PRODUCE MARKETS

Local Trading Is Quiet and Dull-No New Features.

Dulness featured the local market on allines of general farm stuff, and there little change to note in any respect. Political change are moving slowly and show a wide range all the way from $1.75 to $2 a bag. In carload lots potatoes are easier and as low as $1.50 has been quoted in come cases, but this is the exception rather than the rule.

On the St. Lawrence market local dealers are selling turnips at $5c a bag, carrots $5c, parsnips $1.00 and cabbage, which are cheap and plentiful this year, at from 40d to 75c a dozen a wide range, but, as every housekeeper knows, there is a big difference in size and quality.
