

BURNS CENTENNIAL FESTIVAL

IN THE ST. LAWRENCE HALL, 25 JANUARY, 1859.

UNDER THE AUSPICES OF THE TORONTO BURNS CLUB.

AND UNDER THE FOLLOWING PATRONAGE AND MANAGEMENT :—

ADAM WILSON, ESQ., MAYOR AND LADY.

SIR J. D. H. HAY, BART. AND LADY.

LIEUTENANT COLONEL MACDOUGALL, AND LADY.

STEWARDS.

1. HUGH MILLER, ESQ.
2. DR. URQUHART.
3. JOHN MAULSON, ESQ.
4. THOMAS SELLAR, ESQ.
5. FREDERICK CALLAWAY, ESQ.
6. H. B. SINCLAIR, ESQ.
7. A. D. MACDOUGALL, ESQ.
8. G. M. MUNRO, ESQ.
9. JOHN McBEAN, ESQ.
10. CHARLES ROGERS, ESQ.

11. JOHN LAIDLAW, ESQ.
12. CAPTAIN TAYLOR,
13. ALEXANDER FULTON, ESQ.
14. WILLIAM HOIG, ESQ.
15. ARCHIBALD C. L. CARLYLE, ESQ.
16. JOSEPH DAVIDS, ESQ.
17. R. MACKENZIE, ESQ.
18. DAVID WATSON, ESQ.
19. HUGH MACKAY, ESQ.
20. J. CARRIGIE, ESQ.

BANQUET.

ADAM WILSON, Esq., Mayor of Toronto, in the Chair.

The Company on arriving at the Hall, will be directed by the Stewards to the Banquet Rooms; and the Chairman, Speakers, and invited guests to their seats on the Platform.

While the Company is assembling, the Pipers will play an ancient Scotch air, composed 200 years ago. The Pipers will then retire, and the Band in the Gallery will strike up "Scots wha hae," &c.

I.

THE CHAIRMAN

WILL THEN ADDRESS THE MEETING.

BAND..... "The Blue Bells of Scotland."
SONG..... "Ye Banks and braes," and chorus.

II.

REV. DR. McCAUL.

BAND..... "Cheer boys Cheer."
SONG..... "O a' the airts the win can blaw."

III.

THE HON. JOHN A. McDONALD.

BAND..... "Green grow the Rashes."
SONG..... "A Man's a man for a' that."

IV.

THE HON. GEORGE BROWN, M.P.P.

BAND..... "The Garb of Old Gaul."
SONG..... "Scots wha hae," and chorus.

V.

THE HON. JOHN HILLYARD CAMERON, Q.C.

BAND..... "The March of the Cameron Men."
SONG..... "My Nannie, O"

VI.

WILLIAM LYON MACKENZIE, ESQ.

BAND..... "Up and war them a' Willie."
SONG..... "John Anderson my Jo"

VII.

THOMAS D'ARCY McGEE, ESQ., M.P.P.

BAND..... "St. Patrick was a Gentleman."
SONG..... "Tam Glen."

VIII.

ALEXANDER McLACHLAN, ESQ., Author of Lyrics, &c.

BAND..... "Bonnie Dundee."
SONG..... "Heres a health to fair Scotland."

Select Passages from HOMER, and from OSSTAN—the Celtic poet of Scotland—Contrasted.

SONG..... "Robin was a rovin boy."
BAND..... "Rule Britannia."

FINALE.

Auld Lang Sync. God Save the Queen.

The Company will then Retire to the Side Rooms and prepare for

THE BALL.

THE BALL will be opened at 11 P.M. by a Grand National Promenade. The Pipers will proceed, followed by the Managers of the BURNS CLUB,—the Stewards,—the Officers and men of the Highland Company in the Highland dress,—the Deputations and General Company, forming one Grand Promenade twice round the Hall. The Ball will then be declared open, and dancing will commence according to Programme. After the first Scotch Reel is danced the Pipers will retire, and the Royal Canadian Rifles String Band will perform for the rest of the dances.

FINALE OF BALL.

Auld Lang Sync. Save the Queen.