ye olde firm

The beauty and nobility of tone of

HEINTZMAN& CO

PIANO

places this instrument in a class by itself-peerless and without a rival.

chase of an instrument where you are assured of the best-where you take no chances—and that is obtainable for very little more than you pay for an inferior instrument

-and that can be bought on easy

This plane has won the favor of the greatest visiting artists, and of citizens

PIANO SALON: 115-117

KING ST. W., TORONTO

of culture all over Canada.

terms of payment.

Does not wisdom dictate the pur-

SOCIAL NOTES

The Misses Ethel and Mabel Robinson of the Apollo School of Music have left Toronto to go to Europe, where they will continue their musical stud-

A wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest S. Browne in Ontario-street on Wednesday, June 29, when Miss Emily Thom was united in marriage to Mr. Lawrence K. Hergert. The ceremony was performed by Rev Mr. MacPherson of Chalmers Church The bride was attended by Mrs. Brown The bride was attended by Mrs. Browne as matron of honor, while Mr. Garnet Browne of Hamilton attended the groom. The bride wore her traveling suit of grey broadcloth, with hat to match. The groom's gift to the bride was a paved heart of pearls, to the matron of honor a sterling silver belt pin and a gold scarfpin to the groomsman. and a gold scarfpin to the groomsman. They left for a short trip to Buffalo and Cleveland, after which they will reside in their new house, 137 Fern-

A wedding took place in St. Andrew's Church, Barrie, Mabel Bell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vair, being united in marriage to Alfred Cyrus Grasley of Toronto. The bride, whose father gave her away, was attired in cream silk mull, and carried white roses and lilles of the valley. Her sister, Bessle, attended her in light yellow satin and carried yellow daisles. The church was beautifully decorated with palms and dalsies. The groom's mother and sister of Toronto, also Charles Grasley and wife, attended. After the ceremony breakfast was served at the home of the bride's mother, and the happy couple took train for New York. On re-turning they will make their home in North Bay.

Miss Pearl L. Davis of Gloucesterstreet is spending a few weeks with her friend, Miss Wright, at their sum-

Mrs. L. Huff, Lake-front, Kew Geach, announces the engagement of her sister, Miss Louise (Topsy) Munt, to Mr. A. G. Knowland, Winnipeg. The wedding will take place on July 20 at St. Stephen's Church.

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Harris, 148 Close-avenue, Parkdale, was the scene of an event at 3 o'clock last Wednesday afternoon, when their only daughter, Ada F., was married to Mr. G. Howard Anderson, eldest son of Dr. Jos. R. Anderson. The drawing-room where the ceremony was performed was decorated wit h marguerites. A wedding bell of flowers was suspended above where the bridal party stood, from which white satin streamers extended to corners of the room, where they were caught with bunches of marguerites. Palms were also used about the rooms. Miss Irene Jarrott played the wedding march and She wore the wedding veil worn by her nother on a similar occasion, wrought with her monogram in pearls and held with a chaplet of orange blossoms, and carried a shower bouquet of lilles of the valley and roses. The groom's gift to the bride was a hoop of diamonds. She was attended by Miss Beth Leng as bridesmaid and little Miss Audrey Harris as flower girl. The former wore atin overdress, and carried pink roses Her gift was a pearl sunburst, the little flower girl receiving a cross of pearls and wearing a point d'esprit city engineer's department and Mrs.

Hiss Eva Enzageth Hunter, youngest daughter of David Hunter of the in St. John's Presbyterian Church on Thursday at 3 o'clock. Broadview-avenue, when Miss Myrtle Davey, eldest of pink and white sweet peas. The at 11 o'clock, at the family residence daughter of Mrs. F. W. Kirkendall, Pittsburg, supported him. The wedding marriage to William Hilton, youngest ald Campbell Warren, youngest son of reception was held under a marquee on son of Joseph Hilton, Riverdale. The Mrs. R. Warren. The bride looked the lawn. An orchestra was in attendance thruout the afternoon. Mrs. Har- John Bushell of St. Clement's Anglican ris received in a chanticleer draped Church and was witnessed by the reris received in a chanticleer draped silk gown, with green velvet. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson left by the "bridal train" across the line, where they will spend a short honeymoon, returning to spend a short honeymoon, returning to in cream serge and wore a large white carrying a bouquet of sweet peas. spend a short honeymoon, returning to Toronto before leaving for their new home in the west. The bride's traveling costume was of tan cloth, with a quet of white sweet peas, mixed with left by the 5 o'clock train for Detroit,

