

INDEX

Connecticut made independent, Colony of, 43.
 Conservatism of the Liberal Government, 191.
 Conservative alleged victory in 1859, 237; victory in 1863, 330.
 Constitutional party in the Assembly, Defeat of, 149.
 Cornwallis, General, 44.
 Council of Twelve, Halifax, N.S., 68, 69, 70.
 Crampton, Mr., British Minister to U. S., 287.
 Crane, William, 106.
 Crawley, Edmund A., 47, 51; supported free schools, 139, 141, 151; speech on college question, 160; letter on college question, 165, 166, 186, 425.
 Cronstadt, Russia, 31.
 Cunard, Sir Samuel, 79, 95, 107; retired from Legislative Council, 123, 319.
 Dalhousie College opened, 141, 148.
 Dalhousie, Lord, 46.
 Dalrymple, George, 87.
 Dawson, James William (Sir Wm.), first superintendent of education for N. S., 214; his report in 1850, 214; his report of 1851, 337.
 De George, Bart., Sir Rupert, 212.
 Delegal, Catherine, wife of John Leichtenstein and grandmother of J. W. Johnstone, 31.
 DesBarres, Wm. F., 211, 217.
 D'Estaing, commander of French fleet, 33.
 De Wolfe, Thomas Andrew, 271.
 Dickey, Mr., leader in Portland railway scheme, 225.
 Dickey, Hon. Robert Barry, 360, 364.
 Dickson, Major-General, Sir Jeremiah, 190.
 Disraeli, 183.
 Dodd, E. M., 182.
 Doyle, Major-General Chas. Hastings, 335, 517.
 Doyle, Lawrence O'Connor, 56, 65, 172, 173; member of new Executive Council, 211.
 Dublin University, 184.
 Duncan, instructor of J. W. Johnstone in Edinburgh, 38.
 Durham, Lord, 69, 86; left England for Quebec, 86, 87; address to him from delegates to Quebec, 88; extracts from his report to English Government, 90-92; on Confederation, 116; railway policy, 178.
 Edes, Captain, grandfather of Joseph Howe, 53.
 Edinburgh Review, 141.
 Education Committee, Report of, 213.
 Election in 1840, 127; in 1847, 210.
 Elgin, Earl, Governor-General of Canada, 197, 229.
 Everett, Hon. Edward, 229.
 Executive Council in 1848, Members of new, 211.
 Fairbanks, Chas. Rufus, 41, 61.
 Fairchild, of Maine, sends troops into disputed territory, 115.
 Falconer, Thomas, arbitrator in Quebec-New Brunswick boundary dispute, 208.

Falkland, Lord, arrives in Halifax, 123, 139; letter to Howe, Unlacke and McNab, 154; dissolves House of Assembly, 167; lack of discretion, 178, 179, 185; leaves N. S., 190.
 Ferguson, John, 150, 156, 185, 425.
 Fisher, Hon. Chas., 364.
 Fitzmaurice, Lord, on Lord Derby, 561.
 Fitzroy, Sir Chas., 87, 122.
 Ford, I. N., estimate of Edward the Seventh as peacemaker, 169, 170.
 Fox, Henry, 420.
 Fraser, James, on Confederation, 417.
 Frederickton, N.B., 44.
 Free Schools in 1841, Obstacles in the way of granting, 142.
 Froude's Life of Lord Beaconsfield, 561.
 Fulton, Mr., 234; elected in 1851 for Cumberland by acclamation, 270; unseated in Cumberland, 271, 324.
 Galt, Hon. A. T., 360, 364, 585.
 Ganong, Professor, on Johnstone's report of the Quebec-New Brunswick boundary dispute, 207, 208.
 General Mining Association, 318.
 Gladstone, W. E., 39, 46, 179, 183; his views on Quebec-New Brunswick boundary dispute, 205, 206; Colonial policy, 233; visit to Lancaster, 267, 326; words addressed to him by C. H. Spurgeon, 334, 420.
 Glenelg to N. S. Legislature, Despatches of Lord, 66, 70, 76, 77, 81, 97, 101, 102, 106.
 Globe, The Toronto, 374.
 Goudge, Mr. Monson, 188, 371, 501.
 Gourlay Shanty, 287.
 Government patronage in Ontario, 187.
 Grammar Schools, 140; increase in number from 1841 to 1843, 140.
 Grand Trunk Railway from Portland to Montreal, 230.
 Grant, Rev. Principal, sketch of Joseph Howe, 574-576.
 Gray, Hon. Colonel, 360, 364.
 Gray, Hon. John H., 360, 364.
 Grey, Earl, Secretary of the Colonies, 190; reply to Sir John Harvey, 199, 200; despatch on responsible government, 212.
 Halliburton, Thomas C., 137; on railroads, 216.
 Hall, John, lawyer, 188.
 Hall, Rev. Robert, 58.
 Halshead, Mr., 44.
 Harding, Rev. T. S., speech on college question at Baptist Association in 1843, 156, 157.
 Harvey, Sir John, 87; made governor of N. S., 174; arrival in Halifax, 190; censured by British Government, 192; as peacemaker, 193, 194; inducements offered by him to Howe, to re-enter the Cabinet, 194; failure to placate Howe and his followers, 194, 199.
 Hatfield, Captain John V. N., 314, 324.
 Haviland, J. H., 87.
 Haviland, Hon. T. Heatly, 364.
 Head, Sir Edmund, 230.
 Henry, W. A., Solicitor-General, 335, 360, 364, 376, 387.
 Hill, D.D., Rev. G. W., 50, 51.
 Hill, Judge, 41.

Hinc to za Holr ad
Hor
How 33,
How Ju ch ad rei
I su
I
(
ele
)
let rep vie c att
I life den E pat an laci his ei his mer
C adm Ci soci men 12 drov co elec cons oppo 13 wha wa vo his in Ca ance resp 137 addr bly felt 146 he s 141 an o speak speak Loi powe 147 resig colleg his eg speak moi speak
Hal