MONTREAL.*Mercantile Summary.

The Hamilton wholesale shoe firm of R. H. Green &amp; Co. is now changed in style to Green, McLaren &amp; Co.—The senior member of this commission firm of John Fiskien &amp; Co. in the city, Mr. John Fiskien, died this week, after a long and successful business career.

HERE are a few items from Chatham, Ont.: Mr. J. J. Hanratty is closing his dry goods business and leaving the place. Mr. J. L. Bartham is winding up his hardware business with the intention of removing to Toronto, and Messrs. J. B. Stringer &amp; Co., produce dealers, have dissolved, and McGill retires.

CANADIAN PACIFIC RAILWAY shares last week reached the highest point in their history, selling at 78½ in New York and 80½ in London. This is an advance of over seventy-five per cent. since they were put on the market. Northern Pacific were at the same time selling at 33½ and Grand Trunks at 10½.

We hear of the death of Hon. W. W. Lord, of Tryon, P.E.I., at the advanced age of 93. The deceased gentleman was in early business life a ship-builder, and amassed a competency. Afterwards elected a legislator, he became a prominent Liberal. He was thoroughly upright in all his dealings and highly respected as a merchant, representative, and citizen.

The auditors' report shows the debenture debt of Kingsville to be $21,565.01, as follows:—Railway debentures expiring in year 1907, $9,439.70; town hall debentures expiring in year 1902, $7,125.31; and debentures under by-law No. 96 expiring in the year 1899, $5,000.00. We learn from the Amherstburg Echo that the assessment of Kingsville shows real estate valued at $375,805; personalty and income, $22,260; total, $398,065, which is an increase of $95,210 over 1889. The population is now 1,365 as compared with 887 last year.
