

NEW CHARGE ON ENTERING U. S.

Prospective Residents Must Have $10 Visa, Besides Head Tax.

New United States immigration regulations will go into effect on July 1, and after that date Canadians, as well as immigrants from European countries, will have to secure a consular visa in order to obtain a U. S. immigration certificate. They will have to pay $10 for this visa for each person thus entering the United States and also pay the customary head tax of $8 for each adult. The visa charge will apply to man, woman and child. Bona fide tourists will not have to secure this visa, but the U. S. immigration authorities will keep a strict watch to see that only tourists secure this exemption.

Details of Regulations.

The new regulations make it necessary for every Canadian going to the United States intending to take up residence or to remain for a considerable period of time, to obtain from the American consul nearest to his or her place of residence a consular immigration visa. This visa will be issued on payment of $10 for each person in the party if the immigration law's requirements as to fitness are met. The consul will require two attested copies of the birth certificate of each person and two photographs of each person and these will be left at the consulate. Having obtained the consular visa the would-be resident of the United States must next undergo an exactly similar examination before the immigration authorities and, if passed by them, must make the $8 head tax contribution to the finances of the United States, the head tax being chargeable only for adults.

May Reduce Emigration.

The manager of the local immigration office predicted the result of the new regulations would undoubtedly be to prevent numbers of Canadians from making their homes in the United States. Where there are large families and means are small the payment of $10 for each child will be an effective hindrance to removing across the border. With regard to the tourist classes the local manager said that the records showed that the great majority of those who had gone to the United States from Canada in the last six years, saying they were only tourists, had remained for more than six months. While tourists would not be required to have the consular visa, and bona fide tourists need have no concern about the new law, every precaution would be taken to see that those who were not bona fide tourists did not get across the border under false pretences. Tourists must obtain the immigration visa and pay the $8 head tax, which was returnable.

After Many Years.

"Well, well, Tom, we haven't met for twenty years. If you remember, at our last meeting we discussed half a young turkey. Let's try the same dish tonight." They gave the order and the waiter used it. The old chum wielded a knife vigorously for a time and then broke the silence. "Jim," asked he, "do you know what I think?" "No." "I think this is the other half of that turkey."

A Swiss scientist announces that the average man of 50 has had 27 yards of finger-nails in his lifetime.

The Navajo Indians keep alive the history of their past achievements by weaving pictures into their rugs.

A Severe Attack Of Heart Trouble Was Relieved by MILBURN'S Heart and Nerve Pills

Mr. S. E. Barnes, Athens, Ont., writes:—"Four years ago I had a very severe attack of heart trouble. I consulted my doctor; he treated me for some time, but I only seemed to be getting worse. I finally went to our druggist and purchased three boxes of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and derived immediate relief from their use, and I can truthfully say they are a wonderful medicine. I always keep a box on hand, and if I feel out of sorts I take a few pills and feel all right again."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 60c. a box at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Some Averages

Maurice Archdeacon of the Chicago White Sox is now leading the field in the race for the individual batting championship of the American League. The feet-footed outfielder has an average of .373, which is three points higher than that of Jameson, of the Indians, who is in second place. Babe Ruth is third among the regulars with .363. McNulty of the Indians is fourth with .360 and Harry Heilmann of the Tigers, last year's champion, is fifth with .358. Leaders in other phases of play follow:

Most runs scored—Ruth, New York, 48.
Most hits made—Cobb, Detroit, 85.
Most two-base hits—Cobb and Heilmann, Detroit, 22 each.
Most three-base hits—Slater, St. Louis, 6.
Most home runs—Ruth, New York, 16.
Most stolen bases—Collins, Chicago, 11.

Leading pitcher—Johnson, Washington, 8 victories, 3 defeats, 727.
The following averages include games played on Thursday, June 19:

In the race for the batting championship of the National League, Rogers Hornsby continues to set the pace for his rivals. The Cardinals' star batsman now has an average of .383. Zack Wheat of the Robins is in second place among the regular batters with a mark of .378. Frank Snyder of the Giants is third with .376. George Kelly, also of the Giants, is fourth with .376 and Jacques Fournier of the Robins is fifth with .364. Leaders in other phases of play follow:

Most runs scored—Frisch, New York, 47.
Most hits made—Hornsby, St. Louis, 81.
Most two-base hits—Kelly, New York, 19.
Most three-base hits—Maranville and Barnhart, Pittsburgh, 9 each.
Most home runs—Fournier, Brooklyn, 13.
Most stolen bases—Grantham, Chicago, 13.

