Sir Hugh Graham and Progressive Politics

THE LATEST POLITICAL MENU. Montreal Star, Saturday, Sept. 7.

All that was necessary to secure the inclusion of any political hobby, economic fad, or half-baked sociological theory in the platform of the Progressive Party of the State of New York was to suggest it. The record of the convention shows that not a single proposal was rejected and that every plank was passed cheerfully and unanimously. There never was a Cave of Adullam where every inmate had such courteous attention given his special grievance, and who reciprocated the consideration of his fellows with more perfect success. To the end of their days, distinguished politicians of our own growing, like W. F Maclean, M.P., of Toronto, will probably never cease to regret that so intangible a thing as an international boundary-line prevented their taking advantage of a Heaven-sent opportunity. We are convinced that, once Mr. Maclean was turned loose in the Progressive Party, not even

Theodore Roosevelt would know it again. The political carte du jour which is being offered to the people ef the State of New York calls for every indigestible legislative novelty that has cropped up in the last six years, and a number which have never cropped up at all before. The initiative, referendum and recall bulks large, as does "the choice of judges by the people and not by the bosses," which sounds well but contains about as much real nutriment as a cream puff with all the cream omitted. The repeal of abandoned franchises seems to have been thrown in as a filler, as was a relause calling for publicity as to wages and hours of work in all industries. Industrial accidents are to be specifically prohibited by law, as is night work of any kind for women, and state insurance is to provide at once for losses caused not only by sickness and old age, but by irregular employment, with special compensation for what are called "trade diseases." The term probably covers Housemalds' Knee and Writers' Cramp. These clauses are but a few, culled casually from as striking an assortment as has been put before any people at one time in one place. If there is a "crank" in New York who cannot find what he wants in the Progressive platform, the inference is that he is too far advanced for citizenship in anything less progressive than an insane

The above deliverance of The Montreal Star is rather peculiar. It has two phases. It drags in W. F. Maclean, M.P., of Toronto in a rather unusual way, the not unusual for The par; and it also deals with what is called progressive politics and the object of the Progressive Party in the United States and incidentally progressive politics in Canada.

Let us deal in the first instance with the progressive platform in the State of New York, which seems to be a matter entitled to the contempt and ridicule

Is there no bad condition of affairs in the United States requiring a progressive party and a progressive platform? There must be some reason for Cel. Roosevelt's action and still more must there be some reason for the almost religious fervor with which the plain people of the United States have rushed to his support. There must be some reason for the fact that almost the entire portion of the Union west of the Mississippi River is for Roosevelt and his progressive platform. There must be some reason for the action of Mr. Hearst and his chain of newspapers. Why is the late Senator Dolliver worshipped as he is worshipped today by the great bulk of the people of the United States? It is admitted now he would have been president had he lived, and his growing fame rests on the fact that he was a progressive.

The people of the great State of Chio recently voted in favor of progressive changes in its constitution. Mr. Tatt comes from Ohio. Ohio has repudiated to their liking, the highest honor in hm and he is now become a hopeless burden to his party and his state because their gift. of his lack of progressive ideas. What is the cause of the marvelous rise and influence of Senator Lafollette of Wisconsin? And is there no cause beaind all the agitation against the money interests and the big trusts in the United States and the demoralization of the politics of that great country that we now see everywhere ?

Is it not the fact that the United States is at the door of a revolution unless a progressive party and a progressive platform can once more save the Union? Why have the New York papers lost their influence and are regarded in fashion, it was said that "he defied by the people as public enemies? Had the sudden rise and influence of the the power of England with nothing bemonthly magazines, called muckrakers if you will, some cause therefor? Why tween him and harm but the ocean." to the people means a big revenue and of scythes, for example, it is not necessary for American manufacturers. is Mr. Bryan, with such faults as he may have, so influential, or was so influential up ito the date of the Chicago convention? Evidently The Montreal Star thinks that the progressive movement in the United States is a delusion and a snare and half-baked. But Mr. Woodrow Wilson, who is a candidate for the presidency, has given out in the plainest way his approval slightest reserve of what he calls the "admirable platform" of the New York ated from Canada by 3000 miles of sait Progressives! Is Wilson, too, half-baked?

The World believes in the progressive movement in the United States and caperal Col. Roosevelt as the apostle of that movement and one of its great leaders, and takes the liberty of predicting that the Colonel will sweep the United States and be its next president. Never were the people of the United States more fervid for reform than today! Why?

The Montreal Star, however, thinks all this is a joke and speaks of the progressive platform as a hobby, a fad, as half-baked, and all the other words you can find in the article quoted above.

But when, however, those principles come to be applied in the neighboring country, when their adoption must react at once upon Canada, The Globe has nothing to say in their support. It speaks always in a fault-finding way of Theodore Roosevelt, of the National Progressive party, and of the Progressive movement in the United States and takes the liberty of predicting that the Colonel will sweep the Globe has nothing to say in their support. What The Star is really trying to do at this moment, and in the above article, wage, the eight-hour day, home rule to belittle the efforts of those who think with Mr. Maclean that the Canadian for cities and other measures intended Pacific Railway must stop its melon cutting, must live up to the franchise and to give the legislature plenary power contract contained in the original legislation, and that the enormous profits of in dealing with social and economic the Canadian Pacific belong as much to the public as to the shareholders, and that above a reasonable dividend these enormous profits and accumulations are questions. The character of this new consecrated and ear-marked for lower rates and for the betterment of the railway rather than as plunder for grasping shareholders.

