The Master of Waterloo furnished the winning long shot yesterday afternoon at Woodbine Park. Bathbrick in the first race, that was off none too well, won in a long drive, with Picaroon and Ena, Trackless, the pacemaker, dropping back just outside the money. Meredith, the favorite, and Gold Note, second choice, were both well backed, but never prominent.

Three favorites and two second

The weather was ideal, and there was an unusually large week-day attend-Owner Seagram and Jockey Nicol won two each.

The Valley Farm's Ormus filly, Otsi Keata, showed the class expected in the maiden two-year-old race, standing a long drive gamely and winning by a half length from the outsider, Southern Bride. Miss Imogene showed the way most of the journey, but 3 1-2 furlongs was enough. Flat Creek, another outsider, worked up to the show after a tiresome journey. Besides the favorite, Nicol's mount, and Bridoon, the last named being the medium of a tip, received the most play.

The purse for Canadian breds had all five accept the conditione, with Half-a-crown, 1 to 2, favorite, the other four being also liberally backed. Bilberry and Table Bay fought it out for the lead in the early stages, resulting in favor of the Biletto veteran, the Boyle plater dropping back beaten in the stretch, where Nicol let out the Seagram runner and the win was easy. only two started for the Stanley Barracks Cup; that resulted in an amusing farce. Buffer lost his rider the first time round, but chased Firefly the rest of the journey, finishing in front when Mr. Kerr pulled up. Mr. Church captured the runaway and rode over the course for the $100 second money, but again he miscued, being outside the time limit.

Sandal won the filly race without an effort, Jane Swift, favorite, second, the English bred filly Cruched'or third. Maud Sigslee was backed from 10's to olds; 6 furlongs.

WINNIPEG, June 2.—(Special.) — The spring meeting of the Manitoba Jockey Club opened here to-day on the half-mile exhibition track. The track was heavy, and the time made was poor. The attendance was 800. While southern horses flauxed preprintally and bookies had a tendance was 800. While southern horses figured prominently, and bookies had a good day, favorites at prohibitive odds were to the fore. A bad mix-up occurred in the fourth race—5 furlong dash—in which ten started. At the first turn, Becky Wright, owned by J. Fry, Brandon, went down and three others piled on top, one suffering a broken shoulder, while McGrath, who rode Becky, is in a critical condition from injuries received. critical condition from injuries received.