Leading pitcher—Vance, Brooklyn, 10 victories, 2 defeats, 888.
The averages include games played on Thursday, June 19.

A Little Surprise.
(Indiana Exchange.)

Fred Hilton bought an auto and promised to return home early in the afternoon and teach his wife how to drive. Thinking to surprise her husband, Mrs. Hilton took the car out alone and did well until she backed into a tree, smashing the top and the rear fender. Returning home she forgot the keys and ran into another tree, this time smashing the lamps and the radiator. The machine was hauled to a garage for repairs. She surprised her husband all right.

How It's Done.
(Buffalo Express.)

"Do you," the telephone company inquires, "observe the golden rule of party line usage?" "Absolutely. If the other party's talking, we jiggle the receiver hook and make wise cracks until he gets discouraged and quits."

IS RETURNING IN PENITENT MOOD

Transjordania Sees Error of Its Way—British Representative Takes Hold.

Amman, Transjordania, May 20.—(Associated Press by mail.)—Left by the British Government for the last three years to set its house in order, Transjordania is again becoming virtually a part of Palestine, financially and administratively dependent on the Palestine Government. It is returning in a penitent mood because its independence with the Emir Abdullah, son of King Hussein of the Hedjaz, as ruler, by the grace of the British, proved to be too wasteful and costly. The cost of Transjordania's independence came to be in inverse proportion to the size of the British subsidy, which was self-determination than its claim to British gold.

To help it on its way to autonomy the British have been giving Transjordan for the last three years a grant of aid amounting to about $500,000 a year. The grant was conditioned on Emir Abdullah's early introduction of order in general, but especially into the system of taxation. Another condition was that the expenditure of the money should be supervised, not by Abdullah, but by Rida Pasha Al Rikabi, then prime minister. A further, though tacit condition, was that whatever was to be done in Transjordan should be done under the watchful eyes of a British representative, known as an adviser.

Abdullah, who seemed to like his prime minister's vigilance even less than the general supervision of the British adviser, succeeded after two years in dismissing Rikabi. The latter was known to have interfered too freely in Abdullah's expenditure on the civil and military lists, reported to amount to two-thirds of the entire British subsidy. With Rikabi's departure, however, the British subsidy became small and irregular. After an absence of about 12 months, Rikabi was invited to return to his post at Amman, the invitation, it is said, being extended by the British authorities. Whether it was done with or without Abdullah's consent is not known. Rikabi resumed his duties early in May. He began by abolishing the ministries constituting inspectors for the various departments, and by calling himself chief inspector instead of prime minister. He is showing signs of an intention to institute a thorough house-cleaning.

These changes followed in rapid succession the advent of Colonel Cox, formerly governor of Nabulus, Palestine, as British adviser. Whether the changes are of Colonel Cox's making or directed by Sir Herbert Samuel, from Jerusalem, who in turn receives his instructions from the colonial office, it is difficult to tell at this distance. What appears to be clear is that the territory east of the Jordan, which under the Turks formed one small district of Palestine, is returning to its former state as part of the Holy Land west of the Jordan.

How It's Done.
(Buffalo Express.)

"Do you," the telephone company inquires, "observe the golden rule of party line usage?" "Absolutely. If the other party's talking, we jiggle the receiver hook and make wise cracks until he gets discouraged and quits."

How It's Done.
(Buffalo Express.)

"Do you," the telephone company inquires, "observe the golden rule of party line usage?" "Absolutely. If the other party's talking, we jiggle the receiver hook and make wise cracks until he gets discouraged and quits."

How It's Done.
(Buffalo Express.)

"Do you," the telephone company inquires, "observe the golden rule of party line usage?" "Absolutely. If the other party's talking, we jiggle the receiver hook and make wise cracks until he gets discouraged and quits."

How It's Done.
(Buffalo Express.)

"Do you," the telephone company inquires, "observe the golden rule of party line usage?" "Absolutely. If the other party's talking, we jiggle the receiver hook and make wise cracks until he gets discouraged and quits."

How It's Done.
(Buffalo Express.)

"Do you," the telephone company inquires, "observe the golden rule of party line usage?" "Absolutely. If the other party's talking, we jiggle the receiver hook and make wise cracks until he gets discouraged and quits."

How It's Done.
(Buffalo Express.)

"Do you," the telephone company inquires, "observe the golden rule of party line usage?" "Absolutely. If the other party's talking, we jiggle the receiver hook and make wise cracks until he gets discouraged and quits."

How It's Done.
(Buffalo Express.)

"Do you," the telephone company inquires, "observe the golden rule of party line usage?" "Absolutely. If the other party's talking, we jiggle the receiver hook and make wise cracks until he gets discouraged and quits."

