

	PAGE.		PAGE.
Antagonism between Fox and Shelburne	118	Death of Rockingham	136
Economic reform	119	Negotiations carried on by Shelburne	136
Fox's policy	119	Last years of the war	137
Shelburne claims to control peace negotiations	120	Elliott's successful defence of Gibraltar	139
Objection in the United States to possession of Canada by France	121
Desire of France to persevere in the war	121	CHAPTER II.
Little true sympathy with the United States	122	[1779-1782.]
Naval expeditions sent out in 1782	122	Effort of Girard to make peace	140
La Perouse in Hudson's bay	122	Conditions suggested	141
Attack of Gibraltar [1782]	123	France desirous that hostilities should cease	141
Franklin's correspondence with Hartley	124	Commissioners named	142
Alexander, bearer of letter from Franklin	125	Franklin's propositions	142
Hartley's conciliatory propositions	125	Alleyne Fitzherbert	143
Supposition United States prepared to enter into separate treaty	125	Oswald's commission	143
Franklin declares the whole a mistake	126	Jay arrives at Paris	143
Franklin meets lord Cholmondeley	126	His interview with Oswald	144
Gives letter to Shelburne	126	De Vergennes' views	145
Shelburne sends over Oswald	127	Jay receives intercepted despatch of Marbois	145
Received by Franklin	127	De Rayneval proceeds to England	145
Franklin's conduct	128	Jay induces Vaughan to return to London	146
Appointment of Oswald	128	De Rayneval's interview with Shelburne and Grantham	146
His appeal to Franklin	129	Jay's draft of treaty	147
Thomas Grenville sent to Paris	129	Payment of debts due refused	147
Shelburne's letter to Franklin	129	Question of boundaries	147
Oswald's utter unfitness	130	De Vergennes gives to Fitzherbert draft of treaty	148
Grenville interview with de Vergennes	130	Strachey arrives at Paris	149
No desire on the part of France for peace	130	Enforces payment of honest debts in honest money	149
Rodney's victory of the 12th of April	131	Question of the fisheries	149
Its great influence	134	The engagement on part of the British ministériellement	149
Oswald informs Grenville of his proceedings with Franklin	134	Adams joins negotiators	150
Reported by him to Fox	135	He admits the justice of debts being paid	150
Fox's indignation	135	Oswald's imbecility in the matter of boundary	151
Resignation of Fox	135	Offers to cede to the states greater part of present province of Ontario	151

No object
as to n
They beca
years Strachey o
river S
The boun
Scotia
Commission
Identificatio
Penobscot c
Nova S
The bounda Commission
mine S
Select the Chiput
"North-we Map comm
gennes
Discovered
Sparks
Concedes m
Great I Present bou folly o
Britain
The fishery
Newfoundla
Concessions
The royal d
C Claims of the Refused Dissatisfacti
Clauses in th
United State dilemma Condition of Claims of Gr
Treaty sign without
The proceedi
An unsolved
Hanging of I