A pretty June wedding took place in parents, "Maplehurst," when Laura the recibients of a houseful of pres Eleanor, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elliott, and Mr. Albert Victor Beid of Clarke, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. T. W. Jol liffe while the bridal party stood before a bank of potted ferns and cut flowers. The bride, who was given away by he father, was attired in duchess satin and a tulle veil, fastened with a wreat! of orange blossoms, her only ornamen being a sunburst of pearls, the gift of the groom, Little Gladys McClung, cousin of the bride, acted as flower girl, carrying a basket of sweet peas and wearing the groom's gift, a locket and chain. Miss Aura Caldwell played the wedding march and wore the grom's in the rose drawing-room at the Hotel gift, a bar of pearls. Miss Elliott was Mossop, which was decorated with

A WEDDING OF TUESDAY.

At ten o'clock on Tuesday morning St. Peter's Church, Bloor-street west St. Peter's Church, Bloor-street west, was the scene of the marriage of Marle Agnes, daughter of the late Mr. Hohistein and Mrs. William Manion, Kendal-avenue, to Mr. John Lorne Bigley, son of Mr. Richard Bigley, Jarvis-street. The Rev. Father Minehan celebrated the post-nuptial mass, and during the signing of the register Mr. Arthur Lelutheuser sang "Because." The bride was given away by Mr. William Manion, and looked lovely in a gown of chiffon cloth over charmeuse, with Duchess lace garniture. She carried roses and lilies-of-the valley. The long tulle vell was caught with orange blossoms. She was attended by her cousin, Miss Loretto Mary McGee, and Miss Ellen Cullen Mosier, both from Buffalo, and soile, with alike in pink cashmere de soie, with overdress of pink chiffon and small hats of Chantilly lace, with shower hats of Chantilly lace, with shower bouquet of pink rosebuds and white sweet peas. Mr. Harold Shapley was best man, and the ushers were Dr. John Menna, Mr. Gordon Hackland and Mr. Charles Hohlstein. The bride-groom's gift to the bride was a pearl and diamond brooch, and the bridesmalds received pendants, the best man and ushers coral scarf pins. Mrs. William Manion were a manyer meteor. and ushers coral scarf pins. Mrs. William Manion were a mauve meteor crepe dress with large white hat with willow plume. Mr. R. Bigley was in blue marquisette, with black plumed hat. A small reception followed at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Manion, 112 Kendal-avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Bigley left by the two o'clock boat and will reside at "Oakwood" and the ushers were Ernest and Mr. William Wilcox, brothers of the bride. After a reception at the home of the bride's parents the newly wedded couple left for a short southern tour. The bride's going away gown was old rose cloth with hat to match. On their return they will reside at "Oakwood" to be the bride of the br left by the two o'clock boat and will spend their honeymoon in the Adiron-dacks and after their return will reside in Kendal-avenue

JOHNS-MILLER.

The marriage took place on the 29th of June at the residence of the bride's brother, Mr. William Miller, Sudbury, at 5 o'clock p.m., of Miss Thressa May Miller to Mr. Frank A. Johns, Toronto. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. J. Paul on the lawn, which was a very beautiful setting for the wedding party. The bride, who was given away by her brother, looked very pretty and graceful in her gown of cream crepe de chene with wreath of orange blossoms and tulle vell, and Jarrott played the wedding march and during the signing of the register Mrs.

J. Patton sang "Because God Made Thee Mine." The Rev. W. D. Caswell performed the ceremony. The bride was given away by her father and was gowned in pink silk responsible to the was given away by her father and was gowned in beautiful lyory duchess sating the grooms. After the ceremony Mr.

With chiffen and seed nearl garniture. carried a shower of bride roses and H. Breckenridge, wearing a pretty and Mrs. Miller held a reception under Turnbull and Rev. N. St. John, Cooksthe trees, where the bride's table and cake was set and decorated with evening Mr. and Mrs. Johns left for bride travelling in a tailormade of latter wearing a tailor-made of green navy blue panama cloth with hat to match. She was the recipient of many will live at the parsonage, Schemberg,

HILTON-HUNTER.