How It's Done.
(Buffalo Express.)

"Do you," the telephone company inquires, "observe the golden rule of party line usage?" "Absolutely. If the other party's talking, we jiggle the receiver hook and make wise cracks until he gets discouraged and quits."

How It's Done.
(Buffalo Express.)

"Do you," the telephone company inquires, "observe the golden rule of party line usage?" "Absolutely. If the other party's talking, we jiggle the receiver hook and make wise cracks until he gets discouraged and quits."

How It's Done.
(Buffalo Express.)

"Do you," the telephone company inquires, "observe the golden rule of party line usage?" "Absolutely. If the other party's talking, we jiggle the receiver hook and make wise cracks until he gets discouraged and quits."

How It's Done.
(Buffalo Express.)

"Do you," the telephone company inquires, "observe the golden rule of party line usage?" "Absolutely. If the other party's talking, we jiggle the receiver hook and make wise cracks until he gets discouraged and quits."

How It's Done.
(Buffalo Express.)

"Do you," the telephone company inquires, "observe the golden rule of party line usage?" "Absolutely. If the other party's talking, we jiggle the receiver hook and make wise cracks until he gets discouraged and quits."

How It's Done.
(Buffalo Express.)

"Do you," the telephone company inquires, "observe the golden rule of party line usage?" "Absolutely. If the other party's talking, we jiggle the receiver hook and make wise cracks until he gets discouraged and quits."

How It's Done.
(Buffalo Express.)

"Do you," the telephone company inquires, "observe the golden rule of party line usage?" "Absolutely. If the other party's talking, we jiggle the receiver hook and make wise cracks until he gets discouraged and quits."

How It's Done.
(Buffalo Express.)

"Do you," the telephone company inquires, "observe the golden rule of party line usage?" "Absolutely. If the other party's talking, we jiggle the receiver hook and make wise cracks until he gets discouraged and quits."

How It's Done.
(Buffalo Express.)

REFUSES TO WED; PRESSES HER SUIT

Actress Rejects Broker's Proposal in Court; $100,000 Action Continues.

New York, June 26.—A proposal to marry Miss Madeline Dever, formerly of the Ziegfeld Follies, who is asking $100,000 from him in a breach of promise suit, was made in the court through his attorney by Philip M. Shaw, head of Philip M. Shaw & Co., brokers, of William street. Miss Dever promptly refused, and the case went to trial before Supreme Court Justice Giegerich and a jury.

In explaining Mr. Shaw's offer of marriage, Herbert C. Smyth, his counsel, said that when the broker had first proposed, on Sept. 4, 1919, he was married, but was contemplating a divorce, which was obtained in Providence, R. I., on March 24 last.

"We are willing to permit Justice Giegerich to solemnize the marriage," said Mr. Smyth, as he looked at Miss Dever. She quickly shifted her gaze to another direction.

When Miss Dever took the stand as the first witness she told of visiting Mr. Shaw in company with her mother at hotel suites he had engaged in this city and in Boston. She displayed a large diamond ring he had given her and told of her ambition to become a motion picture actress, which she had abandoned, she said, because Mr. Shaw did not approve of it. He promised her a diamond necklace if she would forget about the movies, but she said this promise never materialized.

Miss Dever's attorney, Moses Hirsch, said that the broker had written several letters to his client, and he wished to introduce them in evidence. Mr. Smyth contended that this would not be necessary, as Mr. Shaw admitted his letters to be tendered and affectionate. Mr. Hirsch insisted, however, and one letter was read into the court record.

How It's Done.
(Buffalo Express.)

"Do you," the telephone company inquires, "observe the golden rule of party line usage?" "Absolutely. If the other party's talking, we jiggle the receiver hook and make wise cracks until he gets discouraged and quits."

How It's Done.
(Buffalo Express.)

"Do you," the telephone company inquires, "observe the golden rule of party line usage?" "Absolutely. If the other party's talking, we jiggle the receiver hook and make wise cracks until he gets discouraged and quits."

How It's Done.
(Buffalo Express.)

"Do you," the telephone company inquires, "observe the golden rule of party line usage?" "Absolutely. If the other party's talking, we jiggle the receiver hook and make wise cracks until he gets discouraged and quits."

How It's Done.
(Buffalo Express.)

"Do you," the telephone company inquires, "observe the golden rule of party line usage?" "Absolutely. If the other party's talking, we jiggle the receiver hook and make wise cracks until he gets discouraged and quits."

How It's Done.
(Buffalo Express.)

