

FRIDAY, 24th JULY

10.15 a. m.—His Royal Highness will leave the Citadel, accompanied by His Excellency the Governor General and Suite, and proceed via the Wolfe Monument to the Review on the Plains of Abraham, where he will hand to the Governor General the title deeds of the Plains of Abraham and Ste. Foye.

Sir F. Borden, Minister of Militia and Defence and the Members of the Militia Council will be in attendance at the Review Stand.

On conclusion of the Review His Royal Highness will proceed to the Monument des Braves, returning thence to the Citadel via St. Foye Road, St. John, De Salaberry, St. Cyrille, Claire Fontaine and La Grande Allée.

Field Officer's Escort.

10.00 p. m.—His Royal Highness, accompanied by His Excellency the Governor General, will proceed to the Legislative Buildings, where a Ball will be given in his honour.

Guards of Honour will be mounted at the Citadel and at the Legislative Buildings.

Full Dress.

Field Officer's Escort.

SATURDAY, 25th JULY.

10.30 a. m.—His Royal Highness, accompanied by His Excellency the Governor General, will leave the Citadel and embark at the King's Wharf to pass down the line of assembled Fleets of Great Britain, France and the United States.

The Hon. L. P. Brodeur, Minister of Marine & Fisheries, will be in attendance at the King's Wharf.

Travelling Escort.

A Guard of Honour will be mounted at the King's Wharf.

5.00 p. m.—His Royal Highness will be present at the Pageant on Plains of Abraham.

Morning Dress.

Travelling Escort.