Miss Eva Elizabeth Hunter, youngon Bolton-avenue. Riverdale, united in was united in marriage to Mr. Reginmarriage to William Hilton, youngest ald Campbell Warren, youngest son of geremony was performed by the Rev. levely in a gown of cream crepe de black hat with willow plumes. Among maiden hair fern. The groom was unattended. After the ceremony the staff of the guests sat down to a wedding break. The groom's gift to the bride was a Canada Metal Co., and a piano, the fast, where speeches were delivered by heart of pearls, to the bridesmald a bracelet, and to the best man a pearl ex-Mayor Ross of East Terento, uncle tie pin. Bowmanville at the home of the bride's are widely known in Riverdale, were of the bride. The young couple, who ents. They afterwards left ror Niagara Falls and eastern points to spend their honeymoon, the bride's traveling costume being of grey tweed, with a black hat trimmed with brown. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Hilton will reside at their new home, 72 First-

MOSSOP-LUNDY. The marriage of Miss Edna Alice Mossen, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Mossop, to Mr. Roy H. Lundy, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Lundy, Aurora, took place at half-past two o'clock Thursday afternoon

PREE TO YOU -- MY SISTER SUFFERING FROM WOMEN'S ALLMENTS

l am a woman.

I know woman's sufferings.

I will mail, free of any charge, my home treathers with full instructions to any sufferer from women's aliments. I want to tell all women about this cure—you, my reader, for yourself, y ur daughter, your mother, or your sister. I wan to tell you how to cure yourselves at nome with at the help of a doctor. Men cannot understand women's sufferings. What we women know from experience, we know better than any doctor. I know that my home treatment is a safe and sure cure for Leucorphea or Whitlish discharges, Ulceration. Displacement or Falling of 'the Womb, Protuse, Scanty or Fainful Periods, Ulcerine or Ovarian Tumors or Growths, also pains in the head, back and howels, bearing down feelings, nevousness, creeping feeling up the spine, melancholy, desire to cry, hot Rashes, weariness, kidney and bisader troubles where caused by weaknesses peculiar to our sex.

weaknesses peculiar to our sex.

I want to send you a complete 10 days' treatment entirely free to prove to you that you can cure your-self at home, easily, quickly and surely. Remember, that it will east you sathing to give the treatment or less than two cents a day. It will not interfere with your work or occupation. Just send me your name and address, tell me how you suffier, if you wish, and I will see not you the treatment for your case, entirely free, in plain wrapper, by return mail. I will also send you the treatment for your case, entirely free, in plain wrapper, by return mail. I will also send you free or cost my book—"Woman's Own MEDICAL ADVISER" with explanatory illustrations showing why women suffer, and how they can easily cure themselves at home. Every woman should have it, and learn to think for horself. Then when the doctor says—"You must have an operation," you can decide for yourself. Thousands of women have cured themselves with my home remedy it cures all, eld or young. To Molhers of Daughters, I will explain a simple home treatment which speedily and effectually cures Leucerthæs, Green Sickness and Painful or Irregular Menstruation in Young Ladies. Plumpness and health always result from its use.

Wherever you live, I can refer you to ladies of your own accality who know and will gladly sell any sufferer that this Home Treatment really cures all woman's diseases and makes women well, strong, plump and robust. Just send me your address, and the free ten days' treatment by yours, also the book. Write todas "ayou may not see this offer again. Address:

Windows Committee of the committee of the control of the wearing a grey silk gown. Mrs. Reid, mother of the groom, was in mauve. Mr. and Mrs. Reid left for Toronto and Niagara, the bride traveling in a bisque broadcloth gown and black picture hat. ed her sister, wearing tan cloth, mauve and black hat with plumes. She car-For a perfect service, clean, polite and attentive waiters, a menu that is unsurpassed, a good orchestra, go to the King Edward Hotel for table d'hote lunch or dinner, and you'll get it.

and black hat with plumes. She carried mauve sweet peas. Mr. Charles Lundy, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Lundy left for Detroit, and on their return they will reside in Wilsontheir return they will reside in Wilson avenue, Parkdale.

DEACOFF-WILCOX.

Beautifully decorated with marguerites and ferns, Oakwood Church, Bracondale, was last week the scene of a pretty wedding ceremony, at which Mary Wilcox, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Wilcox, Lakeview-avenue, Fairbank, became the bound of Mr. Howard Descoff, also the bound of Mr. Howard Descoff, also of Fairbank.

