Requested Documents

1. If a transfer is requested, the transferring State shall provide the following documents to the receiving State, unless either State has already indicated that it will not agree to the transfer:
  - (a) a copy of the judgement and the law on which it is based;
  - (b) a statement indicating how much of the sentence has already been served, including information on any pre-trial detention, remission and any other factor relevant to the enforcement of the sentence;
  - (c) a declaration containing the consent to the transfer referred to in Article 3.1(d); and
  - (d) whenever appropriate, any medical or social reports on the sentenced person, information about the treatment in the transferring State and any recommendation for the person's further treatment in the receiving state.
2. The receiving State, if requested by the transferring State, shall furnish it with the following documents:
  - (a) a copy of the relevant law of the receiving State which provides that the acts or omissions on account of which the sentence has been imposed in the transferring State constitute a criminal offence according to the law of the receiving State or would constitute a criminal offence if committed on its territory; and
  - (b) a statement of the effect in relation to the sentenced person of any relevant law or regulation relating to the person's detention in the receiving State after the transfer.
3. Either State may ask to be provided with any of the documents or reports referred to in Paragraph 1 or 2 above before making a request for transfer or taking a decision on whether or not to agree to the transfer.
4. The documents that are provided by either State under the terms of the Agreement shall be exonerated from legalization formalities except where a request is made to the contrary.

The Verification of Consent

1. The transferring State shall ensure that the person required to give consent to the transfer in accordance with Article 3.1(d) does so voluntarily and with full knowledge of the legal consequences thereof. The procedure for giving consent shall be governed by the law of the transferring State.
2. The transferring State shall afford the opportunity to the receiving State to verify, through a consul or other person designated by the latter State for this purpose, that the consent is given in accordance with the conditions set out in Paragraph 1 above.
