

A POSER!

Sir A. T. Galt.—"My usefulness is gone." I might as well return to Canada.
The Military Attache.—By no means, sir, don't think of it! What would I be without you!!

NO MORE CHILD'S PLAY.

Rag Baby Wright.—Now, GORDON, suppose you drop that mud, and meet me on yonder platform like a man!

ANG.—"Mine eyes have play'd the painter, and hath still'd thy beauty's form in tablet of my heart."

ANGEL.—"Be practical Augustus, you know the impression would be much more permanent if still'd on one of BRUCE'S beautiful tablet pictures."

MR. BULL.—That, my dear, is COBDEN. He was one of my great Political Economists.
OUR CHARLEY.—Yes, I am aware of that; but he didn't know any more about Political Economy than the law allows. Why don't you have a bust of TILLEY—or PHIPPS?

Our Educational System.

In addition to the ordinary school course there are many accomplishments extensively learned at present by the youth of Toronto. Among them is the art of stone-throwing, as practised the other day against the Young Irishmen's excursion. Although our secular system of education excludes all instruction in the Bible, the name of the Supreme Being and other sacred words are familiarly known. Intemperance societies appear to flourish, and the manly practice of insulting and following young women is much favoured. In fact, GRIP finds in the gutter-snipe and the street-corner loafer, the protoplasm out of which all crime may be evolved.

Raw material for a very good thing to be worked up by the coming humorist: The University curriculum. CROOKS—four-in-hands (foreign hands); MACLELLAN—buck board (book-board); the school teachers and public generally—waggin' tongues; the other professors—sulky; the Hamilton Times—democrat; WARREN—two-seated rig. Wheel and whoa of educational interests.