"Do you," the telephone company inquires, "observe the golden rule of party line usage?" "Absolutely. If the other party's talking, we jiggle the receiver hook and make wise cracks until he gets discouraged and quits."

How It's Done.
(Buffalo Express.)

"Do you," the telephone company inquires, "observe the golden rule of party line usage?" "Absolutely. If the other party's talking, we jiggle the receiver hook and make wise cracks until he gets discouraged and quits."

How It's Done.
(Buffalo Express.)

"Do you," the telephone company inquires, "observe the golden rule of party line usage?" "Absolutely. If the other party's talking, we jiggle the receiver hook and make wise cracks until he gets discouraged and quits."

How It's Done.
(Buffalo Express.)

"Do you," the telephone company inquires, "observe the golden rule of party line usage?" "Absolutely. If the other party's talking, we jiggle the receiver hook and make wise cracks until he gets discouraged and quits."

How It's Done.
(Buffalo Express.)

"Do you," the telephone company inquires, "observe the golden rule of party line usage?" "Absolutely. If the other party's talking, we jiggle the receiver hook and make wise cracks until he gets discouraged and quits."

How It's Done.
(Buffalo Express.)

"Do you," the telephone company inquires, "observe the golden rule of party line usage?" "Absolutely. If the other party's talking, we jiggle the receiver hook and make wise cracks until he gets discouraged and quits."

How It's Done.
(Buffalo Express.)

"Do you," the telephone company inquires, "observe the golden rule of party line usage?" "Absolutely. If the other party's talking, we jiggle the receiver hook and make wise cracks until he gets discouraged and quits."

How It's Done.
(Buffalo Express.)

"Do you," the telephone company inquires, "observe the golden rule of party line usage?" "Absolutely. If the other party's talking, we jiggle the receiver hook and make wise cracks until he gets discouraged and quits."

How It's Done.
(Buffalo Express.)

"Do you," the telephone company inquires, "observe the golden rule of party line usage?" "Absolutely. If the other party's talking, we jiggle the receiver hook and make wise cracks until he gets discouraged and quits."

How It's Done.
(Buffalo Express.)

"Do you," the telephone company inquires, "observe the golden rule of party line usage?" "Absolutely. If the other party's talking, we jiggle the receiver hook and make wise cracks until he gets discouraged and quits."

How It's Done.
(Buffalo Express.)

"Do you," the telephone company inquires, "observe the golden rule of party line usage?" "Absolutely. If the other party's talking, we jiggle the receiver hook and make wise cracks until he gets discouraged and quits."

NEWS NOTES GATHERED FROM WORLD OF STAGE AND SCREEN

CONEY ISLAND LIGHTS OUTSHINE BROADWAY AS THEATRE SEASON DIES AND SUMMER BEGINS

Coney Island favorites, Mrs. Joe Hodgins, equestrienne, her baby and her horse.

New York, June 26.—Broadway has moved to Coney Island. The White Lights of Times Square have been deserted for the White Lights of Luna Park.

For the city is off on its summer holiday. And the theatrical district is set for the annual invasion of the invaders.

By the thousands come the invaders, by the thousands go the natives. And the balance remains the same—with the visitors paying dollar bills for their amusement in Broadway, and the natives passing over their dime and quarters to the barkers of the island.

Which has the better time is hard saying. But Coney surely has the gayer party.

It is appeal is that of the circus and bazaar combined. There one can ride on the new "Mile Sky Chaser"—which brings its owners $5.50 a minute—or get a doll or kitchen set for the price of one dime—if he hits the lucky number. Or if his fancy dictates, he may "Drop the Dip" on the "New Bowery" or get his lunch on a picnic ground heath shady trees; see babies raised in an incubator; or run the gamut of 77 fun-making devices in the "New Bowery".

Spreads of babies, recalls one who is not yet on exhibition—but probably road playing to huge business. "Abie" ran 44 solid weeks in Los Angeles, 28 weeks in Cleveland, 15 weeks in Washington, 12 weeks in Baltimore and 14 in Pittsburgh. These are all record runs for these cities. The play has been six months in Chicago and is still going strong.

In a comparatively small city like Erie, Penn., the play ran for four weeks, the first time any show ever played more than one night in Erie.

Jewish Boy and Irish Girl.

No one knows how many more years it may run in New York. The story is a simple one about the love of a Jewish boy for an Irish girl and the consequent complications between the families.

Miss Nichols needs to share the profits with no one. Thanks to the refusal of the managers to help her, she has no royalties to pay, except to herself. The casts are unimportant and no expensive stars are needed, so the salary list is small.

