

SPORTS—Continued.

- Louisville, Ky., annual meeting of the American Association.—Nov. 24.
- Pugilism, Brussels, Jem Smith and Frank P. Slavin sentenced to one month's imprisonment for prize-fighting near Bruges in December last.—Nov. 9.
- Pugilism, Liverpool, Eng., Gas. Lambert, a Canadian pugilist, and Jack O'Neill arrested just before engaging in a prize fight.—Nov. 5.
- Pugilism, Memphis, Tenn., Reddy Braannon of Ill., and Tommy Darnforth of New Orleans, fight eight rounds, match declared a draw on account of darkness.—Nov. 9.
- Wrestling, San Francisco, Acton and Lewis wrestle for $1,000, Acton wins.—Nov. 22.
- Spurgeon Rev., is seriously ill.—Nov. 10.
- Spurgeon Rev. C. H., improving in health.—Nov. 24.
- STANLEY H. M.—Arrives in New York.—Nov. 5.
- Lectures in Metropolitan Opera House New York to 3,500 people.—Nov. 11.
- Lectures at Rochester, N. Y., to 2,300 people.—Nov. 24.
- STRIKERS.—Coal miners, Brazil, Ind., still continues; men hold out for $2 a day.—Nov. 21.
- Coke workers, Pittsburg, Pa., 3,000 men strike for re-instatement of a discharged workman, 10,000 more expected to go out if dispute is not settled.—Nov. 7.
- Coke workers, Scottdale, Pa., employees strike because one of their committee was discharged.—Nov. 5.
- Colliers, Durham, Eng., 2,500 men in Lord Londonderry's collieries strike for higher wages; the struggle is likely to be a long one.—Nov. 21.
- Compositors, Brussels, 500 compositors employed on weekly papers go on strike.—Nov. 21.
- Cornice makers, Chicago, decide to continue their strike indefinitely.—Nov. 22.
- Dock laborers, Limerick, strike for increase of wages.—Nov. 14.
- Dock laborers, Liverpool, 500 men of the Dockers' Union strike.—Nov. 14.
- Dock laborers, London, Eng., 1,000 men go on strike because of the dismissal of some men who refused to unload a boycotted vessel.—Nov. 19.
- Dock laborers, Melbourne, Australia, give up the struggle and return to work.—Nov. 19.
- Dock men, Bristol, Eng., still continues, the men meet and decide to hold out, they blame the ship-owners for provoking the strike.—Nov. 21.
- Dockmen, London, Eng., the men employed by the Allan Steamship Co. again go on strike.—Nov. 3.
- Factory girls, Ashland, Pa., 70 girls in the Galland factory strike because they are asked to arrange their work before leaving at night.—Nov. 3.
- Granite cutters, Concord, N. H., men still on strike; employers refuse to arbitrate.—Nov. 20.
- Hatters, Danbury, two box factories have shut down in consequence of.—Nov. 20.
- Iron workers, Cleveland, 50 men of the Otis Iron & Steel Works go out on strike.—Nov. 1.
- Iron workers, Hamburg, Pa., amicably settled.—Nov. 11.
- Lace makers, Calais, France, return to work at new scale of wages.—Nov. 13.
- Medical, the whole of the medical staff of the Ottawa Protestant hospital resign, because one of their number has been removed.—Nov. 13.
- Miners, Alabama, 8000 men ordered out on strike for an increase of wages.—Nov. 29.
- Miners, Black, Ind., 2000 drivers and laborers strike for an increase of wages.—Nov. 22.
- Miners, Bochum, Germany, all the miners turn out on strike.—Nov. 17.
- Miners, Caten, O., dispute with miners amicably settled; men return to work.—Nov. 1.
- Miners, Morris, Ill., all the coal miners of, strike for advance of 10 per cent., which masters refuse.—Nov. 1.
- Miners and cokers, Scottdale, Penn., 600 men go out on strike.—Nov. 22.
- Miners, Somerset, Ky., 300 men strike for an advance of 10 per cent.; commissary refuse to supply the men with food.—Nov. 25.
- Piano polishers, New York, employers of, meet and decide to hold out against the strikers.—Nov. 22.
- Printers, Pennypack, Penn., work resumed after one month's idleness.—Nov. 3.
- Railway, nearly all the old employees of the Yonkers Railway return to work, strike virtually over.—Nov. 19.

STRIKERS—Continued.

