

Leafes from a Reporter's Note Book.

FAC-SIMILE OF MR. T. PINKNEY'S REPORTING NOTES.

The following is a facsimile of Mr. T. Pinkney's reporting notes, written in shorthand. The text is arranged in approximately 20 horizontal lines, each containing several columns of shorthand characters. The characters are highly stylized and compact, typical of shorthand systems used for rapid note-taking. The lines of text are closely spaced and fill most of the page area.
