

ries of practice. There is no question of doubt or of difficulty that may not find its precedent in the records of the Imperial Parliament ; and I cannot think that any wiser guide need be desired."

