A military drill by 16 members of the Nonconformist Lodge will be one of the features of the session. Those participating will wear white silk and satin dresses with green satin capes. Mrs. Waldo Stevens will be the pianist for the exercises.

The ladies composing the drill team are: Mrs. Edward Abel, president; Mesdames F. R. McKim, Roland Clarke, R. Sharpe, P. Campbell, A. R. Bishop, E. Ayres, C. Chisholm, C. G.

Social Notes of Interest

The premier event of the early spring social season was the official opening of the Riverside Golf and Country Club yesterday afternoon when members gathered at the Club house for luncheon and tea and in many cases entered for the mixed foursomes which were scheduled as the afternoon event on the links. The cosy aspect of the cherry log fire and attractive arrangements of the Club house tempted many of those present to enjoy the surrounding scene from the glassed-in verandah overlooking the blue waters of the Kennebec and the towering hills beyond. The tea table was centred with yellow spring flowers and wild cherry and was presided over by Mrs. Sherwood Skinner and Mrs. Hugh Mackay. The winners of the foursomes were, Miss Mary Hazard, of Charlottetown, and Mr. S. Allan Thomas. The prize was golf balls. Three other pairs tied for second place and they also received golf balls for prizes. Those in second place were Mrs. Philip Nase and Mr. Hugh Mackay; Mrs. W. L. Caldwell and Mrs. John E. Sayre and Miss Hortense Maher and Mrs. Percival Streeter. Among the many present were Col. and Mrs. W. B. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Prink, Mr. and Mrs. Simon A. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. H. Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hooper, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Sayre, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Mackay, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Miss Zela Morton was the hostess at a small but none the less enjoyable bridge at her residence in Renfrew on Monday evening in honor of Miss Jessie Armstrong, of Ottawa, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. Robert W. Hawker, Summer street.

Miss Mary Hazard who has spent the winter months in Bermuda is spending a few days in the city, the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Philip Nase, German street, en route to her home in Charlottetown.

Miss Bessie Foster who has been residing in California expects to leave on Monday for Saint John to visit her brother, Mr. Frederick A. Foster, and Mrs. Foster, Mount Pleasant, for the summer months.

Mrs. Horace A. Porter left this week for a short visit in New York and will join Mr. Porter on his return from Philadelphia to Saint John.

Mrs. Frank R. Fairweather has gone to New York for a brief visit and will later attend the closing exercises of the Bishop Strachan school in Toronto, where her daughter, Miss Lola Fairweather, is one of the graduating class.

At the much enjoyed recital by the pupils of Miss Maudie Hamilton in the Y. W. C. A. hall on Tuesday night two lovely bouquets were presented to Miss Hamilton, one by Miss Hilda Burnside and the other by Miss Annie Freedman. The collection taken at the recitals on Monday and Tuesday evenings amounted to $22.77 and was given to the Y. W. C. A. as a contribution to the funds of the Association.

Mrs. W. Dennis of Halifax, N. S., is in Ottawa attending the annual meeting of the Victorian Order of Nurses.

Women's Allure

no longer imperiled under hygienic handicaps—new way offers true protection; discards like tissue

FRESH, charming, immaculate under ALL conditions. Shier gown worn without a second's fear, any time, any day!

If you seek this added charm, stop employing old-time "sanitary pads," insecure, uncertain.

Eight in 10 better-class women now employ "KOTEX" . . . a new way, 5 times as absorbent as ordinary cotton pads.

Absorbs and deodorizes at the same time, thus ending ALL danger of offending.

You discard it as easily as a piece of tissue. No laundry. No embarrassment.

You ask for it without hesitancy, at any drug or department store, simply by saying "KOTEX."

In fairness to yourself, try this amazing way. Costs only a few cents. Comes twelve in a package.

St. Paul's Company Of Girl Guides In Enjoyable Tea

Schoolroom of Church Scene of Nice Affair—Those in Charge

No. 5 St. Paul's Company of Girl Guides, under the direction of Captain Miss Irene Barber, gave an enjoyable afternoon tea in the schoolroom of the church on Wednesday. The proceeds are to be devoted to the camp and uniform fund of the company, and the organ fund of the church. Miss Barber was the general convenor. The artistically arranged tea table had in the centre a silver basket of American Beauty roses, and the many small tables were each centred with a bud vase containing a single red rose. Mrs. A. H. Crowfoot and Mrs. Frederick A. Foster presided over the tea cups and were assisted by several of the Girl Guides in looking after the patrons. Guides Shuna Gilchrist and Edith Wilson replenished. Assisting in other capacities were Mrs. L. Myers, Miss Bessie DeVoe, Miss Ruth Starr, Miss Winifred Woodley, Patrol Leader Ruth Anna Foster, and second, Elaine Cunningham. A home cooking table was in charge of Patrol Leaders Woodley and Dorothy Brown, and second, Viola Leonard and Jessie Edwards. The candy table was looked after by Guide Frances Foster, assisted by the Brownies. During the afternoon six of the St. Paul's Brownies delighted those present by repeating their performance of the dance, Ruffy Tuffy, which had been a very popular number at their concert held in the school room last week. Those taking part in the dance were Joyce Foster, Constance Schofield, Ruth Likely, Eleanor Utting, Lida Lawson and Pearl Chittick. The piano accompaniment for the dance was played by Miss Bessie DeVoe.

Pupils Unite For Splendid Recital

Scholars of Miss Styles and Miss Johnston Heard in Program

Before a large and appreciative audience the piano pupils of Miss Gladys E. Styles and the oratory pupils of Miss Marjorie Johnston united in giving a recital in the schoolroom of the Exmouth street United Church on Wednesday afternoon.

The program was well chosen to show the versatility of the performers and the hearty applause and favorable comments testified to the talent and aptitude of the pupils as well as to the high esteem in which the young teachers are held.

Both Miss Styles and Miss Johnston are graduates of Mt. Allison and their Alma Mater may well be proud of them.

Miss Styles, on behalf of Miss Johnston and herself, extended a hearty welcome to the visitors. The following constituted the program:

THE SLICKEST, smoothest, easiest riding wheel I've ever ridden. Dad says he rode a Cleveland Wheel when he was a boy—he rides a Cleveland Wheel now. And he said, "Eric, my boy, the Cleveland was the best wheel when I went to school—it's a whole lot better now. It's the best wheel today, Eric; that's why I got you a Cleveland. I've tried it, I know."

HEALTH and HAPPINESS IN THIS GINGER ALE

The tingling, fruity, gingery taste in Evangeline Ginger Ale took 37 years to create. It took the highest priced fruit juices obtainable. But it has swept the country with a popularity that has carried Evangeline thirst soothers from Halifax to Vancouver.

A Maritime Industry that has made good everywhere for sheer honest quality. Now it is known as the champagne of Ginger Ales.

A Vitamine Drink

There's a power of health as well as pleasure in Evangeline Ginger Ale. So full of vitamins and digestion aids that many hospitals serve it daily on doctors' orders. Bottled with the purest water in all the world, from a crystal clear mountain spring and then distilled for good measure.

It peeps up parties so beautifully that bridge lovers keep a case always on ice for sudden guests. You save half a dollar having it delivered by the case—the handiest way. The better grocers sell this mellow, sparkling champagne of Ginger Ales. Order today—
