

REBATE ON EXPORTS—Continued.

oil, 177-8; revenue of public works, 178; the deficit, 178; mills shut down during 1894, 178-9; deficit from government railways, 179; earnings of C.P.R., 179; revenue from Dominion lands, 179; duty on silks, 179; revenue from dried fruits, nuts and coffee, 179; duty in gross imports, 180; re taxation on the necessaries of life, 180. To Mr. Kaulbach: farm referred to in Scotland devoted entirely to feeding of cattle and sheep, 180; to Mr. MacInnes: corrects impression that hon. gentleman from Halifax inspired M., 182.

Sir Mackenzie Bowell: re Massey Manufacturing Company moving to U.S., 167; to Mr. Power: speeches on general question of free trade and protection, 170; to Mr. Boulton: Ques., duty on sugar, 171; to Mr. Power: remarks taken from "Globe," re Australian trade, 182; on the M.: keeping members to questions before the House, 182; re drawback on agricultural implements, 182-3; the reason the drawback is granted, 183; in reply to Mr. O'Donohoe: policy of the govt. to put the raw material, and what was not produced in this country, on the free list, 184.

Mr. McCallum: To Mr. Boulton; rebate on agricultural machinery, 168, duty on tobacco, 173; Canada placed in a better position than foreign nations by giving a rebate, 174; imports and exports from Great Britain, 176; wages paid on Scotch farm, 177; burns natural gas, not coal oil, 177; drawback a benefit to the country, 178.

Mr. Power: To Mr. Boulton; remarks, 169; re subject about to be discussed,—no connection with M., 170. Unfairness of practice of allowing drawbacks, 181; agricultural implements cheaper in Dakota or Michigan, 181; re subsidizing steamers from Australia, 182. To Mr. MacInnes (Burlington): Mr. Boulton's remarks correct, 182; did not inspire M., 182.

Mr. Kaulbach: To Mr. Power, re hearing Mr. Boulton on revenue question, 176. On Mr. Boulton's speech: excise on tobacco, 173-4; re Scotch Farm, 177. Comments on Mr. Boulton's speech, 180; granting of drawbacks explained, 180; on instance cited (Mr. Boulton) of Scotch farm compared to farm in North-west Territories, 180; iron industry in England, compared to other countries, 180. To Mr. Power: drawback never went into the revenue, 181.

Mr. MacInnes (Burlington). To Mr. Boulton: duty on goods entering into construction of agricultural implements, 170; cheap sugar in Canada, 171; taxation on beer, 172; source of wealth in England, 177; C.P.R. train earnings, 179; comments on Mr. Power's speech, 182; Mr. McMillan. To Mr. Boulton: German sugar not as good as Montreal refined, 171.

Mr. Almon. To Mr. Boulton: Ques. what becomes of revenue from spirits and beer when Scott Act is passed, 173; income tax, 176.

Mr. Macdonald (B. C.) To Mr. Boulton: Ques., duty on tobacco; benefit to consumer, 174. Ques. what is duty on spirits? 176.

Mr. Clemow—To Mr. Boulton: consumption of tobacco in England, 174.

Mr. Boulton—To Mr. Dever: making the customs duty and excise on tobacco the same, 175.

Mr. Ferguson (P.E.I.)—To Mr. Boulton: Ques. re tea, 176.

Mr. O'Donohoe, on Sir Mackenzie Bowell's speech, drawback not an injury to the farmer, bringing in the materials free a benefit to artisans, 184. M. agreed to, 184.

RECIPROCITY. See:

"Rebate on Exports.

Red Mountain Railway Co's Act; B. (58).

—Mr. Macdonald, B.C.

Introduced*, 211.

2nd R. m. (Mr. Macdonald, B.C.), P. explained, 233.

B. reported from Com. with amts. (Mr. Vidal), 270; explanation of amts., 270; remarks: practice regarding 3rd R.; Messrs. Power and Vidal, 270. M. (Mr. Macdonald, B.C.) that amts. be taken into consideration to-morrow, 271. M, agreed to, 271.

3rd R.*, 280.

Assent, 805.

(58-59 Vic., cap. 60.)

REGISTERED TONNAGE OF CANADA. See:

"Transportation on the Great Lakes."

REMEDIAL ORDER, LEGISLATION, ETC. See:

"Manitoba School Question."

REPRESENTATION OF BRITISH COLUMBIA IN THE CABINET. See:

"British Columbia."

Representation of House of Commons Act Am't; B. (124).—Mr. Angers.

Introduced*, 541.

2nd R., —

3rd R., 577.

Assent, 805.

(58-59 Vic., cap. 10.)

RETURNS ASKED FOR. See:

The respective subjects of the returns.

REVENUE, DECREASE IN. See:

"Tariff and Trade matters."

— UNDER FREE TRADE. See:

"Rebate on Exports."

REVENUE FROM EXCISE AND CUSTOMS.

M. (Mr. Boulton) that in the opinion of the Senate if the excise on spirits, beer and tobacco, were made equal to the protective duty on the same, an increase in revenue would result, etc., 282.

Remarks: Mr. Boulton, object in bringing matter up, 282; increased revenue; average quantity of spirit entering into consumption, with excise and import duty, 282; cost to the consumer; effect of increased duty, 283; distilleries in Canada, 283; Mr. Kaulbach, re increased taxation decreasing the consumption, 284; Mr. Boulton, consumption per head fallen off, but not revenue, 284; Inland Revenue returns, 284; Mr. Power, increased duty would induce smuggling, 284; Mr. Boulton, will not increase smuggling, 286; Mr. Read, Quinté, ques. explanation asked why certain distilleries were closed last year, 284; Mr. Boulton, overproduction in limited market, 284; Mr. Dever, combines, 284; Mr. McClelan, on combines, 284; Mr. Boulton, manufacture of whisky at different places last year, 285; Sir Frank Smith, ques. what about Toronto?, 285; Mr. Boulton, none made in Toronto, etc., 285; beer manufactured, last year malt used, excise on, number of breweries, etc., 285; price of beer, 285; Mr. Clemow, must be a mistake, 285; Mr. Boulton, effect of throwing the country open to competition, 285; tobacco, importation of, excise on, etc., 286; cigars, manufactures of, duty on, etc., 286; effect of increasing the excise to the protective duty, 286-7; Mr. Drummond, comments on Mr. Boulton's speech, 287; position of the manufacturer, 287; limit to the imposition of taxes upon whisky, 287; facilities in England for suppressing frauds, 287; comments on Mr.