- A- Well, the windows were all closed, sir.

- A- No, sir; there is no lock on the windows.
- Q-66 Was there anything to prevent them opening windows?
- A- No, sir.
- Q-67 Was there any guard inside where the men were?
- A- Yes, sir; the guard was distributed through the car.
- Q-68 Were they asleep or awake?
- A- Yes, sir; the men on duty were.
- Q-69 The men on the ends of the car were awake?
- A- Yes, sir.
- Q-70 Was there an N.C.C. in that car?
- A- Yes, sir.
- THE COURT: You might just about as well send the prisoners alone with directions to go where you wanted them, at that rate.
- BY THE COURT:
- Q-71 Had you received orders to take any precautions, extra?
- A- Nothing extra to that; just 2 guards at each end of the car.
- Q-72 Who gave you those orders?
- A- Capt. Thompson.
- Q-73 He said nothing about keeping a guard awake inside of the car?
- A- No, sir.
- Q-74 And yet you say that there was nothing to prevent men getting out of the windows?
- A- No, sir.
- Q-75 Except the closed windows?
- A- No, sir.
