Four Alien Tailors Will Probably Be Given a Chance to Get Over to the United States.

HAMILTON, Oct. 26.—(Special.)—The four alien tailors, who failed to report for deportation after they were declared to be in the country illegally, were arrested to-day. They are three men and one woman, the men being Samuel Wolfe, Jos. Abrams and Morris Herman, The first two, with the woman, were arrested here, but Herman is in custody in Toronto. ustody in Toronto.

Blake Robertson, the government in-pector, who has been here for several ays conducting an investigation, it is believed, will have Wolfe charged before the magistrate with entering the country after he was deported and for aiding others to enter, in addition to eluding an officer. However, it is likely that all will be given a chance to get over into the United States, and stay there.
