

Other certificates will be granted, where necessary, by the Senate and the individual professors.

RESIDENCE.

The College building is a stone edifice, elegant and commodious, pleasantly situated on the rising ground above the City, commanding a view of the University grounds, the City and the scenery of the St. Lawrence. As immediately adjoining McGill College it affords Students the greatest facilities for attending lectures in that Institution, and obtaining constant access to its valuable Library and Museum.

In addition to its Library, Lecture Rooms and Offices, it contains studies and dormitories for resident Students, together with bath rooms and other modern conveniences. The rooms are comfortably furnished, and the whole building, including the individual rooms, is well ventilated, heated with hot water pipes and lighted with gas.

Resident Students are furnished with rooms, heating and light, free of expense; but the Refectory and attendance of servants are in the hands of the Steward, whose fee will in no case exceed three dollars per week, and who is responsible to the Board of Management for the efficiency of his service.

Application for rooms must be made to the Principal, and these will be granted in the order in which applications are received. But in the choice of apartments Students having academic seniority will be entitled to a preference.

The Officers of the College, non-resident Students and friends of the Residents may be present at any meal in the Refectory, when they shall pay to the Steward the charge fixed for the same.

The Morning bell shall be rung at $\frac{1}{4}$ to 7 A.M.; Prayers at $7\frac{1}{2}$ A.M.; Breakfast at $7\frac{1}{2}$ A.M.; Dinner at 1 P.M.; Tea at $6\frac{1}{2}$ P.M.; Prayers at 7 P.M.; Gas turned off at $\frac{1}{4}$ to 11 P.M.

In the event of a Tutor being in residence, he shall preside at table, and morning and evening Prayers. In the absence of such an officer, a President shall be elected from among the seniors at the commencement of the session by the resident Students, subject to the approval of the Senate.

Personal applications, complaints, &c., must be made to the Principal, solely, within the office hours that shall be indicated at the commencement of the session.
