

ARTICLE 5

Nationals of each of the two States who stay in the other State under the Working Holiday Program are required to obey the laws in force in the host State, particularly as regards the practice of the regulated professions.

ARTICLE 6

The Parties shall encourage the organizations concerned in their respective countries to give the appropriate advice to nationals of the other State admitted to participate in the Working Holiday Program.

ARTICLE 7

1. All participants in this Program shall provide proof of insurance covering all risks related to illness-pregnancy-disability and hospitalization in the host State for the duration of the stay.
2. In the case of employment benefits and social assistance, the applicable system is the system of the host State.

ARTICLE 8

1. For purposes of this Program, the number of participants, based on reciprocity, shall be established through an exchange of diplomatic notes.
2. The minimum amount of resources required under paragraph 2.f of article 1 shall be determined by mutual agreement of the Parties.
3. The allocation of participants in this program shall take place from the date the program enters into force until the end of the year in progress then annually, from January 1 to December 31.