A Satisfactory Purchase

What a satisfaction there is in buying diamonds of a reputable concern that deals only in quality merchandise and whose guarantee and advice may be depended upon absolutely.

Diamonds that enhance in value as the years roll by must be of the highest grade, perfectly cut—and rightly bought. Stones of ordinary quality are not rare and will not attain any great value at any time.

Invest in diamonds now. Let us show you some gems that will prove a wise purchase, and demonstrate new ways of mounting that will materially enhance their attractiveness.

RECENT DEATHS

Moncton, July 6.—The death of William T. Henderson, a well-known merchant of this city, occurred very suddenly last night at 11.45 at his home. Mr. Henderson had been in his shop on East Main street, until 10 o'clock in the evening and was thought to be in perfect health. Heart trouble caused his sudden demise. The late Mr. Henderson was born in February, 1859. He was a brother of the late James W. Henderson, whose death occurred only two weeks or so ago.

ST. GEORGE MAN MISSING.
The unaccountable disappearance of Edgar McGirr from his work in the pulp mill at St. George yesterday morning is causing a great deal of anxiety in St. George. The young man was working all night and at about 5 o'clock in the morning he ate his lunch and asked one of the other workmen to look after his duties for a few minutes and went out. When he did not return in a reasonable time the workmen began to get uneasy. The woods were searched and the river dragged and dynamite used but with no effect. A diver is expected today to search the bottom of the channel beneath the falls. The young man was the eighteen-year-old son of J. E. McGirr and was very popular in St. George.

PROGRESS IN INDIA.

(World Outlook.)
When a Brahmin will violate the laws of caste to the extent of going into the fields and putting his hands to a plow it means that a great light must have dawned in his consciousness. And that is what has happened in India. Returned Brahmin soldiers who, at the front, became inoculated with western ideas, are beginning to release liberalizing influences. At Madras, India, one hundred and fifteen Brahmins held a mass meeting where several fervid addresses were made on the agricultural needs of the country. The dignity of farming as a calling was emphasized. After the addresses the meeting by unanimous decision adjourned to the field, and there the high and mighty Brahmins, for whom plowing had become taboo, took hold of plow handles and had their first practical lessons in agriculture.

The Latest Lingerie Blouses Are Organdy Trimmed
Choose One Tomorrow at $2.98 or $3.50

Seven Styles Illustrated

We have just received from our factory a shipment of the newest and smartest Blouses for summer wear. They are made of fine Voile, smartly trimmed with touches of organdy, in the most becoming shades of sky, coral, mauve, pink and apricot. You will want one or two of these Blouses—they are so attractive and cool.

At $2.98

There are delightfully simple models in four different styles—a very smart Blouse is one with a square neck, slip-over style, daintily tucked in front and finished with a plain fold of coral organdy around neck and sleeves. Others have vest effects in front, trimmed with tucks, hemstitching and ruffles, with collars and cuffs of mauve, sky, pink and apricot. They have the invisible side-front opening, both square and V necks and short sleeves.

There is nothing daintier or more summer-like than these Voile Blouses. Every Blouse is a real bargain at the price we are asking. We would advise an early visit to our store. We carry all sizes.

At $3.50

One model has a bib-like collar of sky-blue organdy, edged with a picot ruffle. The opening is in the back. The sleeves are short and finished with ruffles of blue organdy. Another very dainty Blouse has collar and cuffs of a delicate shade of pink organdy, picot edged ruffle—with the same material forming stripes both in front and back and around sleeves. Of a more matronly style is a model with a vest effect in front, prettily trimmed with small ruffles of mauve across the vest and finishing the collar and cuffs. Hemstitching is used most effectively on all these Blouses.
