage, who properly holds his profession in high esteem. The addresses, delivered at Oxford University, on the Four Great Actors of the English Stage, will, we are sure, be read and re-read by all lovers of the higher drama and by everyone in sympathy with the actor's art. The work is enriched by an excellent character portrait of Mr. Henry Irving.

Kitty's Father.

By FRANK BARRETT, author of "The Admirable Lady Biddy Fane," "A Smuggler's Secret," etc., etc. 12mo, cloth, $1.00. Holyrood Series, paper, 50 cents.

"Mr. Barrett has the true gift of the story-teller; he seldom fails to interest his readers."—Speaker.

"A thoroughly absorbing plot, well worked out, and interesting right up to the last page."—Punch.
