Household Hints.

TO THE DEAF.—A person cured of Deafness and noises in the head of twenty years' standing by a simple remedy, will send a description of it FREE to any Person who applies to NICHOLSON, 30 St. John Street, Montreal.

BE wise to-day. 'Tis madness to neglect a cough or cold, however slight. Consumption may follow, and though DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY has frequently cured this much dreaded disease, it almost invariably cures the primary diseases of the throat, lungs and chest where other remedies fail.

PEACH TAPIOCA.—Soak for several hours a cup of tapioca in cold water to cover it; bring slowly to the boiling point, and let it simmer until quite transparent. Pour it over a quart of fresh or canned peaches in a deep pudding dish, and bake. Apples or other fruits may be substituted. Eat with sugar and whipped cream.

ALMOND CUSTARD.—Soak half a box of gelatine in enough cold water to cover it, then dissolve in a pint of rich milk, add two well beaten eggs, four table-spoonfuls of sugar, and a teaspoonful of extract of bitter almond and strain. Add a cup of whipped cream, and beat light; pour into a deep glass dish, and when set stick a few blanched almonds over the top.

APPLE CUSTARD.—Stew apples with the grated rind of a lemon added and till they are soft, rub them through a sieve, and to three cups of strained apples add nearly two cups of sugar. When cold, beat five eggs very light, and stir alternately into a quart of milk with the apples; pour into a pudding dish and bake. To be eaten cold.

APPLE SAGO.—Place in a buttered pudding dish a pint of pared, cored and quartered tart apples. Sprinkle a little sugar and cinnamon over them, and pour over a cup of sago, boiled in a quart of water after soaking, with the rind and juice of a lemon, until transparent. Bake for three quarters of an hour, reverse over a glass dish, serve warm, and eat with cream and sugar.

Food for Consumptives.

Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, with Hypophosphites, is a most marvelous food and medicine. It heals the irritation of the throat and lungs, and gives flesh and strength quicker than any other remedy known. It is very palatable, having none of the disagreeable taste of the crude oil. Put up in 50c. and $1 size.

STRAWBERRY SAUCE.—To a teacupful of granulated sugar add a heaping table-spoonful of butter, rub them to a cream, then add a pint of strawberries (or any small fruit in season), mashing and mixing thoroughly. Pile it in a glass dish. The hot pudding will melt the butter, and you will find the whole delicious. As a sauce for the pudding cold, set the above, made as directed, into a pan of boiling water for ten minutes and serve hot.

From a Neighbouring Druggist.

There is always a want for the reliable person—and as much so for any agent or article of proved reliability. This consideration was forced upon us by observing the great demand for Humphrey's Family Cases of Homoeopathic Specifics. Patrons into whose families these Cases have been introduced take pleasure in inviting our attention to their beauty as well as to the special arrangement and reliability of the remedies contained therein. Indeed, we may add with propriety, that the outspoken testimony of the press everywhere, regarding these Cases, strongly attests the efficacy of the specifics and contains the strongest appeal from those who have suffered from delays and large doctor's bill, to those suffering that of personal experience. No family should be without one of these Cases; moreover, Humphrey's large book "The Mentor" or "Family Advisor" accompanies each Case, "Manual" and price list sent free upon application to the Company, 109 Fulton Street, New York City—Exchange.

CONSUMPTION SURELY CURED.

To the Editor:— Please inform your readers that I have a positive remedy for the above-named disease. By its timely use thousands of hopeless cases have been permanently cured; I shall be glad to send two bottles of my remedy FREE to any of your readers who have consumption if they will send me their Express and P. O. address.

Respectfully,
Dr. T. A. Slocum, 37 Yonge Street, Toronto, Ont

SYMPTOMS OF CATARRH.—Dull, heavy headache, obstruction of the nasal passages, discharges falling from the head into the throat, sometimes profuse, watery, and acid, at others, thick, tenacious, mucous, purulent, bloody and putrid; the eyes are weak, watery, and inflamed; there is ringing in the ears, deafness, hacking or coughing to clear the throat, expectoration of offensive matter, together with sores from ulcers; the voice is changed and has a nasal twang; the breath is offensive; smell and taste are impaired; there is a sensation of dizziness, with mental depression, a hacking cough and general debility. Only a few of the above-named symptoms are likely to be present in any one case. Thousands of cases annually, without manifesting half of the above symptoms, result in consumption, and end in the grave. No disease is so common, more deceptive and dangerous, or less understood by physicians. By its mild, soothing, and healing properties, Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy cures the worst cases of Catarrh, "cold in the head," Coryza, and Catarrhal Headache. Sold by druggists everywhere; 50 cents.

"Untold Agony from Catarrh."

Prof. W. HAUSER, the famous meesmerist, of Ithaca, N. Y., writes: "Some ten years ago I suffered untold agony from chronic nasal catarrh. My family physician gave me up as incurable, and said I must die. My case was such a bad one, that every day, towards sunset, my voice would become so hoarse I could barely speak above a whisper. In the morning my coughing and clearing of my throat would almost strangle me. By the use of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, in three months, I was a well man, and the cure has been permanent."

"Constantly Hawking and Spitting."

THOMAS J. RUSHING, Esq., 2902 Pine Street, St. Louis, Mo., writes: "I was a great sufferer from catarrh for three years. At times I could hardly breathe, and was constantly hawking and spitting, and for the last eight months I could not breathe through the nostrils. I thought nothing could be done for me. Luckily, I was advised to try Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, and I am now a well man. I believe it to be the only sure remedy for catarrh now manufactured, and one has only to give it a fair trial to experience astounding results and a permanent cure."

Three Bottles Cure Catarrh.

ELI ROBBINS, Runyan P. O., Columbia Co., Pa., says: "My daughter had catarrh when she was five years old, very badly. I saw Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy advertised, and procured a bottle for her, and soon saw that it helped her; a third bottle effected a permanent cure. She is now eighteen years old and sound and hearty."
