MISSING BOY.

The chief of police has received information from the chief of police at Syracuse, N. Y., regarding a fifteen-year-old boy, Nathaniel Menichelli, alias "Nolie," who left his home in Syracuse on April 26 to sell morning papers and has not been heard of since. It is thought the lad may have come to this part of the country, and a description is given, as his parents are very anxious to locate him. He is an Italian, about five feet tall, one-half inch in height, with brown eyes and medium complexion. He wore a dark blue cap, blue coat and red sweater. FOR BETTER RAILWAY SERVICE.

A movement has been on foot amongst the business men of northwestern New Brunswick for increased passenger service on the C. P. R. that would enable them to make a trip to St. John and return home in less than three days. The co-operation of the city was requested, and Mayor Schofield wired P. N. Stevens of Hartland, who was handling the matter, endorsing the application of the people of that section for increased service. The mayor this week received a letter from Mr. Stevens, saying that he and his colleagues had a very satisfactory interview with J. M. Woodman and other officials of the railway, and after June 20 he expected that the people of the upper St. John valley would be able to make the trip to St. John in one day.

IN PARLIAMENT.

Ottawa, Ont., May 11.—(Canadian Press)—Yesterday in the commons third reading was given a bill amending the bankruptcy act. Island drew attention to the delay in appointing a judge to the supreme court in that province. Bill amending the Canadian Shipping Act passed in committee.

JAMES COOK DEAD; 102 YEARS OLD

St. John Man Leaves Many Descendants to the Fourth Generation.

James Cook, probably the oldest resident of this city, died last night, aged 102 years, at the residence of his grandson in West St. John. Mr. Cook was a life-long resident of St. John, and leaves a long line of descendants to the fourth generation. Although past the century mark, he was wonderfully active, and kept in touch with present events. Until quite recently he might often have been seen walking about the streets, and although bent with age, he nevertheless carried his years well. He had a remarkable fund of stories about the olden times and remembered incidents which happened in this city in the early forties. He was one of the old-time teamsters and hauled the first tea for the railroad. During the cholera epidemic he was one of the teamsters who carried the patients to Fort Howe, and he used to haul the railroad navies from the American boat to Hampton. Eighty years ago his horse and team were parked at Market slip, and although numerous horses took the place of his first faithful animal, and a steamer replaced his first old-fashioned wagon, he continued as teamster until very recent years.

He passed away peacefully about 7:40 o'clock last night, following a weak turn, which arose to a close eventful life that had witnessed great changes and had seen his city grow from a small town to a large city. It will be remembered that Mr. Cook caused a sensation last November when he was reported missing from his home. He had been in the habit of taking a constitutional out this day he did not return, and a search was instituted by his relatives. He was eventually found at the residence of his grandson in West St. John, and was quite surprised when he learned of the anxiety he had caused by his absence.

He leaves to mourn four sons—George of Boston, James and Joseph of this city, and John who went overseas during the war and whose whereabouts are not known. He also leaves one sister, Mrs. Minnie DeWolfe of this city, besides fourteen grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren. The funeral will be held tomorrow from the residence of his son, James Cook, 28 Delhi street.

INDUSTRIAL LEAGUE'S PLANS

Four Baseball Teams Represented and Others Apply.

The Industrial Baseball League was reorganized last evening at a meeting held in the office of the Nashuaak Pulp & Paper Company, Pleasant Point. Representatives from McAvity & Sons, Stetson, Cutler & Company, T. S. Simms and the Nashuaak Pulp & Paper Company were present. Applications were received asking for admittance into the league, but action was deferred until the next meeting. The games will be played on the Nashuaak diamond, and it is expected that the opening game will be on May 24. Considerable improvements are being made to the diamond, and plans have been completed for the erection of bleacher seats, a scorer's box and dressing rooms for the teams. Considerable interest is being manifested in the league and a successful season is anticipated.

COBURG STREET CHURCH ANNUAL

Successful Year Reported—Rev. Mr. Appleman Invited for Another Term.

Encouraging reports of progress made during the last year were presented last evening at the annual meeting of the Coburg street Christian church. In a word, the year just ended was one of the most successful in the history of the church. Among the reports presented were those of the minister, the secretary, the treasurer, the Sunday school, the sewing circle, the missionary society and the Society of Tens. The financial report showed more than $4,500 had been received during the year. Forty-six names had been added to the membership roll and six taken off, leaving a net gain of forty members. Of the six lost to the church two had been removed by death and four moved away. A cordial invitation was extended the Rev. F. J. M. Appleman to remain for another term. The board of trustees of the church was elected as follows: O. E. Emery, F. R. Barbour, R. J. Currie, W. J. Hawkins, W. Munford, T. G. Boyne, W. T. Dunlap, L. H. Outbourn, J. S. Flagg, Herbert Edwards, Fred Leonard and J. Prince. W. J. Hawkins occupied the chair.

WAS NOT DRAWING PAY FOR DOING NOTHING

The Standard said editorially on Monday: "The resignation of Miss Hipwell of the office of receiver of revenue is announced, as also is the appointment of A. B. Belyea to succeed her. The position carries a salary of $1,500 a year, and for several months during Miss Hipwell's absence in 1919 the duties were most satisfactorily performed by Miss Flett at a salary of $600 a year. Of the several positions in the provincial civil service which may be classed as more ornamental than useful that of receiver of revenue is first and foremost. It is an absolutely and entirely unnecessary office."

The Standard is in error in this matter, as Miss Hipwell's position during her absence in 1919 was filled by Mr. Belyea, who has now been recommended for permanent appointment. Miss Hipwell was in the public service for twelve years, performed her duties to the satisfaction of all governments, and resigned because she had decided to live with her brother in the west. The office was never a sinecure, nor is it now.

OAK HALL - Scovill Bros. Ltd. KING STREET

Those About To Start A Home Will Find Real Value Here

If for any reason you feel that you ought to make your money reach to its utmost buying power, come to this store and look at the furniture and the prices.

Young married people should consider that real enduring economy lies in the quality of the goods they buy, more than in merely paying out a few less dollars for inferior goods.

One of the reasons for the unusual growth of this business lies in the fact that the public has learned that for Everett furniture they pay no more than a fair price, and they get goods that will last through generations; while to pay less, they get less in looks, style, finish and in durability—very much less, as time will soon tell.
