BOWIE.

FIRST RACE—Wood Violet, Phalaris, Geo. W. Avery.
SECOND RACE—Orlando of Havana, Fragonard, sixteen to one.
THIRD RACE—Blue Thistle, Lucky R. Handful.

FOURTH RACE—Haukerk, Highland Lad, shooting star.
FIFTH RACE—Luther, Greengrass, Christa.
SEVENTH RACE—Vermont, Water, Firing Line.

MULDOON IS BUSY.

Pete Muldoon, who piloted Seattle to a world's championship in hockey last winter, is busy rounding up his players for the 1917-18 season. He has Sonny Howe and Bernie Morris signed up again, and would have to secure a full team for a few months, Jack Walker and Eddie Carpenter are at Port Arthur and are undecided.

MATTIE TO KEEP HEINIE GROH.

Cincinnati O., Nov. 23.—Christy Mathewson, manager of the Reds, stated that Heinie Groh, infielder, would not be traded to the Giants, and would remain with Cincinnati as long as Big Six was manager.

ALL ROADS LEAD TO NEW ORLEANS TRACK

Chicago, Nov. 23.—The first flight of racehorse followers started for New Orleans today and other delegates will be following all next week. The meeting is scheduled to open on Thanksgiving Day and run for 65 days. The track is over-run with horses now, and the officials of the club are having a hard time taking care of all of them. New Orleans will have a practical monopoly of winter racing, as the Juana will not open.

Havana opens its track on Thanksgiving for a season last into March. Racing has prospered in Cuba but has not reached anything like the development attained at New Orleans. Martin Nathanson is acting as secretary for the Havana meeting. Havana draws considerable following from New York, but Chicagoans stick faithfully to New Orleans.

Following New Orleans, Hot Springs will put on a thirty-day season, there being practically 100 days of activity provided for the thoroughbreds during the winter season.

Prizes Presented to Riverdale Bowlers

The Riverdale Lawn Bowling Club's presentation of prizes took place at a euchre party held in the R.G.B.C. parlors last night. F. H. Gentile, the president, was in the chair. W. H. Sutherland, in his usual brilliant manner, presented the prizes to the winners and in the name of the club presented D. MacDougall, secretary, with a beautiful piece of cut glass, as a token of appreciation for his services during the season.

The euchre prize winners were Miss Culham and Mrs. Smith, and Messrs. W. Sutherland and R. Izett.

Following is the list of prize winners: Rhinks, Cloutier Trophy. Winners—H. L. Clarke, J. Holden, W. Mitchell, Jr., W. Glendinning (skip). Runners up—W. Greenwood, E. Kilbey, E. Kingnorth, H. Offenburger (skip).

Special Doubles, O'Neill Trophy. Winners—W. W. Smith, W. Glendinning (skip). Runners up—W. H. Sutherland, W. Mitchell, Jr. (skip).

Open singles, Russell Trophy. Winner—J. Pullock. Runner up—J. G. Grindlay. Handicap singles, Kemp Trophy. Winner—D. MacDougall. Runner up—J. G. Grindlay. Semi-finalists—J. Anderson and J. G. Grindlay.

Special rink, prizes by Mr. P. Gentile—W. A. Fallowdown, J. W. Morrow, G. H. Armstrong, E. Kingnorth (skip). Special doubles, prizes by Mr. P. Kyle—A. Lauder, L. L. Grabbill (skip).

After handing out defeat to Sunderland-Albin, Wyckwood, who made an auspicious entry into the Provincial Soccer League circle, will attempt to repeat the dose today when they oppose Toronto Scottish in the final of the Mappin and Webb series at Sunderland ground. The Scots' managers have sense enough to recognize in the Woods an unknown quantity and are fielding their strongest team. Last week Wyckwood played several ex-Irish-Canadian players for the first time, and the attack as a result was disconnected at times, but with a better understanding between the forwards today the Woods are certain to show up better and will make the co's carry on to the finish.
