

Seagull Pewterers and Silversmiths

- in first six months after acquiring an Australian agent sold $600,000 wholesale of pewter giftware. Has now set up warehouse and sales office in Australia.

Homestead Computer

- sold turnkey financial software system to Sydney futures exchange.

DMR Consulting

- after only five years in the Australian market, has become the fifth largest professional service firm.

GEAC Computers

- won a A$ 500,000 contract with Griffith University in Australia to supply the library information system.

Campotex

- has acquired 96% of the Australian market for Potassium Chloride Murate (potash). Sales totalled nearly $35 million in 1989.