Miss Nichols was formerly on the stage, starting out with Wright Loring in "The Shepherd King."

If she is not now the world's richest playwright she soon will be, with only one play.

Rejected by Every Manager.

Yet the play was refused with emphasis by every manager in New York. For two years Miss Nichols hawked the play around, but the managers looked upon the manuscript as a "joke." No one would risk a nickel.

Finally in desperation Miss Nichols decided to produce the play herself. She had only $34 as capital, but by dint of hard work and persuasion she managed to get credit enough to manage a company together and hire a theatre.

The first night of the production seemed a fiasco. Miss Nichols had no money to advertise and the result was a slender audience. She managed to get all the New York critics to the show as it opened on an off night. All the critics promptly denounced the show as a "flop." There was not one review with even a grain of praise. Another called it in derision "the worst play in the world."

Even this could not discourage Miss Nichols. She determined to keep the show on for two weeks anyway. As the play was already "broke," she could be no worse off.

Sold Out Ever Since.

To the surprise of everyone but Miss Nichols, the play began to pick up business after the first two or three nights. By the end of two weeks the play was actually showing a profit to the theatre, and of course it stayed on.

Then the public began to come in droves and "Abie" has been "sold out" for every performance since, the greatest record that New York ever saw.

And it is not New York alone. The play has smashed records everywhere. There are five companies out on the Kleehna and others. But "She Stoops to Conquer," put on for but one week, tops them all.

"One Heluva Night" was added to the list of current plays, as was "Flossie," a musical comedy, which opened at the Lyric. Neither will leave an indelible impression; both will pass on unnoticed.

rated with star casts. Witness "Outward Bound," "Fata Morgana," "Leah

Rain or Shine Still Packing Them In!—Be Early

Double Programme IMPERIAL THEATRE Double Programme

Our New Boy Troupe Bigger Hit Each Day!

THE ROSSLEY DUMBELLS JR.

(These Are Eight of the Thirty Lusty Lads)

"ROBINSON CRUSOE"

A Fantasy of Song, Dance and Story

Six "PENROD AND SAM" Six Reels

Booth Tarkington's Screaming Household Comedy

Featuring Ben Alexander and Great Kid Kast

A First National Superfeature

Also Will Rogers in "THE UNCOVERED WAGON" "Fighting Blood" FRI.

Kids at 4.00-8.30 Usual Prices One Mat. 2.30—Eve. 2 Shows

OPERA HOUSE

Two Big Features "LOOK WHAT WE'RE OFFERING!"

A Monster Attraction PICTURES VAUDEVILLE Musical Comedy

BROADWAY VANITIES

MUSICAL COMEDY STOCK

20 GIRLS AND COMEDIANS

Presenting—"THE LOVE NEST"

A Very Enjoyable Farce Comedy DON'T MISS IT.

Please Note Hours—Feature Picture shown at 7.30 Musical Comedy at 9. Feature shown again after comedy.

No Advance in Prices. Matinee every day at 2.80. 15c, 25c. EVE. 15c, 25c, 35c

CLARA KIMBALL YOUNG in A WIFE'S ROMANCE

EXTRA PATHE REVIEW AESOP FABLES EXTRA

A ROLLING FARGE UNIQUE FOR THE WEEK-END

More Laughs Than A Bellboy Has Buttons!

Every time someone called for ice-water—Bellboy 19 got into hotwater!

Room 966 looked like Room 999 when the key was upside down

—and that's how rich old uncle who had disinherited him (Just because he was in love) found himself in the wrong room

—with a lot of things to explain —and a gay young nephew to forgive!

THOMAS H. INCE PRESENTS DOUGLAS MACLEAN in

Bellboy 19

A Merry Mixup of Loves and Laughs.

—EXTRA—"HOT AIR" Mennard Comedy

"HAUNTED VALLEY" Episode 7.

ST. JOHN MONDAY, JUNE 30

PRICES: Children under 9, 30c. Adults, 75c.

Seats on sale Circus Day at Ross Drug Co., Ltd. Same price as at show grounds.

20-24-26

Solves the kiddies' shoe problem

FLEET FOOT is the most sensible footwear you can put on children's feet—comfortable, durable, economical.

Fleet Foot, made of porous canvas and flexible rubber, is ideal summer footwear for children.

Fleet Foot gives the kiddies' feet a chance to grow and to develop their young muscles.

Leading doctors and school nurses approve and recommend Fleet Foot shoes.

Make this a Fleet Foot summer and cut down the family shoe bill.

There's a difference in rubber sole canvas footwear, just as there are differences in hosiery,