Rev. Mr. McTaggart conducted the service. Miss Sybil Deacoff was at the organ, and during the signing of the register Miss Sophia Imboden sang "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden." The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a charming gown of ivory silk collenne, with silk embroideries, a wreath of orange blossoms fastened her tulie veil, and she carried a shower of cream roses. Her gift from the groom was a sunburst Laura Deacoff, who wore a pretty sown of white silk mull, with an exturn they will reside at "Oakwood Villa." Lakeview-avenue, Bracondale.
Mrs. Descoff will be at home to receive on July 15.

BRECKENRIDGE-HUMPHREYS.

On Wednesday evening last at the esidence of the bride's mother in Delaware-avenue, the marriage of Miss Belle Breckenridge to the Rev. John S. Humphreys, Schomberg, was quiet-ly solemnized. The rooms were fragrant with June flowers, and while Miss Ouderkirk played the Mendelssohn Wedding March, the bride was brought in by her brother, Mr. J. C. Breckenridge. Her charming gown was of grey satin, softly draped and veiled in grey chiffon, with old lace and silver on the corsage. Her sister, Miss town. Mrs. Breckenridge received her cake was set and decorated with guests wearing a handsome gown of marguerites and ferns. Later in the black silk with white lace. Later in the evening Rev. J. and Mrs. Hum-Toronto and other eastern cities, the phreys left for a short western trip, the

WARREN-DAVEY

chine, with pearl trimming, tulle veil

BROOMER-CRAWFORD.

A quiet wedding was solemnized at All Saints Church, Toronto, on Wednesday, June 29, when Bertha Elizabeth, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Crawford, was united in mar-riage to Dr. George Broomer, Rev. W. J. Southam officiating. The bride was attended by her sister. Miss Nellie Crawford, while Mr. Albert E. Brett supported the groom. groom's present to the bridesmaid was a pearl brooch and to the best man a pearl tie pin. After a reception at the residence of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Broomer left by the 11 o'clock train for Chicago. The bride traveled in a grey tailor made suit with pale

CATES-GOULD.

There was a wedding celebrated on Tuesday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. R. Gould, Rose-avenue, when her eldest daughter. Florence Mae, became the bride of Frederick Harper Cates. Rev. W. J. Southam performed the ceremony in the drawing room, which was prettily decorated with palms, marguerites and peonies. bride, who was given away by her uncle, Mr. Robert Buchanan of Barrie, wore a charming gown of swiss em-broidery and orange blossoms, fastened to her veil of Brussels point lace. Her bouquet was a shower of roses and hily of the valley, and she wore a necklace of pearls, the gift of the groom. Miss Margaret Gould attended her sister, wearing a white em-broidered frock and carried a shower of marguerites, her gift from the groom being a gold bracelet, and the best man, Mr. Austin Faed, received gold cuff links. After a reception for immediate friends and relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Cates left later in the afternoon for a western trip, the bride traveling in a blue foulard dress and black hat. On their return they will reside in their new home, 646 Ontario-street.

WALTON-MAFEE.

A wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. McAfee, 347 Manning-

Face, Hair and Hands

ture is carefully studied, and where only Experts in the different branches Manicuring, Hairdressing, Shampooing, Electric and Hand Scalp Massage by Specialist. Skin troubles cured by a course of Massage. Free consultation.

Nowhere else can you receive the same Service, Courtesy and Careful Attention that we give our patrons. Everything New in Hair Goods. Special designs for Hot Weather.

The Dorenwend Co. of Toronto, Limited 103 and 105 Yonge St., Toronto

Send in request for our handsome an-nouncement card for the opening of our new Beauty Culture Parlors. Open-ing in July.

was united in marriage to Mr. John Walters of Toronto, on Wednesday, June 29. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a pretty dress of old rose, trimmed with Dutch lace and a wreath of roses on her head. The bridesmaid, who was Miss Flo Long, was attired in a pretty dress of pink satin. After the wedding breakfast the bride and groom left for was united in marriage to Mr. John breakfast the bride and groom leff for Montreal, where they will spend their

M'NAMARA-STOWELL,

when the rector, Rev. Father Brick, united in marriage Miss Rena J. Stewell of Geneva, New York, to Mr. Jack McNamara. The bride was gowned in silk pailette and carried a shower bouquet of white roses. She was attended by Miss Alice McNamara, who looked charming in white crepe de chene and carrying pink carnations. wearing the groom's gift, a pearl brooch. The groom's gift to the bride was a silver mesh bag and to Mr. James McNamara, the best man, gold cuff links. During the signing of the register a "Dream of Paradise" rendered by Mr. Arthur Leitheuser. reception was afterwards held at the home of the groom's mother, 363 Givens-street. The happy couple left by the 5 o'clock train for a two weeks rip to Muskoka. On their return they will occupy their new home in

CLARKE-MOUNTSTEVEN.

