The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

"B E noble, and the nobleness that lies in other men, sleeping but never dead, shall rise in majesty to meet mine own."

I heard two newspaper men talking about their experiences in the profession the other day.

One said: "The more I see of men the more I like dogs. The set of half-baked, cranky, hypocritical, overbearing men and women I've met since I've been in this business makes me ashamed of being human. I've a good mind to go on a long ocean voyage, and see if I can't get shipwrecked on a desert island."

The other said: "I guess you've had bad luck. I didn't know there were so many obliging, well educated, interesting people in the world as I've met since I took to newspaper work."

Now I disagree with what the second man said on one point. I don't think the first man had bad luck at all.

I have an idea he simply got exactly what he expected, exactly what his own mental attitude called forth, very much what he gave.

I don't believe most of us realize to what a large extent we get what we expect of the world.

"Courtesy begets courtesy," says someone. "The early man finds a world of disagreeable, disliking people; how good everyone in the world is," rejoices the kindly soul.

And yet it's the very same world.

And that isn't true of courtesy alone, by any means. Suspicion begets dishonesty, trust begets honor, ill temper and impatience beget ill temper and impatience, hypocrisy begets hypocrisy, and an overbearing disposition begets the desire to overbear, and so on down the infinite line of vices and virtues.

When Judge Lindsey has to send one of the boys whom he tries in his famous juvenile court to jail, he gives the boy the money necessary for fares and sends him absolutely alone and unwatched to the prison. Sometimes the boy has had to travel many miles to his destination, and yet had though this too is, I believe it is in but three cases in over one hundred that the judge's attitude of trust has failed to result in the boy an answer of trustworthiness that carried him straight to his prison cell.

Albert Hubbard writes, in description of his wife: "Her mental attitude brings out the best in each, so in her presence the boor becomes gentle, and the loud and coarse moderate their voices and are on their good behavior. She carries with her an aura in which vulgarity cannot thrive nor pretence flourish."

I think this is one of the highest compliments a man or woman could receive.

Are you a cynic? Do you find most of the world deceitful and self seeking? If you do, suppose, instead of being proud of your cynicism, you remind yourself that the world the mirror of life shows you, is only a more or less accurate reflection of the little world within you.

For: "Life, like a mirror, both but show"

The moving shows that pass in view; Give to the world the best you have—

The world's best will give to you."

HE SANG AT THE

WELCOME TO LATE KING

WHEN IN ST. JOHN

St. John, N. B., May 14, 1910

Good night sweet Prince, And flights of Angels sing thee to thy Rest!

It is but natural and right that reminiscences of the notable visit of our late King Edward VII to St. John, "the City of the Loyals," should be of interest and value to all our citizens, but particularly to those still living who participated in the festivities connected with the royal welcome fifty years ago, to who has been just summoned the trust to the court of the Kings of Kings, and who was then Prince of Wales.

I recall to mind the great enthusiasm displayed on the occasion, and the special feeling that I have never seen it equalled since. I certainly have never been so impressed, and I have special pleasure in recalling the fact of my taking part as a lad of ten years old, connected with St. John's Sunday School, in the presentation of the Intercolonial Railway of St. John, Portland and Carleton, on the Judge Chipman grounds. Two conspicuous figures in our school group were our revered rector, Parson Robert Middlemore, and worthy church clerk, Robert Middlemore.

Such cheering and hurraing and such a bombardment of flowers whirled at the gate, and walked up the avenue leading to the Chipman grounds. How happy and proud we felt, and how lovely we looked, as smiling and bowing we passed through our joyous and well ordered ranks, and how lately we sang our ode of welcome. This really being the "National Anthem," "God Save the Queen," with one or two verses subjoined for the special honor of our royal guest, our queen's son.

I cannot at the moment recall all of these verses, but I remember these words: "Hail Prince of Brunswick's line, 'New Brunswick shall be thine; 'Still loyal true and brave, 'Here Britain's flag shall wave, 'And Britons pray to save 'A nation's heir."

The latter line was in evidence everywhere throughout the city and suburbs, on flags and banners and above the houses and shop windows and most notably on arches, in connection with that famous talisman and emblem of victory, won by our Prince of Wales' predecessor, the renowned Black Prince at the battle of Crecy, the crest of three black plumes with the exqu岸ite appropriate and characteristic motto: "Ich Dien" (I Serve).

Fifty years have passed away since that day, doubtless but a small proportion of the merry spirited Sunday school scholars and their teachers could now be reunited here. Many "have gone before," across the Bar! "Some are scattered all over the world."

