

Lloyd, Peter J.

Textiles, clothing and fibres in Australia and New Zealand.
Canberra: Australian National University, Research School of Pacific Studies, July 1990. Includes a bibliography, p.21-22.
Research papers (Australia-Japan Research Centre); no.185.
HD9866 .A8 L56 1990

Mark, Janette

The multi-fibre arrangement: unravelling the costs. Ottawa:
North-South Institute, [1985]. Also published in French. / Publication disponible en français aussi. North-South Institute briefing series; no.14. HC59.7 .N677 v.14

Park, Young-il

The changing pattern of textile trade in Northeast Asia.
Canberra: Australian National University, Research School of Pacific Studies, Mar.1988. Includes a bibliography, p.52-53.
Research papers (Australia-Japan Research Centre); no.157.
HD9866 .A78 P36 1988

Park, Young-il and Kym Anderson

The rise and demise of textiles and clothing in economic development: the case of Japan. Canberra: Research School of Pacific Studies, Australian National University, Sept.1988.
Includes a bibliography, p.29-30. Research papers (Australia-Japan Research Centre); no.163. HD9866 .J3 P36 1988

Popper, Steven W.

Modernizing the Soviet textile industry: implications for perestroika. Ridgewood, N.J.: Rand Corp., 1989.

Richter, Usher and Vineberg

Canada's textile and apparel industries confront the future:
an overview of the problems and prospects in a changing economic climate. Montreal: Richter, Usher and Vineberg, 1985.

-----
Le textile et l'habillement au Canada face à l'avenir:
panorama des problèmes et des perspectives dans un climat économique mouvant. Montréal: Richter, Usher and Vineberg, 1985.

Rothstein, Richard

Keeping jobs in fashion: alternatives to the euthanasia of the U.S. apparel industry. Washington: Economic Policy Institute, 1989. HD9856 .R58 1989