The building and contents are insured against fire to the amount of $21,000. The premiums were paid last June, $127.50 for three years, so that for the next two years this item will not have to be provided for.

In connection with the reseating of the Hall, it may be interesting to note that we have received from the sale of old benches (one only remaining on hand), $32.50; the Plymouth Brethren paid towards the new chairs, $50.00; value of bench on hand, $1.00; total, $83.50.

This amount deducted from the cost of the new chairs, $175.00, shews a net cost to the Society of $92.50 for this much-needed improved seating for the Hall.

In conclusion, I would beg to urge all present to assist in making our Annual Field Day on Saturday the success which from the Treasurer's point of view is only calculated upon the amount handed to him when the accounts are adjusted, which has ranged all the way from $35 to $83 during the first seven years, excepting last year, when coupled with the conversazione, we only realized $3.61. Not since 1889, when $8.72 was the surplus, has such a poor showing resulted, and I earnestly hope that Mr. Shearer will have the pleasure of handing me at least one hundred dollars in order to, in a small measure, make up for what we ought to have had last year.
