

after paying duty and charges, a fraction over 16 cents per lb. This shows that there is no market for such wool in Boston. Pulled combing will not command over 18 to 19c. here. Southdown fleece, small lots offering are taken at 28c. There has been but little doing in supers, by reason of holiday week and the fact that many mills have been "shut down" for stock-taking; but prices are well maintained and a good demand is now looked for.
