

ARTICLE 20

Other Obligations

This Treaty shall not affect any obligation that the Contracting States may have undertaken or may undertake under any multilateral convention to which they are both party.

ARTICLE 21

Consultation

1. The Contracting States shall consult, at the request of either, concerning the interpretation or application of this Treaty or with respect to a specific case.

2. Any difference that is not resolved by the Contracting States shall be the subject of negotiations as to the interpretation or application of this Treaty.