TALK OF THE TOWN

Nearly Every One in Albion Mich., Praises Mi-o-na the Money Back Cure for Indigestion

Albion Mich.—The people in Albion are related to an unusual extent because of the many and remarkable cures which have lately been made by Mi-o-na, a dyspepsia cure with a world-wide reputation. Everybody is endorsing Mi-o-na. Here is what some respected citizens say: "Mi-o-na cured me of a stomach trouble that had bothered me for years. I had used all kinds of medicine, but nothing helped. I used Mi-o-na and since using it three years ago I have been free from the distress."

Mrs. Emma Overly says: "For months I had dyspepsia, but nothing helped. I used Mi-o-na and since using it three years ago I have been free from the distress."

Mrs. E. A. Watson says: "I used Mi-o-na for months and it cured me of my dyspepsia. I had used all kinds of medicine, but nothing helped. I used Mi-o-na and since using it three years ago I have been free from the distress."

ACTS DIRECTLY

ON THE LIVER

Biliousness and Headaches Quickly Cured by DR. A. W. CHASE'S KIDNEY AND LIVER PILLS.

When you feel irritable, cranky and downhearted, you can usually blame the liver, for there is no organ in the human body which so quickly throws the system out of sorts as a torpid, sluggish liver.

If you don't feel to be in the blue long, you know about Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney and Liver Pills. They are direct and sure, and they are the only pills that will cure you of all liver troubles.

One of the principal signs of liver trouble is a special kind of headache, called a "liver headache," which is usually accompanied by a feeling of fullness and a depressed feeling over the whole system.

Vigor, strength and good nature will return when the liver is set right by Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney and Liver Pills. One pill a dose, 25 cts. a box, all dealers, Edmonson, Bess &amp; Co., Toronto. Write for free copy of Dr. Chase's Recipes.

Vigor, like the memorable words of the great Apostle Saint Paul, are the dying words of our likable brother, Christian, King Edward VII. "I think I have done my duty!" He can have no more fitting epitaph in addition to his well earned title of "Peacemaker."

In conclusion, may we say in Tennyson's most beautiful words: "Christ Present him, 'God Receive him." "And so mote it be."

PIPE GAS FROM

ALBERT TO CITY

Then we have the St. John and Kennebec rivers, affording unexcelled opportunity for pleasure excursions, amid beautiful scenery; also we have many lakes, at short distances from the city, which are easily reached by good roads for driving, or automobile.

Siderails

St. John has nearly 100 miles of wide, roomy, well-kept, asphalt siderails, which are far ahead of some to be found in more pretentious cities of Canada, and in the United States. Has an alert and efficient police department, excelled by few cities of its size. Has a never-failing and abundant supply of good, clear, cold water for all purposes. Has a large number of first class, wholesale and retail stores, in all lines, supplying everything at reasonable prices.

The country in the immediate vicinity produces abundantly the most vegetables and small fruits, which, with eggs, poultry, good milk, and the best quality of butter obtainable anywhere, are brought to the city every day, fresh, which makes living cheap; these, and other features, ought to make St. John one of the best summer resorts in Canada, if not on the American continent, and I think the city ought to be advertised more as a summer resort, than as a winter port.

In regard to Manufacturing

There is a lot of room for factories, but the first item to be considered, is the cost of power. We have, in the Reversing Falls, a source of power, which could be transmitted to any part of the city. When fully satisfied of the feasibility of the plan, the city could go ahead and put in the plant, and own, and sell the power to factories, and to furnish light for the city.

Again, the natural gas supply in Albert county, which we hear so much about; if it can be had in sufficient quantity, a company might be formed to control it, and pipe it to St. John; this would be another source of cheap power, light and heat, and ought by all means, be secured, as it would induce many industries to come here, and would be a great asset to the city.

If we had the natural gas, we could easily get a plant here for manufacturing of stamped canned ware, which would employ 1,500 to 2,000 hands; their wages would find ready sale in Canada and Europe, at a large profit. I don't think there is one in the business in Canada.

Investment

Now that we are assured of St. John being made the terminal point for the G. T. P. Canadian Northern, and Valley Railways, there is a certainty that a much larger city will have to be built in the near future. I predict that you will see built, on the north, and east of Courtney Bay, inside of ten years, a city of 20,000 to 30,000 population, and the buildings will be of better construction and of better architectural design than the present St. John. This addition to the city will be necessary to accommodate the increase of population, which is sure to follow the building of the railways, and the other improvements now assured, and I feel confident that an investment in real estate in that direction is certain to prove highly remunerative, and will also increase the value of real estate in other parts of the city.

There is another opportunity for a paying investment, and one which would add greatly to the prestige of the city, and which has long been needed; it is the building of a large first-class modern hotel. Canada and Europe, at a large profit. I don't think there is one in the business in Canada.
