Market Notes.

Prices for hogs were lower instead of higher to-day. A large number of the drovers informed The World that $9.50, was all they could get for hogs f.o.b. cars at country points.

T. J. Corbett of the firm of Corbett & Hall has been resting in the country at the home of W. H. Cawker, Bowman-ville. Mr. Cawker was on the market to-day, and stated that Mr. Corbett was rapidly gaining in strength.

Notwithstanding all that was said to the contrary The World's quotations for hogs on Wednesday for Tuesday's market were correct, at least the prices mentioned were paid on Tuesday. The bulk of hogs may have been bought lower, but we are in a position to substantiate our quotations.
