Answers to Seventeen Objections against Spiritual-Intercourse, and Inquiries Relating to the Manifestations of the Present Time. By JOHN S. ADAMS. Price 25 cts. cloth, 38 cts.

Since writing the above work the author has changed his views in regard to the Bible as the only revelation of God to man. In all other particulars his views are as therein laid down. The work has been well received by all classes, and the arguments advanced have been considered worthy of the careful consideration of all men of thought. All sectarianism is avoided; no doctrinal opinions are introduced; but the "answers" rest on the fundamental truths of scriptural revelation and undisputed facts.

Review of the Conclusion of Rev. Charles Beecher, Referring the Manifestations of the Present Time to the Agency of Evil Spirits. By JOHN S. ADAMS. Price 6 cents.

A Rivalet from the Ocean of Truth. An Authentic and Intensely Interesting Narrative of the Advancement of a Spirit from Darkness to Light, Proving by an Actual Instance the Influence of Man on Earth over the Departed. With Introductory and Incidental Remarks. By JOHN S. ADAMS.

The above is just published. Price 25 cents.

It abounds with passages of the most thrilling and interesting nature. The words of the spirit, at first fraught with every agonizing emotion, gradually advance to the expression of the most pleasurable feelings of ecstatic joy. It is not a work of fiction. Every line is as it was spoken by the spirit, and the volume is but a record of facts as they actually transpired.

A Letter to the Chestnut-Street Congregational Church, Chelsea, Mass., in Reply to its Charge of having become a Reproach to the Cause of Truth in Consequence of a Change of Religious Belief. By JOHN S. ADAMS. Price 15 cents. Just published.

The "Ministry of Angels" Realized. A Letter to the Edwards Congregational Church, Boston. By Mr. and Mrs. A. E. NEWTON. Price 10 cents.

The authors of this letter were, at the time of its writing, and for many years previously, members, in unexceptionable standing, of an Orthodox church; and the letter was designed to acquaint their brothers and sisters with certain extraordinary experiences of angelic visitation and ministrations which they were daily enjoying in the quietude of their own family circle, and which had not only furnished to them demonstration of a higher life, but had opened new treasures of love, wisdom and joy, flowing from celestial realms.

A Review of the Criticisms of the Congregationalist on the "Letter to the Edwards Church," including the Reply rejected by that Journal, and Embracing a Truthful Exhibition of the Unfairness, Injustice, Dogmatism and Phariseism of its Editors, with a Thorough Refutation of the Great Argument, the "Puzzling Hypothesis" of Orthodoxy against Modern Communications from the Spirit World. By A. E. NEWTON. Price 10 cts.

Answer to Charges of Belief in Modern Revelations, etc., given before the Edwards Congregational Church, Boston: By Mr. and Mrs. A. E. NEWTON. Embracing, also, a Message to the Church from its Late Pastor; the Withdrawal from Membership, and the Subsequent Discussion before the Church. Price 13 cents.

The Religion of Manhood; or, The Age of Thought. By Dr. J. H. ROBINSON. With an Introduction by A. E. NEWTON. Price 50 cents.

This is a valuable exposition of the theology and ethics of Spiritualism, as apprehended by a cultivated and religious mind. It is accompanied by facts and arguments bearing on the question of the origin of the phenomena, etc., and is especially addressed to thinking men, who would know "whereunto these things will grow." The introduction, by Mr. Newton, contains a logical and forcible exhibition of the true nature of Inspiration—heretofore deemed so mysterious and miraculous—with evidence to show its recurrence at the present day.

The above, together with many other works on Spiritualism and its teachings, published and for sale at wholesale and retail by BELA MARSH, 15 Franklin-street, Boston; PARTRIDGE & BRITTON, 300 Broadway, New York; B. PERCIVAL, 89 South Sixth-street, Philadelphia; F. BLY, Cincinnati; T. WIGGINS, St. Louis; M. BOULLERET, Mobile; J. C. MORGAN, New Orleans; and by booksellers generally.
