QUITE A BARGAIN.

Arthur, dear, she said, I do wish you would not use cigarettes.

Why?

Because you don't know what is in them.

Oh, yes I do! Why, for the trifling sum that a cigarette costs, you get nicotine, valerian, possibly a little morphia and any quantity of carbon.

She looked up into his eyes and murmured: Arthur, dear, it does seem like a bargain, doesn't it?

HE KNEW THEM.

Hungry Higgins—Wot! You dunno what a miser is! A miser is a man wot denies himself the necessaries of life, when he has the money to buy them.

Weary Watkins—Oh, I have met some of them fellers. But I thought they called themselves prohibi ionists.

It takes nine tailors to make a man,

But the world has not yet learned

How many are in the construction

Of the tailor-made girl concerned.