A quiet wedding was solemnized on Wednesday, June 29, at the residence of Mrs. H. Smith, 257 Spadina-avenue, when Miss Jennie Mountsteven and Mr. Ernest Clarke were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by the Rev. J. D. Morrow. The bride, who looked very charming in a navy blue broad cloth traveling gown, was given away by her uncle, Mr. Field. She was attended by Miss Lillian Edwards, who wore a dress of shantung silk. Mr. Arthur Lee acted as best man. bridal party entered the room, which was decorated with palms and ferns, to the strains of the Lohengrin wedding march, which was beautifully rendered by Miss Viola Armbrust. The groom's gift to the bride was a sungroom's gift to the bride was a sun-burst of pearls, to the bridesmaid a borseshoe brooch set with amethysts, set with pearls.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarke left for short honeymoon trip to Hamilton and Brampton and other places. On their return they will reside at 304 Wallaceavenue. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Field, Mr. and Mrs. Smith, Miss Julia and May Clark, sisters of the groom; the Misses Belle Mountsteven, sister of the bride; Laura Armbrust, Lotty and Violet Prim, Mabel and Elleen Pearson, Olive Staunton, Ger rude Smith and Irene Wells.

BRANT HOUSE NOW OPEN

Magnificent Hotel That Has No Superior in Canada For Surroundings and Appointments.

the season at the beach so was the formal opening night of Hotel Brant, one of the most palatial hostelries in the province. Picture a beautiful and com-modious building situated on a high bluff in a neat little park, surrounded verandahs, a perfectly lovely scene was presented. Everybody spoke of the ex-cellent layout of the hotel and the accommodation provided. It seems as if nothing further could be added to make the guests more comfortable.

There is a spacious ball-room, where dances are held nearly every evening, and there is a convention hall and roof garden offering space and convenie for large business and social gather

Even the newest idea in leading American hotels, a ladies' orchestra, has not been overlooked. The entire build-ing has been completely renovated and redecorated from cellar to ceiling. The redecorated from cellar to celling. The spacious exchange is an ideal place to visit, while the drawing-room, cosy corners and private apartments are models of comfort and luxury.

The dining-room is one of the chief attractions of Hotel Brant, being one of the handsomest in Canada, with beam ceiling and polished floor, opening on to verandahs on either side. The cuisine is excellent.

The hotel provides accommodation for upwards of 250 guests. In addition to hundreds of single rooms, there are three-groom suites with beatth.

three-room suites with bath, two rooms and bath and a suite of bed and sitting rooms combined. Every bedroom has a telephone. First-class stables and a garage have been built especially for the accommodation of transient guests, Hotel Brant being a regular half-way haven of rest between Toronto and Niagara Falls or Buffalo.

The hotel is conducted on both the European and American plans, special rates being arranged for the month, season or year. A club breakfast is one of the new features introduced which is bound to prove extremely popular, especially during the summer

In the fall the hotel will be an attractive residence for families wishing to spend the winter in a healthful, convenient locality and special rates will be given.

In connection with the hotel are 25 new and attractive bungalows, containing from five to twelve rooms, equipped with all modern conveniences. oungalows are situated at Indian Point, which is connected by an artistic footbridge with Brant Park.

ready widely and favorably known and the guests are assured of the most courteous treatment and consideration while at Brant House. He will be pleased to answer any enquiries as t commodation.

