The ceiling of the main hall was nidden from view by a covering of red, white and blue bunting, while clusters of gaily-colored lights decorated the pillars supporting the galleries. The stage was converted into a sitting-out place, being handsomely furnished, the whole presenting a military appearance. The regimental band of the Royal Grenadiers furnished excellent music for the dancing. About midnight the supper-room was thrown open and those present partook of the good things provided by Caterer Webb. Upwards of 300 guests were present, all the city regiments being well represented. Among those present were: Col. Peters, D.O.C.; Col. and Mrs. Young, Major and Mrs. Heward, Capt. Johnston, Capt. CHINA'S EMPEROR A CHRISTIAN is Said He is a Convert, and That the Hatred of the Empress is Dec. 14.-During yesterday's ses sion of the Reichstag, the last before the Christmas holidays, Dr. Stoecker, former Court Chaptain, remarked with reference to the situation in China that he had received private letters asserting that the reason Empress Dowager hates Emperor Kwang Su is that the latter has actually become a Christian, having been converted British and American missionary books hat came under his eye.

At the close of the session Dr. Stoecker, n an interview, gave a number of corrou-orative details. His informant is supposed to have been Count Von Waldersee, with whom Dr. Stoecker is on terms of intimate Kwang Su Known to Favor Many Western Ideas.

Tho most of Emperor Kwang Su's recent troubles may be traced to his eucouragement of progressive ideas; his early training and later associations were not such as to render it probable that he would ever turn to the religion of the western peoples. His boyhood years were passed under the jeatous eye of Ung Tung Hoo, a bigoted mandarin strongly opposed to foreigners, who received his pupil firmly in the doctrines of Confucius and other Chinese religious founders.

The once or twice a little conjusion among the children on the stage was manifest, the experience gained will likely make quite smooth their subsequent effects to-day.

The opening scene represents a garden of living flowers, the design and dialog by Mrs. Grayson Smith, who represents Miss Thistle, and is surrounded by Sambo Sunflower (George Dunstan), William Thger Lily (G. W. Howland), Mrs. Shamrock (A. Mactean Macconeill), Chinese Aster (Norman Ruthven), Reggle Marigold (E. Wylle Greer), Mrs. Moss Rose (Miss Constance Boulton), Miss Rosebud (Miss Arnold), Miss Chrysanthemum (Miss Marietta La Dell), and Miss Scarth and Miss Clarkson Jones as Daisies, Needless to say, their conversation thruout is "flowery," while no one seemed to require the opera glasses which the programs announced are for rent to those desiring to see the jokes.

Perhaps the sanctity which with the Manchu dynasty is held to hedge about the person of the sovereign may have caused the mind of the Emperor to revoit. Cruelly beset by the Empress Dowager and her clique and powerless to help himself, he must have doubted the consistency of a religious system which set him up as something divine, yet left him a prey to human caprices. At any rate, he has manifested great interest in the learning of the west, and have the sand here. the raised portions "wiped off" bright.
