

•Come with us. You need a Church Home.

Notes.

A Christmas Social and entertainment will be held at our Bloomfield St. Mission on Thursday evening, Dec. 22. The Ladies of the Church are asked to send in necessary articles for the tea. Let us give our mission workers some practical sympathy, and those who attend the Sunday School and social services, this proof of our interest in their welfare. Never has our Mission been in so flourishing a condition. Let us do all in our power to make it still more efficient.

Our Sister Philema Brenner is holding her Christmas Sale at McPherson and Freeman's Store. She will be glad to see her friends there all this week.

The Circulars and envelopes for "Our Century Roll Call" has been mailed to non-resident members, and will soon be in the hands of the resident members of the Church and Congregation. We are going to begin 1900 with a grand Church family gathering. An interesting programme will be provided and refreshments served. Already some are getting enthusiastic about the "Roll Call" and we expect this spirit to catch everybody.

A Pleasant hour may be spent here this afternoon, when a Service of song will be given, to which Mr. Bramhall, Misses Hubley, Butler, Huettis, and Messrs. W. R. Shute, F. A. Cumming, N. L. McDonald, C. H. Butler, and the Choir, have willingly assented, to contribute. The Service begins at 3.45. Silver Collection at the door.

Next Sunday afternoon is our regular Mission Band Service. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Archibald will speak. We look forward to a great afternoon. Be present.

All Seats Free.—Application for sittings should be made to Deacon Jas. McPherson, Chairman of Pew Committee, who will also provide envelopes. The seats are assigned—not rented. Each pew holder is expected to be a contributor. Notices for "Our Calendar" must be given to the Pastor not later than Thursday evening.

Our Revenue.—This Church is supported by the free will offerings of the people. Every member, young and old, is expected to contribute regularly. If each one gives as "God has prospered," no one will be burdened, and there will be ample means for support of every department. Subscriptions may be made at any time to the Treasurer, Deacon W. T. Harris, and A. E. Soulis, Chairman of the Finance Committee, who will supply envelopes for "CURRENT EXPENSES," "MORTGAGE FUND," and "ORGAN FUND." "Convention Fund" offering the Second Sunday of each month.

The Pastor will be glad to speak with you at the close of each service. Kindly inform him immediately concerning the sick, strangers, any without regular church home, and where a visit will be helpful. All are urged to use the information cards in pews.
