

FACULTY OF THEOLOGY.

Matriculation Examinations and Competitions for Scholarships begin on Friday, 8th November.

The Curriculum extends over three Sessions, and in each the Classes in Divinity, Hebrew, Church History, and Biblical Criticism must be attended by all Students having in view the Ministry of the Presbyterian Church of Canada in connection with the Church of Scotland.

SUBJECTS OF STUDY.

A.—DIVINITY.

The subjects of lecture for Session 1867-8 are Systematic Theology and Homiletics, with prelections and examinations on Hill's Lectures on Divinity, Book IV.; Butler's Analogy, Part II.; Paley's Evidences, Part II.; Greek Testament for Doctrinal Exegesis, John v.; and the Standards of the Church of Scotland.

During the Curriculum Students are examined on the whole of Hill's Lectures, Butler's Analogy, and Paley's Evidences.

During part of each Session the Students, in turn, open the class with devotional exercises. Third year Students are formed into a Committee for Missionary work on Sabbath. The Convener reports arrangements weekly, and the Professors may intimate their intention to be present and take part of the duty. This work is optional to Students of the first and second year. On Friday afternoon, during part of the Session, the hour is devoted to exercises in pulpit elocution.
