

LOCAL NEWS

St. Mary's Band has been engaged to go to Moncton on Sunday to attend the decoration service and parade of the Oddfellows of that city.

Rev. J. Cartledge, who for several years has been Anglican rector of Richibucto, has resigned his charge. He is on his way to England to engage in clerical work.

S. L. Squire of Toronto, chairman of the executive of the Canadian Good Roads Association, arrived in the city last night, to confer with the officers of the New Brunswick Automobile Association and with Hon. P. J. Veniot. The primary object of his visit was to attend the meeting of Nova Scotia municipalities held recently at Kentville. Mr. Squire spoke last night on the need for good roads throughout Canada and the work the government was doing to help.

He left the city this morning for Toronto.

A horse owned by Fred Northrup got loose yesterday afternoon and wandered about Main street for a time. It was finally captured by the police and lodged in a barn on Simonds street from where it was taken by the owner.

A juvenile arrested early in August, accused of discharging firearms in Rockwood Park, was before the police magistrate yesterday and allowed to go with his mother. The boy had been confined to hospital with a broken wrist, sustained while attempting to escape arrest.

Those in charge of the Anti-Tuberculosis Association tag day yesterday were Miss Katherine Bell, Miss Helen Sydney Smith, Mrs. Haney, Mrs. Arthur Bowman, Mrs. W. H. Shaw, Mrs. W. P. Bonnell, Miss M. Sadleir, Mrs. W. E. Foster, Mrs. Simon Jones, Mrs. Dabby, Mrs. F. B. Ellis, Mrs. W. E. Scully, Miss Agnes Warner, Dr. Doris Murray, Mrs. Carritte and Mrs. F. L. Peters. The association was assisted by members of the I. O. D. E., the Catholic Women's League and the Red Cross Society.

Rev. MacIntosh McLeod has resigned the Presbyterian pastorate at New Mills, Restigouche county, to accept a call to the pastorate of the First Presbyterian church at Providence (R. I.). Rev. Mr. McLeod will leave New Mills on September 10.

Hearing in the case of Archie, Caswell and Herbert Hamilton, charged with interfering with religious service at Brown's Flat early in August, was taken up in the circuit court before Judge Crockett at Hampton yesterday. The crown's prosecution was closed during the day and it was expected that the case would be finished today.

A smoker was held last night at the armory at which the members of the militia were present. There was a game of bowling, Headquarters versus the Ordinance, after which the members went to the lecture room where the presentation of the medals, spoons and money prizes took place. Col. A. H. H. Powell and Major W. C. Magee officiated at the presentation.

Four young men, R. A. Weches, H. Moore, A. G. Moore and H. H. Pierer, arrived in the city yesterday from Prince Edward Island. They made the trip by automobile and camped along the way. They plan to go to Fredericton and return to Prince Edward Island by way of Minto and Sussex.

A young lad's anxiety to get into the exhibition grounds yesterday led to his climbing the fence and in his anxiety to get out of a policeman's sight he fell and sustained a dislocated elbow. He was taken to the hospital after treatment at the St. John Ambulance Association booth by Dr. T. D. MacGregor. The total of cases treated yesterday was twelve.

See for Yourself How Lovely These Rugs Are

We wish we could show you right here how beautiful Gold Seal Congoleum Art-Rugs are. Their colors are so delicate, so softly blended—their patterns so artistic. You really must see the rugs themselves to fully appreciate them. There are many attractive patterns suitable for all the various rooms in the house.

But even more important than the beautiful designs of these rugs, are their practical, labor-saving qualities. Congoleum Art-Rugs are impervious to dirt, water and spilled things. They lie perfectly flat, without fastening of any kind and are cleaned by merely a quick, light mopping. Service is guaranteed by the famous Gold Seal.

With all these advantages, small wonder that Gold Seal Congoleum Art-Rugs have become Canada's favorite floor-covering. If you have not seen them yet, a surprise awaits you. Ask your dealer to show them to you today.
