WRESTLING TOURNEY AT CENTRAL Y.M.C.A.

The Central Y.M.C.A. Wrestling Club will run an open wrestling tournament on Saturday night, Feb. 14, in the Central Y. gym, open to all amateur wrestlers. Medals will be given to the winners. The special attraction will be a half-hour bout between Gibson of Central Y. and Adams of West End. Both men are heavily matched, neither having a fall to his credit, although in the last tournament at Central the decision was given to Adams on a very close margin. Gibson did not enter the tournament at West End on Saturday on account of a bad arm, but will be in fine shape next Saturday. Lappanen, the Finn, is in shape again and will bring down several of his men, among them Stoll, who gave Haynes a hard battle last year.

All entries must be in by Thursday, Feb. 12.

Three games will be played tonight in Central Y. Senior Basketball League: 8 o'clock—Canadians v. Miller's Outlaws. 8:30—Pilon's Big Five v. Harley's Nationals. 9—Bond's Arctics v. Newell's Athletics.

ALEXANDRA YACHT CLUB.

At a special meeting of the Alexandra Yacht Club it was decided to hold their fourth annual banquet Tuesday evening, Feb. 24, at the Edwin Hotel, East Queen street, when a good entertainment and dinner will be served. Heavy invitations are hereby extended to all friends and members of sister clubs, and as many as possible are invited to themselves of this opportunity to gather with the members of this flourishing eastern club.

The executive committee reported a healthy balance in treasury, while the sailing committee promised to spring a few surprises to the racing fraternity which will keep them on edge till the first scheduled race of 1914. The amusement committee reported a small balance, but the smallness of this report was largely increased by the good time promised at the above mentioned banquet.

Tickets for banquet can be obtained by phoning T. G. Scott, commodore, Main 4374; T. B. Wrenshall, Main 1648; H. E. McDonald, sec. com., Jct. 3740.

The presentation of St. Ann's Junior basketball team against a full team of players and supporters at Broadway tonight at 8:30, for their game with the St. Josephs.