ELLIS-COCKWELL

A very quiet wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Coak-well, Logan-avenue, last evening, when their daughter, Lottie E., was united in marriage to Mr. Wm. G. Ellis, the Rev. S. W. Dean officiating. The bride, who was given away by her father, was attired in her traveling gown of navy blue broadcloth and carried a shower of white roses and lilles of the valley. Mr. and Mrs. Ellis left for a trip thru the Northern States and on their return will spend the summer at Centre Island, previous to residing in their new house in

DIXON-GILBERT. One of the prettiest weddings of last week was celebrated in Bloor-street Baptist Church, when Miss Greia Naomi Gilbert, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Gilbert, was married to Mr. Ray Dixon. The ceremony, conducted by the Rev. W. A. Cameron, was at 7 o'clock, Mr. Stephenson playing the wedding march, and Miss Homuth singing before and after ceremony, the solos "Because" and "Perfect Love." The church was lovely for the occasion with numbers of and to the best man a crescent, the bride was brought in by her father, and was wearing a charming ivory duchess satin gown with handsome crystal and drop pearl trimming on the bodice. Her veil was held with a coronet af pearis and bunches of orange blossoms at either side of the head, and she carried a bouquet or roses and lilles of the valley. Miss Gertrude Gardener of Hamil ton was bridesmaid, and wore pale pink satin with pearl trimming and large black hat, and carried a bouquet of pale pink roses. Mr. Gordon Gilbert, the bride's brother, was best man, and the ushers were Mr. Mervyn Pentecost and Mr. Fred Franks. The groom's gifts were: To the bride a handsome and completely fitted club bag with ebony and silver monogrammed ilt-tings; to the bridesmald baroche pearl earrings, and to the best man and ushers pearl and topaz tle pins. About 70 guests, including a number from out of town, attended the wedding and the reception following, at the home of the bride's parents in Avenue-road, where Mrs. Gilbert received, wearing ashes of violets charmeuse gown and rose toque, and carrying a bouquet of lilles of the valley. Miss Ruby Gilbert, the bride's sister, wore a lovely opalescent silk gown and carried sweet peas. Roses, marguerites and palms were used here in effective decoration, he dining room, where the bride's table was set, being entirely in green and white. And in an alcove off the hall an orchestra played thruout the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Dixon left after the reception on their wedding. reception on their wedding trip, the bride wearing a pale blue shantung linen suit, long cream coat, and smart satin straw hoat with blue wings, for going away. On their return they will go to the new home in Fern-avenue, Parkdale, which Mr. Dixon has prepared for his bride,

FOR SUMMER SEASON

BURLINGTON, July 1.-The event

bluff in a neat little park, surrounded on three sides by Lake Ontario and Hamilton Bay, nearly every room commanding an unobstructed view of the waters. The panorama is unsurpassed. Wide, picturesque verandahs surround the hotel on every side, and at the opening dinner of the season last night, when the spacious dining-room was filled with visitors, and hundreds of electric lights blazed all along the verandahs, a perfectly lovely scene was

A. B. Coleman, the manager, is al-

AFTERNOON - EVENING Delightrul BATHING THE LAKE

YONGE ST. THEATRE

"JUST ACROSS THE BAY"

POINT

WHERE IT IS COOL

TO-DAY (SUNDAY)

10c (SHEA'S) 10c POP" VAUDEVILLE

FOUR SHOWS DAILY The Great Allini Selmar, Romaine & Co. Freeman & Fiske. Davis & Payne.

Society at Hamilton.

Mr. and Mrs. George F. Glassco, Mr. and Mrs. Sebert Glassco, Mr. and Mrs. John Nesbitt are at the Golden Club. Mrs. P. D. Crerar and family are at their summer home in Muskoka. Mrs. George Rutherford was the hostess of a delightful garden party at her residence, Fernhill.

Mrs. Arthur Ogden Wood, Toronto, was the guest of Miss Nisbet during the races visit to her daughter, Mrs. Harry Led- ence somewhat failed to appreciate yard, in Detroit of Mrs. David Gillies. Miss Cora Hind, commercial editor of The Winnipeg Free Press, who came down to Toronto for the annual meet-

Col. James Robt. and Mrs. Mordie are at their summer home, Huntsville, Muskoka. Mr. and Mrs. James Moodie are summering in Burlington. Lt.-Gov. and Mrs. Gibson and family are at their summer home on Humilton

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Young and Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Murray are in Muskoka. Miss Marjorie Stinson has returned from Cleveland.

Miss Constance Turnbull has returned from the Caledon Club.

