A careful study of these books cannot fail to make their readers better acquainted with the matchless life of our Lord; with the life of one of his most distinguished servants, the honored founder of Methodism; with some of the great throbbing questions of social reform which are agitating the world around us, and with some of the most important questions of biblical study.

It is the intention of the General Epworth League Board to have examinations upon the Reading Course, and to grant diplomas to those who master the books. The course may be taken up by a whole society, a group in the society, or by a single individual.