- Railway employees on Chicago & Eastern Illinois Railroad return to work; dispute amicably settled.—Nov. 26.
- Railway employees, Peoria, Ill., all the freight men strike; they want their pay on Saturday instead of Monday.—Nov. 17.
- Railway employees, Terre Haute, Ind., all the freight hands strike, no cause given, complete blockade of freight.—Nov. 25.
- Sailmakers, New York, men strike for an advance of 50 cents a day; they now receive $3 for nine hours work.—Nov. 21.
- Steam fitters, Chicago, go out on strike.—Nov. 1.
- Switchmen, of the Illinois Central Railway at Freeport strike for an increase in wages.—Nov. 8.
- Trainmen on the Lake Erie & Western Railroad demand higher wages.—Nov. 22.
- Warehousemen, West Superior, Wis., ended by the employers granting the miners' demand of 35 cents an hour.—Nov. 22.
- STORMS.—Austria, hurricanes raging throughout, Grothe statue at Carlsbad swept away by floods.—Nov. 25.
- Belfast, Ireland, heavy storm of wind and rain, yacht foundered in Belfast Lough, and the owner, Vicount Cantelupe, drowned, crew saved.—Nov. 7.
- Burlington, Iowa, heavy storms of sleet and snow.—Nov. 8.
- Cape St. Francis, heavy storm of wind, several small vessels wrecked, four men drowned.—Nov. 24.
- Cape Gracias, La., completely wrecked by a hurricane, every house blown down.—Nov. 12.
- Extraordinarily heavy gales prevail all through Great Britain, immense damage to shipping.—Nov. 7.
- England, heavy gales along the south coast, quantities of wreckage washed ashore.—Nov. 4.
- England, numerous wrecks on the south and west coast caused by a heavy storm.—Nov. 25.
- Great Britain, furious gales reported along the West coast, shores strewn with wreckage.—Nov. 12.
- Heavy snowstorms in Western Ontario.—Nov. 5.
- Heavy snowstorm reported in the North Western States.—Nov. 10.
- Ireland, hurricane at Newry stopped the work in Dromalane Mills, making 1,000 persons idle.—Nov. 14.
- Ireland, hurricane passed over the south of, a number of houses in Skibbereen wrecked.—Nov. 6.
- Ireland, pier in course of erection at Kilkeel destroyed.—Nov. 14.
- Lincoln Co., New Mexico, twenty shepherds and sixteen hundred sheep killed by a terrible hailstorm.—Nov. 25.
- Liverpool, Eng., Antree races postponed owing to heavy storm.—Nov. 7.
- Louisiana, considerable damage to cotton and rice crops.—Nov. 17.
- SUICIDES.—Altoona, Penn., Tranggott Weidman commits suicide by shooting.—Nov. 6.
- Atlanta, Ga., W. G. Barfield commits suicide through financial embarrassment.—Nov. 3.
- Attempted, New York, Philip Carland attempts suicide by cutting his throat in the public street.—Nov. 19.
- Baltimore, O., John Nelson of Brooklyn cuts his throat from ear to ear.—Nov. 1.
- Baltimore, O., L. J. Camacho, a Cuban refugee, commits suicide by taking prussic acid.—Nov. 14.
- Baltimore, O., Sidney Lerugood commits suicide by jumping from third story window to avoid arrest for embezzlement.—Nov. 16.
- Baltimore, O., Lee Webster, a wealthy young man, commits suicide by shooting.—Nov. 19.
- Berlin, Germany, Col. Von P. commits suicide by blowing out his brains.—Nov. 10.
- Butler, Penn., Barney Brett commits suicide after murdering his wife; domestic quarrels the cause.—Nov. 24.
- Chicago, Charles Fischer, brother of Adolph Fischer, one of the anarchists hanged for the Haymarket murders, commits suicide.—Nov. 2.
- Chicago, E. C. Hunt, a young doctor, commits suicide by shooting himself.—Nov. 7.
- Chicago, Frank Fooke commits suicide by shooting, after murdering his wife.—Nov. 20.
- Columbus, O., Tunis Amack commits suicide after shooting Mrs. Elizabeth Anderson, his paramour; jealousy the cause.—Nov. 2.
- Harlem, N. Y., Mrs. Sarah F. Henasler, a well-to-do lady, commits suicide by shooting; family bereavement the cause.—Nov. 24.
- Kirkville, Iowa, Frank McNav, a prominent politician, commits suicide by drowning.—Nov. 20.
- Marshalltown, Iowa, F. L. Pelheam commits suicide by cutting his throat after attempting the life of a farmer and his wife.—Nov. 10.