Mrs. Charlesworth Meakins and little daughter are visiting Mrs. C. W. and Misses Meakins. Miss Dorothy Wilgriss and Miss Meta Bankier are guests of Mrs. James Oliphant, Thousand Islands.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Lucas leave soon Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Lucas leave soon for the Pacific coast,
Mrs. Andrew Fairgrieve, Scotland,
and Mrs. Kenneth McKenzie, Winnipeg, are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Fairgrieve,

Mrs. Andrew Fairgrieve, Scotland,
and Mrs. Kenneth McKenzie, Winnipeg, are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Fairgrieve, peg, are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Fairgrieve.

MICHIE'S

GI

is that w years equal more across

m. every

But when y

is also t

deserv

tation won.

ich the Finest blend Java and Mocha Coffee at 45c lb. is in a class by itself. It is a breakfast neces-

Michie & Co., Ltd.

Accurately made and fitted. prescriptions filled. Special legicated. Quick repairing. Price W. J. KETTLES, Optician

23 Leader Lane. First Church of Christ Scientist Caer-Howell and Simcoe Street

Service, 11 a.m. only. Evenir service discontinued during Ju and August. Subject for Ju 3: GOD. Testimony meetin Wednesdays, 8 p.m.

The concert given in St. George's Hell last Tuesday evening under the management of Madame K. Chattoe-Morton and the auspices of a New York Bureau for the encouragement of amateur singers, was a decided success. The medal given was beautifully carve ed and inscribed, and was awarded to Mr. George Weir, his fine tenor voice showing to advantage in Al Wilson's song, "Helen," and the encore, "My Sunbeam From the South," his enunclation being very clear and defined. Mr. George Campbell was awarded the scholarship in vocal culture, given by Madame Morton. The rendition of the Scotch ballad, "Mary," was expressive. Mrs. Hendrie has returned from a ly given and well received. The audi-Mr. W. Hunter's efforts in singing that Mrs. Dade, New Ontario, is the guest beautiful ballad, "Killarney," but nevertheless the rich, ringing voice of Mr. Hunter was suited to the song. It of The Winnipeg Free Press, who came down to Toronto for the annual meeting of the Canadian Women's Press Club, spent Wednesday in Hamilton.

Mrs. Charles P. McColm, Muscatine, Icwa, is making an extended visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Davis, at Brant Park.

Mrs. Thomas Coleman, Kit; Mrs. (Dr.) Leeming-Carr, and Miss Nisbet went to Toronto for the annual meeting of the Canadian Women's Press Club.

Mr. Munter was suited to the song. It was the first public appearance as singers of several of the contestants, which as a matter of course, gives cause for a little nervousness; this, however, was partly overcome as the audience gave them every encouragement. The Misses T. McMullin, Scott, Hubbard, Chapman and Miss Violet Scott sang well, and the dancing of Misses Norma Scott and Myrtle McCoskery in the Bridal Chorus," in Lohengrin, was given with graceful step and precision in the song. It was the first public appearance as singers of several of the contestants, which as a matter of course, gives cause for a little nervousness; this, however, was partly overcome as the audience gave them every encouragement. The Misses T. McMullin, Scott, Hubbard, Chapman and Miss Violet Scott sang well, and the dancing of Misses Norma Scott and Myrtle McCoskery in the Bridal Chorus," in Lohengrin, was given with graceful step and precision in the song than the step of the contestants, which as a matter of course, gives cause for a little nervousness; this, however, was partly overcome as the sudience gave them every encouragement. The Misses T. McMullin, Scott, Hubbard, Chapman and Miss Violet Scott sang well, and the dancing of Misses Norma Scott and Myrtle McCoskery in the standard of the contestants, which as a matter of course, gives cause for a little nervousness; this, however, was partly overcome as the sudience gave them every encouragement. The Misses T. McMullin, Scott, Hubbard, Chapman and Miss Violet Scott sang well, and the dancing of Misses Norma and Misses Norma and Misses Norma and Misses Norma and Misses given with graceful step and precis in time. Mr. E. Hall, Mr. Percy Campbell and Master Earl Russell completed a, very good program. Miss Olive Fox, accompanist, was at her best and her performance marks her as an accompanist of no mean merit.

Madame K. Chattoe-Morton's success on this occasion for the encouragement of amateur singers has influenced her "to give annually gold and silver medals, also scholarships.

TOBACCO HABIT

Dr. McTaggart's tobacco remedy removes all desire for the weed in a few days. A vegetable medicine, and only requires touching the tongue with it eccasionally. Price $2.00. LIQUOR HABIT sound to iriend Ask for it your hone

hat you