The World regrets that The Montreal Star, with all its opportunity, has tional convention by Theodore Roosenever taken the side of the Canadian people as against the interests in Canada, velt, the address upon which he has nor has it ever had one word of commendation to offer to anybody, or any newspaper, who has fought the battle of the people. The Montreal Star is for the 'nterests every time. The Montreal Star, with its wide opportunity, could have A progressive victory in the United been a great newspaper in Canada for the rights of the people. It has never availed itself of this opportunity and it has done its best to keep the people in gressive movement in Canada, which gather all the profits and cities a very near caption. The Machines gather all the profits and give a very poor service. The Montreal Star has never yet put a finger on the real cause of the municipal demoralization that prevails in Montreal and which it pretends to be anxious to cure. It blames the electors; it never sees the interests and the wholesale corruption which they carry on in that city! The Montreal Star is in the same pot with the reactionary papers of New York and some other American cities. But perhaps even yet The Mont-real Star will see the folly of its ways and will yet see that a newspaper that enjoys a great public support is a public enemy when it forsakes the public rights and the cause of the people. In the meantime that newspaper has the opportunity of saying whether it believes in the Canadian Pacific melon and the maintenance of the Canadian Pacific rates in the west and whether it believes in a progressive policy here in Canada or not. A paper that shouts about the flag and about naval defence and the building up of a great empire apparently thinks the only way it can be done is following the rotten economical lines that have prevailed in the United States. Such lines mean revolution and civil discord of all kinds, and the country that lands to such a condition and an empire that comes within the domain of meretricious influences such as prevail in the United States is not to our mind worthy of saving. Canada can only be progressive and up-to-date when she advocates progressive measures. The Montreal Star confesses that it believes in nothing progressive, that it is reactionary, and that it is for the interests and against the people. And we take this to be the personal opinion of Sir Hugh Graham, as well as of The Star. Let Hugh Graham say where he is in regard to the Shaughnessy melon and the Shaughnessy deliverance in regard thereto and now being broadcasted all over Canada. Is it Maclean or Graham that is half-baked?

STRAUS WILL BE ELECTED. The New York Evening Post, one of country, and one of the most carefully edited, frankly declares that the Re-publican and Democratic state leaders alike are inclined to concede the success of the Progressive ticket, headed by Hon. Oscar 6. Straus. Mr. Straus was a gold Democrat in 1896, and was called by President Roosevelt to the cabinet, a few years later, without much question as to his party affiliasally commended at the time, because Mr. Straus was then regarded, as he economic conditions, especially in the 'band of noble men and women," refor years an apparently hopeless battle ish Isles. for the advancement of those principles adopted by the national convention at Just at this time, with the shocking revelations of Tammany graft and Tammany rule in the City of New York, the Democrats of the state are confronted with the declaration of Charles F. Murphy, the Tammany boss, that Gov. Dix must be renominated. That Murphy will have his way in the convention on Oct. 1 is pretty generally admitted, and a big bolt, led by The New York World, is sure to follow. The Republicans find their organization absolutely controlled by William Barnes, jr., whose dictatorship will likewise alienate a large section of the party from their support of the state ticket. Under these circumstances The Post finds that many Democrats are urging Murphy to endorse Straus, while many Republicans are thrusting similar advice upon Barnes. Neither boss is likely to yield, because Straus, as governor, could never be used by either of them in any event. Never has there been such an opportunity for the independent and progressive citizens of the state to confer upon a man, so much

The United States will have some thing in the way of a real parcel post service on January 1. It will carry live fowl, eggs and other farm prolow, altho open to criticism, because graded by distance instead of being EIGHT AMENDMENTS BEATEN based upon the flat rate principle. The weight limit of eleven pounds is a low one and should be increased tenfold. Still, with all these drawbacks, there will be a parcel post. Had we even so moderate a measure of relief in Canada, a four pound package could be sent from Toronto to Hamilton for fourteen cents, as against our present rate of sixty-four cents.

We have no doubt Postmaster General Pelletier, who has displayed real courage and ability in dealing with the cable rates and the cable situation generally, will soon turn his attention to the parcel post, which, We should profit by the experience of our neighbors, but we should not lag behind them. CRICKET.

In these days of the strenuous life. when even sport has been reduced to a commercial enterprise, it is refreshing to find the British game of amateur cricket receiving an increased measure of support from the people of Toronto. Tomorrow at Rosedale, with the support of the mayor and the city council, the premier city team, as champions of Canada, meet in keen, tho friendly, combat, a team representative of the rest of Toronto.

The objects are two-fold, and it is not easy to separate them in the matter of importance. One is the furtherance of amateur cricket, and the other the support of the Sick Children's Hospital. When amateur sport becomes allied with the sacred cause of charitycharity in its best sense-charity, that does not demoralize its beneficiaries but seeks to leaven the hardness of their lot-then it is not surprising, as in this case, that the response is ready and astonishing

The directors of the Rosedale grounds, the captains of the city teams, the players of the Toronto and other league clubs, have readily combined to make the occasion a red-letter day in the history of Canadian cricket. We feel that in depriving us of our Sunday sliding a great wrong is being done just to satisfy a few loud-mouthed people who have no life in them and are too miserable to let others enjoy theirs.
