Minister of the Interior

The great problems of the West are largely in the hands of the Hon. Frank Oliver, the energetic Minister of the Interior in the Dominion Government. He knows the needs of the West as few do, for while yet a a boy he left Ontario and linked his fortunes with the pioneers of that day. In 1883 he became a member of the North-West Council, entered the House of Commons in 1896 and the Cabinet on April 8, 1905.
