

is still living in New York at the fine old age of 93. She remembers the British officers stopping at her father's home on the North River Road toward the close of the war. She says Isaac Swayzie died on his farm about two miles from Niagara. According to the records he appears to have been married twice, first to Sarah Secord (daughter Catherine, born 13th March, 1793,) and afterward by Rev. Wm. Addison, on the 18th of September, 1806, to Lena Ferris (widow).

The Fourth Riding of Lincoln and Norfolk were together allowed one member. The fourth Lincoln consisted of the following townships:—Willoughby, Crowland, Bertie, Humberston and Wainfleet, Norfolk County extended west from Lincoln and the west riding of York as far as the River Barbue or Orwell (now called Catfish Creek). The northern boundary was the Thames, and Lake Erie of course formed the southern limit. Norfolk, therefore, included all of Haldimand and part of Elgin, also parts of Brant, Oxford and Middlesex. Most of Haldimand was Indian lands. The settled portion consisted mainly of the townships of Welland County, named as the 4th Lincoln, with Fort Erie as headquarters. Who was the member elected? We are certain that Pettit, Pawling and Swayzie were three of the Lincoln members, for their names appear in the journals of the first and second sessions, but who was the fourth? That is the question that has puzzled me and I am compelled to state that I cannot answer the question satisfactorily. Dr. Canniff, in his list has a name as follows "— Young," but he gives no riding for any member. No such name appears in the journals, which mention only fifteen names in all. Through the kindness of Mr. Phileas Gagnon I had the Quebec almanacs searched and find the following list in that for 1796, without mention of any constituencies:

HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY OF UPPER CANADA.

John McDonnell, Esq., Speaker.

Nathanial Pettit.
Isaac Swayze.
Hazleton Spencer.
Ephraim Jones.
Joshua Booth.
Peter Vanalstyne.

Benjamin Pawling.
David Wm. Smith.
John White.
Jeremiah French.
Francis Baby.
Pashal Terry.
Hugh McDonell.

Angus McDonell, Esq., Clerk.

The list of fourteen names supplied a new name which should read I have no doubt "Parshall Terry." It suggests a number of questions. Why only fourteen? Why the new name of Terry? As referred to before he was associated with Swayzie in the supplies for
